

CHR19 Christy aged 3;9(18) to 4;5(17)

^3;9(18) 5-2-74

<C, pointing out dirt in the backyard that E has been playing in, says:>

C: here's the dirt that might kill babies .

% REL

^3;9(19) 5-3-74

<C sitting in the tub. She has a long flexible tube running under her legs and up on the sides in a circle shape. She manipulates the ends of the tubes back and forth, saying:>

C: give me my soap or I'll round you in my ball .

% NOVCAUS-PP DAT

^3;9(19) 5-3-74

<Family is outdoors; C scared of the wasps. Says to M:>

C: I want some of your blood sucked if I get some of my blood sucked from a wasp .

<= By a wasp.>

% PASS-GET

^3;9(19) 5-3-74

<As M washes yellow paint off C's hands, C says to her:>

C: I yellowed my hands I painted my hands green .

% NOVCAUS RES-ADJ

^3;9(20) 5-4-74

<C, holding a long-lost fly swatter, says:>

C: we never have usen it .

^3;9(20) 5-4-74

C: go me to the bathroom before you go to bed .

<Also:>

C: you didn't take me to the potty before you went to the potty .

% NOVCAUS-PP

^3;9(21) 5-5-74

<C gives M a party blower, saying:>

C: fix it up .

<She has been trying to get it to roll up by blowing it out and letting it come back, but it is broken. "By fixing, cause to come up", intonation not like usual completive "fix it up".>

% NOVRES-PRT LEXCAUS

^3;9(21) 5-5-74

<C, manipulating something, says:>

C: you can take it unapart and put it back together .

% NOVUN-

^3;9(22) 5-6-74

<C says to M with reference to her overall straps:>

C: just untighten it a little on this side .

% NOVUN- -EN LEXCAUS

^3;9(24) 5-8-74

<After C has told M about a naughty thing that neighbors kids did:>

M: Were they punished etc.?

C: they got spanken they got spankings .

% PASS-GET

^3;9(25) 5-9-74

<With reference to her shoes, C says:>

C: when I'm in the sandbox ... they keep the sand out .

^3;9(25) 5-9-74

<E on the spring horse. C wants to get on too, but has been told not to.

Wanting to make the horse go higher, she says:>

C: yeah , but it'll only take her that much high .

% NOVRES-ADJ PERICAUS-TAKE

^3;9(27) 5-11-74

<C is at home after getting a thorn in her foot across the street. Giving M instructions for the future, she says:>

C: don't bring me over there without putting my shoes on .

^3;9(27) 5-11-74

<C in bed at night, says:>

C: bring me to the potty before you go to bed .

^3;9(27) 5-11-74

<C trying to get a yarn off her tractor steering wheel; asks M for help:>

M: You mean I have to untie it?

C: yeah , untie it off .

% NOVRES-PRT UN-PRT

^3;9(28) 5-12-74

<As E pushes C over, C says to her:>

C: you're making me fall .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;9(29) 5-13-74

<C discovers an extra paper plate under her food in a restaurant, and says:>

C: hey , they got me two plates .

<= Caused me to get, gave.>

% NOVCAUS DAT

^3;10(0) 5-14-74

<Separate utterances with "bring":>

C: why doesn't daddy bring me to his tennis ?

<At home.>

C: bring me to school.

<While we're at home.>

C: I don't want to forget to bring my tennis hat to school .

<At home.>

C: don't forget to bring my tennis hat to school .

C: don't forget to take me to the potty before you go to bed.

<C in bed at night.>

^3;10(0) 5-14-74

<After M asks C if C was worrying about robbers and C says NO because she didn't have any jewelry, she then says:>

C: all children's things don't spend a lot of money .

<Now, the idea is that robbers won't take children's things because they don't cost a lot of money.>

% VMONEY

^3;10(0) 5-14-74

<C explains to M that a card she brought home with her from a neighbor's was drawn by her. M had said it was store-bought. C says:>

C: I drew it it's a card from me drawing it .

^3;10(1) 5-15-74

<C in bed, says to M:>

C: don't forget to bring me to the potty before you go to bed .

^3;10(1) 5-15-74

<When we're at home, C says:>

C: when is daddy going to bring me to tennis ?

^3;10(1) 5-15-74

C: what size do they wear ?

<= What size are they?>

C: what size do the sandals that I have now wear ?

<= "what size sandals do I wear?">

% NOVINTR REL

^3;10(3) 5-17-74

<C in the tub, observes that her "Jennies" get wrinkled from the water. She says:>

C: I don't want to be 'em wrinkly .

M: What?

C: I don't want them to be wrinkly .

% NOVCAUS

^3;10(4) 5-18-74

<C, telling M about Dot's habits, says:>

C: but she doesn't put off her lights when she's gone .

^3;10(5) 5-19-74

<C says as she plays a game trying to catch yarn dangling from C's hand as C runs by. Says:>

C: she's trying to catch this out of my hand .

% NOVRES-PP

^3;10(5) 5-19-74

<As C sticks to her wet tricycle seat, she says:>

C: my trike makes me stick onto it I'm sticking onto my trike .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;10(8) 5-22-74

<After a discussion of how some of C's old shoes are still too big for E, C says with reference to E's feet:>

C: she's growing ... she's growing her feet ... her feet are growing .

% NOVCAUS

^3;10(10) 5-24-74

C: you haven't aten your eggs .

^3;10(10) 5-24-74

<C instructs M on how to tell Julie that M had lost her thong crossing the river, saying:>

C: and say that one of her clogs got losen in the river .

% PASS-GET

^3;10(14) 5-28-74

<After C picks up spilled beads, she says:>

C: that's as all as I could find .

% REL

^3;10(14) 5-28-74

<With reference to a boat in the tub, C says:>

C: stay it down .

% NOVCAUS

^3;10(16) 5-30-74

C: I hope I never get to go to the hospital with an ambulance .

<= Have to goin an ambulance.>

% GETTO-HAVETO

^3;10(17) 5-31-74

C: everything's pour in Cheerios .

<= Everything has to be poured.>

^3;10(17) 5-31-74

<With reference to a piece of paper she is holding out of the car window, C says:>

C: leave it out there <and> just stay it out .

% NOVCAUS

^3;10(17) 5-31-74

<C, playing with a piece of paper in the car, says:>

C: I'll stay it like that then I'll carefully carefully go it up to there and it will fly out .

% NOVCAUS

^3;10(22) 6-5-74

M: Did you need to get something?

C: I need to got -- I needed to get Vicky .

% SLIP

^3;10(23) 6-6-74

<After C picks pieces of rubber off a bathmat and M scolds her for it, she says:>

C: I'm the fixer rubber man .

M: What does the fixer rubber man do?

C: it fixes rubber .

^3;10(27) 6-10-74

<After C gets a splinter in her foot, she says:>

C: I can't walk because I might walk it in farther .

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;10(28) 6-11-74

<C says with reference to Eva:>

C: I've got her caught up with ever .

<= Forever.>

^3;10(29) 6-13-74

<With reference to some object, C says to M:>

C: you roll it up and you put it in your purse 'cause I can't roll it up and I can't stay it rolled up in your purse .

% RES-PRT NOVCAUS

^3;11(0) 6-14-74

<C, playing with a book of matches, says:>

C: I'm pretending like I'm firing this .

<= Lighting this, causing to be on fire.>

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(4) 6-18-74

<C and M in the kitchen preparing food for a dinner party:>

C: the thing that eat are all gonna come to the party .

M: Hmm?

C: <Repeats.>

M: You mean these things we're making?

C: yeah .

% NOVINTR

^3;11(4) 6-18-74

<While at lunch, C breaks a cracker into her soup, saying:>

C: I am crackering my soup .

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(4) 6-18-74

<After C wets on her dress as she sits on the toilet, she says:>

C: I didn't get my dress out of the way of my wetty quick enoughly .

^3;11(4) 6-18-74

<C, making some toy become round (not clay), says:>

C: I can make it round up in a ball . <Also:>

C: round up in a ball . do like that .

<imperative, to the toy.>

% NOVINTR PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;11(4) 6-18-74

<C, pretending a bunch of string on her head is hair, says:>

C: look at my yukky yukky hair I can make it yukkery.

<= Yukkier.>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;11(5) 6-19-74

<C wants to see if a pair of pants will fit Eva. She holds it up, saying:>

C: let's wear it up to her .

% NOVFG-BASIC PERICAUS-LET

^3;11(5) 6-19-74

<C, trying to get yo-yo to return to her finger, says:>

C: I will learn to keep coming it up in one day .

C: now I can only do one in one day .

<Sentence 2 means if will come up once but not twice.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;11(6) 6-20-74

<C at the sink, says:>

C: I'm washing my hands with suds I got my hands all sudgy .

% INSTR WITH-FIG

^3;11(7) 6-21-74

<After M puts C into her room for naughtiness, then begins to get her ready for bed before she officially was allowed out. C says:>

C: don't ever ever ever let me stay in my room until my bedtime .

C: don't ever ever ever make me stay in my bedroom until I go to bed .

% PERICAUS-MAKE PERICAUS-LET

^3;11(8) 6-22-74

<When M is getting ready to cut C's bangs, C says:>

C: my bangs are very cuttiful .

^3;11(10) 6-24-74

<After C dips her doll in a tub of water:>

C: but she's not going to drip on the floor because I dripped her off .

M: How?

C: by shaking her like this .

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;11(10) 6-24-74

<C plans to put a doll that lives in a blue purse into a tub of water in the back yard. She says:>

C: I think that that blue doll's clothes can go in without taking off .

% NOVINTR

^3;11(10) 6-24-74

C: I could have known (some of) them .

^3;11(10) 6-24-74

<After E is taken off the merry-go-round toy in the park and M continues to push just for C and another child, C says:>

C: go it fast for us .

<M had explicitly been pushing it slowly.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;11(11) 6-25-74

<C says with reference to cake crumbs:>

C: I cleaned them up by eating them .

^3;11(11) 6-25-74

<After M pushes C along the floor while C has roller skates on, C says:>

C: mommy , skate me along again .

% NOVCAUS

^3;11(15) 6-29-74

<C, dotting with a crayon on a person she has drawn, says:>

C: it's snowflaking so hard that you can't see this person .

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(16) 6-30-74

<After M brings many toys inside because it is raining slightly, C says:>

M: What if it doesn't rain after all this work?

C: it will because it's dropping .

C: maybe it'll just drop .

C: maybe it'll just drop down to us .

<Reference to rain drops.>

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(18) 7-1-74

<C, after M tells her it's bath time, says:>

C: better not take me a bath !

% NOVCAUS

^3;11(19) 7-2-74

C: mom , I'm the suck cherry man .

M: Are you the suck cherry man?

C: I suck juice out of cherries .

% RES-PP

^3;11(20) 7-3-74

<C adjusts her blankets and dolls as she sits on the couch, saying:>

C: I'm gonna get more occurated hereI can't occurate (it) here .

% NOVGET

^3;11(20) 7-3-74

<C, making her stomach go in and out, says:>

C: I'm pulling my tummy in ... now I'm pulling it out ... I pull it in and out .

% RES-PRT NOVRES-PRT

^3;11(20) 7-3-74

C: do raisins be healthy for people ?

^3;11(20) 7-3-74

<C, using a toy as a pretend crutch, says:>

C: I'm a broken leg one .

^3;11(23) 7-6-74

<After C tells M to put her finger into the propeller of a toy plane after M spins it (real fast), she says:>

C: it can blade your finger if you do it real fast .

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(23) 7-6-74

M: I have to go to the potty.

C: I do too! I have to go badder than you .

^3;11(23) 7-6-74

C: Eva is just touching gently on the plants .

% NOVFG-INTR-BASIC

^3;11(23) 7-6-74

<As C gets ready to give a toy car a big push to send it across the floor, she says two times:>

C: watch how far I can go it .

% NOVCAUS

^3;11(27) 7-10-74

<Airplane to Mexico: C, having a fantasy trip which she E and M might take, says:>

C: we're all going to airplane to Mexico ... not drive to Mexico ... not car to Mexico .

<"Mexico" is always the destiny in her imaginary trips these days.>

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(28) 7-11-74

<With reference to pictures inside a book she's reading, C says:>

C: right now it's storming here it's storming too .

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(28) 7-11-74

<After C jumps on a foam sculpture she's made and it bounces away, she says:>

C: I jumped it to there .

% NOVRES-PP NOVCAUS-PP

^3;11(30) 7-13-74

<With reference to some piece of paper cutting her, C says:>

C: I don't think I'll have it 'cause it papers me .

% NOVDENOMV

^3;11(30) 7-13-74

<C says to Mary H. in the swimming pool:>

C: will you go me over to the ladder .

% NOVCAUS-PP

^3;11(30) 7-13-74

<C says to M in the swimming pool:>

C: will you have me a lesson ?

% NOVCAUS

^4;0(5) 7-19-74

<C, asking about why E is bare, says:>

C: you haven't get -- -- you haven't gotten dressed yet ?

% INCH-GET

^4;0(6) 7-20-74

<C asks M to spell and inscription for her so she could write it on a card for Andrea:>

C: since I haven't given you a card for your birthday, here's a card for you .

^4;0(7) 7-21-74

<C instructs M on how to apply just the right pressure with a pen to write on a piece of paper, saying:>

C: go it hard but not as hard so you can poke through it .

% NOVCAUS LEXCAUS

^4;0(7) 7-21-74

<C explains how she's hurt herself with some small item, saying:>

C: I hitted this into my neck .

% NOVFG-BASIC

^4;0(8) 7-22-74

<After C bites all around a string in a stalk of celery so string only is left, she says:>

C: I bited it out .

% NOVRES-PRT

^4;0(13) 7-27-74

<With reference to a picture of a doll, C says:>

C: I touched her hand to his legs . <Also:>

C: mommy , I touched Eva's hand to his legs .

% NOVFG-BASIC NOVCAUS-PP

^4;0(13) 7-27-74

C: can I have a book readen [redn] before my bedtime ?

% PASS-EMBED PERICAUS-HAVE

^4;0(13) 7-27-74

<After dipping her hand in a water glass and patting E's arm with it, C says:>

C: I'm patting her wet .

% NOVRES-ADJ

^4;0(14) 7-28-74

<With reference to some things she has made, C says:>

C: Eva , you'd better not have torn -- tearn <[tErn]> them up .

^4;0(14) 7-28-74

< C has tried to open a toy milk bottle, but the entire lid came off by accident (tab holding it onto the bottle broke). She says:>

C: I opened it off of it .

% NOVRES-PRT LEXCAUS

^4;0(15) 7-29-74

<C explains how Marc had detained her after M had called her to come, saying:>

C: Marc took me too long 'cause he wanted to show me something .

% NOVCAUS DAT

^4;0(15) 7-29-74

<After M, at C's request, ties a shoelace around C's leg. C says:>

C: will this squeeze the blood from going through ?

<=By squeezing, cause the blood not to go through; keep from going through by squeezing.>

% NOVRES-PRT

^4;0(15) 7-29-74

<C on the edge of the pool about to jump to M. Wanting M to submerge her when she's caught, she says:>

C: go me down .

% NOVCAUS

^4;0(16) 7-30-74

<C watches "Captain Kangaroo" on T.V. The story is about a machine that causes C.K. to disappear for a while. C, now suggesting that the same might happen to Mr. Greenjeans, says:>

C: the machine might put him away .

<= Make him go away.>

% LETCAUS-OVERUSE

^4;0(17) 7-31-74

<C, referring to Todd being naughty at school, says:>

C: Todd really will be spanken .

% PASS-BE

^4;0(17) 7-31-74

<M has been telling C her voice is hoarse, "hoarse" used by M both as pred. adj. and preposed adjective ("hoarse girl") "you're hoarse", etc., but not as an adverb. C says:>

C: I don't talk hoarsey in school .

^4;0(18) 8-1-74

C: mommy , Eva thank -- thought that I hurted her , but I didn't .

% SLIP

^4;0(21) 8-4-74

<C, biting into a small donut with powdered sugar on it, says:>

C: they're small but powdery .

^4;0(24) 8-7-74

<C, telling about her naptime when she slept longer than Marc, says:>

C: Brad slept the longest but I slept the longest of Marc .

^4;0(26) 8-9-74

C: Jason and I (me and Jason?) could get friends, 'cause I'm four too .

% NOVGET

^4;0(26) 8-9-74

C: bring me the pants .

M: OK.

C: get me the pants , I should say .

^4;0(26) 8-9-74

<After C asks if she can get her hair wet in the tub, M says OK if she does it only before the soap gets into the tub:>

M: Where's the soap?

C: I guess it's up there and if it stays up there I guess it's all right , OK ?

^4;1(0) 8-14-74

<After M sends a crying C into her room for bad behavior, C says:>

C: I wish you didn't let me go in my room 'cause it hurts my throat to cry .

<= Make me go >

% PERICAUS-LET PERICAUS-MAKE

^4;1(0) 8-14-74

<C, comparing the sizes of pancakes she has poured onto the griddle, says:>

C: I think these 3 are smallest ones from that one. These 3 are smaller than that one .

^4;1(0) 8-14-74

<Just after C tries to yank off paper stuck to M's leg and M tells her not to, she says:>

C: I thought that was just a little stick stick of something .

M: you mean it's stuck on?

C: yes .

<Verb "stick" used as a noun here, "that which sticks".>

^4;1(1) 8-15-74

<C, pretending to chop on F, says:>

C: I'm cutting you to death OK , you're to death .

% NOVRES-PP

^4;1(1) 8-15-74

<After C eats most of her lunch, she says:>

C: I have everything gone on my plate except for my sandwich .

% PASS-EMBED PERICAUS-HAVE

^4;1(2) 8-16-74

<C and E have been exchanging a towel at lunch time, E in her highchair and C at the adjacent table. C says:>

C: whenever Eva doesn't need her towel, she gives it on my table, and when (I'm done with it) I give it back to her .

% DAT

^4;1(3) 8-17-74

<C, eating at the table and licking something off of her spoon or fork, says:>

C: I cleaned it up from my tongue .

<= "..... with my tongue".>

% LEXCAUS

^4;1(4) 8-18-74

<C looks through a magnifying glass, and says:>

C: let me see if I can see my hand bigger. <Also:>

C: I see you bigger , mommy .

% PERICAUS-LET VPERC NOVCAUS

^4;1(4) 8-18-74

<C instructs M to open the drapery again after M starts to close it, saying:>

C: no ! go it back . go it back .

<C wants to close it.>

% NOVCAUS

^4;1(5) 8-19-74

<C, pretending the house is a boarding elementary school in which she and E are students, says:>

C: we have our each little bed, and our each little desk , and our each pen . <Etc.>

^4;1(6) 8-20-74

<After C finishes sucking on a frozen green bean, she says:>

C: you can cook this (one) now , it has the frozen off . <Also:>

C: I don't like it when it has the icing off .

% LEXCAUS

^4;1(9) 8-23-74

M: Maybe the snake's going to charm the snake charmer. <Or so.>

C: no he's not ... he charmed him up in the basket ... then he charmed him down .

<C watching snake charmer and snake on T.V. Last two sentences after the charmer takes the flute and makes the snake go up and down in the basket.>

% NOVRES-PRT

^4;1(13) 8-27-74

<C, comparing herself to Benjamin, Tabby and Eva, says:>

C: I'm the goodest one of eating because I'm eating my peas and my meat .

^4;1(18) 9-1-74

<C has lately been both hopping and doing a puzzle she didn't used to be able to do:>

Emily: I think you're good at hopping.

C: but I'm gooder than that of doing a hard puzzle .

^4;1(20) 9-3-74

<After F pours water accidentally on C's face as he rinses her hair, she says:>

C: daddy , why did you go it in my face when I tipped back ?

% NOVCAUS-PP

^4;1(21) 9-4-74

<C comments on E's bottom as E sits in the bath tub, saying:>

C: I see it white .

% NOVVERC

^4;1(22) 9-5-74

<After M tells C to hurry getting ready for bed so she can have ice-cream,

C says:>

C: if I do it fast , that'll fasten it up .

M: Fasten what up?

C: the faster I get dressed , the faster (I get ice-cream , or so) .

% NOVCAUS PERICAUS-GET -EN

^4;1(22) 9-5-74

<C, M and E arrive walking up to a building door, in that order. C

says:>

C: I beat from you and you beat from Eva .

<Verb is inherently comparative. Consider this in with other comparatives.>

^4;1(22) 9-5-74

<After M says that C and Andrea could not turn on the hose, C says:>

C: why can't we full the wading pool .

<First use of "full" like this for months. I'm not sure if she uses "fill".>

% NOVCAUS

^4;1(23) 9-6-74

<C, pointing out to M that the stake for rings on the wagon is loose and could come out, says:>

C: it's gonna be broken out .

<= By breaking cause to come out.>

% NOVRES-PRT PASS-BE

^4;1(25) 9-8-74

<After C brings M a washrag (that she plans to wash the car with) wanting
M to confirm she could use, she says:>

C: but I need it watered and soaped .

% PASS-EMBED NOVDENOMV

^4;1(25) 9-8-74

<C, demonstrating how she can carry a heavy plastic box, says:>

C: look how strong I am ... it doesn't even feel strong to me.

<= Feel heavy.>

% VPERC DAT

^4;1(27) 9-11-74

<As M and C inspect a bug (that M has decided was not a termite that "chews the wood), C says:>

C: it's a sniffing bug 'cause it sniffs the wood .

C: it's a sniffing wood bug .

<= a wood-sniffing bug.>

^4;1(28) 9-11-74

<After M tries to take E's glasses to clean them, C says:">

C: don't touch them .

M: <Blows on the lenses: "ha">

C: don't ha them .

% FG

^4;1(29) 9-12-74

<C and M have been talking about the approach of "the fall" and how some trees are losing leaves. C says:>

C: some of them are empty of leaves .

% NOVFG-INTR-REV

^4;1(30) 9-30-74

<C, watching a clown on T.V. who was making himself vanish "in different places", says:>

C: he's not here , he disappeared .

M: Where'd he go?

C: he disappeared himself ... he just keeps disappearing himself in different places .

% NOVCAUS

^4;2(0) 9-14-74

<C has just drawn a picture and wants now to write Marc's name on it. She says:>

C: how do you write Marc , 'cause I want to have it to Marc .

<= "Give it to Marc".>

% NOVCAUS DAT

^4;2(0) 9-14-74

<C requests granulated rather than powdered sugar, saying:>

C: I want these pancakes to be sugared .

% PASS-BE NOVDENOMV

^4;2(1) 9-15-74

<C demonstrates how she could carry a file box, saying:>

C: if it was full you could take it like this .

% PASS-BE NOVCAUS

^4;2(5) 9-19-74

<C, explaining an event at school, says:>

C: and he got punished with the teacher -- by the teacher -- spanking him hard .

% PASS-GET NOVWITH

^4;2(6) 9-20-74

<C, advising F that he shouldn't let E bite him, says:>

C: you better not let her do it cause she bited hard on me .

% PERICAUS-LET

^4;2(7) 9-21-74

<C instructs M to hold a large "rolling-pin like" climbing board steady so she can climb on it to reach a bar above, saying:>

C: I want to hang so put it still .

% PERICAUS-PUT

^4;2(8) 9-22-74

<After M has been on the phone talking to Ann and has said she didn't recognize Ann's voice, C says:>

C: was it Ann ?

M: Yes.

C: but did it hear like her ?

% NOVVERC NOVINTR

^4;2(9) 9-23-74

<M sniffs C's hand, and asks:>

M: What kind of bug am I?

C: a hand sniffer bug .

^4;2(9) 9-23-74

<As M tickles C's back, she asks:>

M: What kind of bug am I?

C: a tickle bug.

<With reference to C's back, M asks:>

M: What is this? <Etc. Then:>

M: So what kind of bug am I?

C: a tickle bug back .

^4;2(9) 9-23-74

<M pinches C's arm, and asks:>

M: What kind of bug am I?

C: a arm pincher .

^4;2(9) 9-23-74

<M pulls C's hair and asks:>

M: What kind of bug am I?"

C: a pulling bug .

M: What is this that I'm pulling?

C: a pulling hair bug .

<M pokes C's tummy and asks:>

M: What kind of bug am I?

C: a poking bug tummy .

<M touches C's leg and asks:>

M: What kind of bug am I?

C: a touching bug .

M: What is it touching?

C: a leg .

M: So what kind of bug is it?

C: a touching leg bug .

^4;2(11) 9-25-74

<C showing M how tall a tiny glass is. Holding her hand at the top of it, she says:>

C: it only goes about this short it's this short .

% NOVINCH

^4;2(12) 9-26-74

<With reference to her sore toe, C says:>

C: when I touch my toe to something , it doesn't hurt .

% NOVFG-BASIC NOVCAUS-PP

^4;2(12) 9-26-74

<After C has just told M that her friend Jenny has green eyes, she says:>

C: I know she has blue eyes but I see her eyes like they're green .

% NOVVPERC

^4;2(12) 9-26-74

<With reference to putting sugar from a box into her cereal, C says:>

C: I want to pour it in ... I want to get it in ... I want < ... contd.>

C: to make it go in .

% RES-PRT PERICAUS-MAKE

^4;2(12) 9-26-74

<C calls to M from her bed and reminds M that M forgot to tape a cloth up over the opening under the counter beside her bed. M had told C earlier to remind her to do it. She says:>

C: ... and I forgot to tell ... I forgot to remember ... I forgot to make you remember .

M: Yes. <Etc.> ... we'll do it tomorrow. <Etc.>

C: I'll try to remember to remember you .

% NOVCAUS PERICAUS-MAKE

^4;2(15) 9-29-74

<C has made us all crowns and royal names. She is "princess sister Marcie", etc. She says to F:>

C: your toy name is King Bud .

^4;2(16) 9-30-74

<C instructs M about what to do as she drapes a balloon over her face, saying:>

C: pinch on the balloon .

% NOVFG-INTR-BASIC

^4;2(16) 9-30-74

<With reference to C's pyjamas -- M had taken them out of the bathroom and C is now in the bathroom. She says to M:>

C: why didn't you stay em here ?

% NOVCAUS

^4;2(19) 10-4-74

<With reference to a child who has learned from his father how to do magic tricks, C says:>

C: I guess he's taught how to from his daddy .

% PASS-BE NOVFROM

^4;2(19) 10-4-74

<C, preparing to do a trick on the couch, says to M:>

C: I want to show you something what I can do .

% REL DAT

^4;2(19) 10-4-74

<C, telling of an activity when Sparks were here and they had juice and crackers, says:>

C: and we putted the orange juice to Tabby and Benjamin and me and Eva .
% DAT PUTGIVE

^4;2(20) 10-4-74

<C, discouraged after she can't find a book for M to read to her, says:>

C: we've read all of the books pretty soon from now .
<= Within a short time in the past.>

^4;2(20) 10-4-74

<C objects to E's trying to take a washrag away from her in the tub, and wanting it down in the water, she says:>

C: I want it to soak wet .
% NOVINCH

^4;2(23) 10-7-74

<C has just measured the depth of water in the tub with her hands at the shallow end and the deep end, found the deep end (here) deeper than the shallow end (there). She says:>

C: I counted (down to the bottom of the tub) or so, and it counted more to here than to there .
% NOVINTR

^4;2(23) 10-7-74

<C has just said that she always has a wetty when she has a B.M., then qualifies it, saying:>

C: unless I had a wetty soon than I had a B.M.
<= more recently than.>

^4;2(24) 10-8-74

<C, commenting to M on the fact that M has orange juice in her glass while the rest have milk, says:>

C: you're the different one of drinks. Me and Eva and daddy are the only ones that match for drinks .

^4;2(24) 10-8-74

<M asking C to say which sentences are "right", which are "silly" and correct those:>

M: The boy drinks water.

C: right .

M: Hair brush the.

C: hair needs to be brushed .

M: Cup the fill.

C: cup needs to be filled .

<C takes over teacher role, gives sample wrong sentence:>

C: put the shoe not on your foot .

M: Don't put the shoe on your foot.

C: don't put the pencil on the paper .

M: It's OK.

C: don't tap the spoon on the table 'cause it'll mark it .

M: OK.

<M has teacher role again, gives sentences to C:>

M: The birds flies away.

C: the birds fly away ?

M: The birds flies away.

C: the bird flies away .

^4;2(25) 10-9-74

<C, asking M how M could have looked for a key in her purse when she'd left her purse at the office, says:>

C: but your purse isn't here so why could have you looked ?

<"why" = "how">

^4;2(26) 10-10-74

<C picks bits of spilled food off the dishwasher top that M had been wiping, saying:>

C: you didn't get all of it but I'm helping you by eating the pieces that you left down there.

% REL

^4;2(26) 10-10-74

<C, commenting on the fact that M has more oatmeal than C and E and she has more than E, says:>

C: you get the most of the people that's up. And I get the most of the children . And Eva gets the lest -- Eva gets the less of the kids .

<F is not yet up.>

% REL

^4;2(26) 10-10-74

<C, holding a fly swatter, says:>

C: what happens if you hit this to someone .

<= Hit someone with this.>

% NOVFG-BASIC

^4;2(27) 10-11-74

<As C eats spilled flour off the counter, she says:>

C: I'm cleaning up this mess by eating it .

% LEXCAUS

^4;2(27) 10-11-74

<As C pours pancakes on the griddle, she says:>

C: mine are easy to tell apart of yours 'cause mine are more lighter than yours .

<Not clear, but hers are lighter in color.>

% FROM

^4;2(27) 10-11-74

<As M and C play "Simon Says":>

M: Simon says "touch your toes ".

C: to what ?

M: Simon says "touch your knees ".

C: to what ?

<C has been following all other directions. Now pauses confused as if M has given incomplete directions. First time M has used "touch" in the directions.>

% NOVFG

^4;2(28) 10-12-74

<With reference to her sweater, C says:>

C: it doesn't sweat me when it's cold but it sweats me when it's this cold .

% NOVCAUS

^4;2(28) 10-12-74

<C and M have just been discussing a picture of a boy who's revolved so fast he's turned into a whirlwind. C, now points to a picture showing him slowing down, and says:>

C: and here's he's undizzying .

% NOVINCH

^4;2(28) 10-12-74

<M testing C's understanding of the D.O. of "touch":>

M: Can you touch your nose?

C: with my feet I can .

<C then puts her foot up against her nose, and says:>

C: I'm touching my feet with my nose .

M: Can you touch my hand?

C: with what ?

% FG-REV

^4;2(28) 10-12-74

<C, telling M and then F, that the ruler would have to be shared in a game she's playing. She says:>

C: we will have to share the ruler with daddy, and daddy we will have to share the ruler for mommy .

^4;2(28) 10-12-74

<C, protesting that she didn't want the sweater M had given her, says:>

C: it always sweats me ! that sweater is a sweating hot sweater .

% NOVCAUS

^4;2(29) 10-13-74

<C has a cup of juice and is about to pretend to have Vicky (= "her") drink it.

E now tries to take the cup and do it. C says:>

C: no , Eva , I'll drink it I'll make her drink it .

<Causative verb error, immediately corrected by herself.>

% NOVCAUS PERICAUS-MAKE

^4;2(29) 10-13-74

<With reference to the door that E was trying to shut, C says to E:>

C: stay it open .

% NOVCAUS

^4;2(29) 10-13-74

<C is about to feed her doll and is worried that there's not much food in the dish. M says that Vicky doesn't need much, and C says:>

C: how come she doesn't need very much food ?

M: 'Cause she can't eat very much.

C: well , I make her eat .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^4;3(0) 10-14-74

<In the tub after M has put in the bubble bath, C talking to E, says:>

C: our own sudsy place we're so sudsy .

<= Sudsy.>

^4;3(1) 10-15-74

<M has been chopping onions and is crying. She explains to C that onions make your eyes water:>

M: It makes them sting.

C: does it sting to you ?

% VBODYPART DAT

^4;3(2) 10-16-74

<C is mad at F because he used her little knife to make a honey sandwich and it had honey on it when she wanted it. She says:>

C: you got it with honey and I was going to use it .

% WITH-FIG PERICAUS-GET FG

^4;3(2) 10-16-74

<C, washing the tile wall next to the tub as she sits in the bubble bath, says:>

C: the wall will get nice and clean of this bubble stuff .

% INCH-GET

^4;3(2) 10-16-74

<Before going to bed, C says:>

C: I want a book read - en <read-en [rEdAn]> .

% PASS-EMBED

^4;3(2) 10-16-74

<C and E in the tub. C pulls a big round balloon around, saying to E:>

C: don't come over here , 'cause there's a snake over here .

M: Don't tease honey.

C: well , there's a balloon snake over here .

^4;3(2) 10-16-74

<C, wrapping a balloon around her skin in the tub, says:>

C: look at my cast it's a balloon cast .

^4;3(3) 10-17-74

<After M tells C to go to the potty at bedtime, C says:>

C: I went close to now .

<C went recently.>

^4;3(6) 10-20-74

<C is upset because her drawing isn't like a turkey. She says:>

C: and it not is -- - and it's not a turkey .

<Two false starts of this sort ("not is") before she corrects herself.>

% SLIP

^4;3(6) 10-20-74

<C and Andrea sitting on a chair together with books. A is pretending to nap.

C tries to get her attention, saying:>

C: Andrea , I want you to watch this book .

C: Andrea , I want to watch you this book !

C: I just want you to watch this book .

% NOVCAUS

^4;3(8) 10-22-74

<As C and E roughhouse on the couch, C says:>

C: Eva's touching me but I'm not touching her .

% FG

^4;3(8) 10-22-74

<C, asking about broken button on M's shirt from which the cloth covering

(= "the soft") has come off, says:>

C: 'cause it doesn't have the soft on it ?

<Asking if this is what makes it broken.>

% NOVDEADJNOUN

^4;3(8) 10-22-74

<M explains to C that the tube you can see inside a transparent ball point pen has ink in it. C looks at it, and says:>

C: you mean if we break it out the ink will come out ?

<"Break it out" = "by breaking, cause it to come out".>

% NOVRES-PRT

^4;3(9) 10-23-74

<C shows Eva's doll to M, and says:>

C: and it was broken just on its head .

<She's been saying its head was broken.>

^4;3(9) 10-23-74

<C showing M, how in bed, she fell down from a sitting to a lying position.

She says:>

C: after me and Eva talked for a little while , I just falled down my head on my blanket .

% NOVCAUS-PP

^4;3(10) 10-24-74

<After M tickles her and she doesn't laugh, C says:>

C: I'm ticklish but I holded my laughing in .

% RES-PRT

^4;3(10) 10-24-74

<C watches people sing a slightly different version of "Down in the Valley" than M has sung to her, and says:>

C: but they're singing it it's singing a little differently at the end .

% NOVINTR

^4;3(11) 10-25-74

<As M and C roughhouse, C says:>

C: I can't hold on tight 'cause I'm so laughing .

^4;3(11) 10-25-74

<C has been coloring a picture of a person with a red shirt. She says:>

C: I putted part of the sleeve blue, so I crossed it out with red .

% NOVRES-ADJ PERICAUS-PUT

^4;3(11) 10-25-74

<C tries to push M's hand off her stomach, saying:>

C: let's get this hand rid of .

% PASS-EMB PERICAUS-LET

^4;3(11) 10-25-74

<After M told C to "touch your nose" C pats her foot up to her nose, saying:>

C: I touched my nose with my toes .

% FG-REV

^4;3(11) 10-25-74

<C and E in the tub. C, about to squirt a blaster full of water at E, says:>

C: mommy watch , 'cause Eva will do something when I squirt it to her .

% RES-PP LEXCAUS DAT

^4;3(12) 10-26-74

<C on her tractor. She spins the wheel to show that nothing happens, saying:>

C: I can't go with turning my wheel because it's broken.

<Instrumental "with".>

% NOVWITH LEXCAUS

^4;3(12) 10-26-74

<C wants to get out a knot in the hair-dryer cord. The hair-dryer is plugged in. She says:>

C: I'll get it out after it's plugged out mommy , can I unplug it ?

% UN-

^4;3(12) 10-26-74

<After C gives a broken mask to F to fix, she says to M:>

C: it can fix . (they ?) fixed (one) <Etc.>

<She'd gotten it earlier at a party and perhaps one had been broken and been fixed at the party.>

% NOVINTR

^4;3(15) 10-29-74

<With reference to a mean boy at school who is often sent out in the corridor, C says:>

C: and if I come along he just be means to me .

^4;3(15) 10-29-74

<C explaining how at school they saved seeds from a pumpkin and plan to roast and eat them tomorrow. She says:>

C: and try how they eat when its snack time tomorrow .

<Eat = "taste".>

% NOVINTR

^4;3(17) 10-31-74

<C, explaining to Andrea about the cheese we have that is already in thin slices, says:>

C: it's thin . and you don't have to cut it thin .

% RES-ADJ

^4;3(18) 11-1-74

<C, complaining about a pain under one arm as she tries to use a scissors, says:>

C: I can't even scissor with both arms .

% NOVDENOMV

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<With reference to the amount we can breathe, C says to M:>

C: you get the most air of me and Eva .

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<C, telling M how she could get rid of chalk circles she's just drawn on the patio, says:>

C: I could water them off .

% NOVRES-PRT

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<When C and F have an accident in the doorway, C says to him:>

C: you scratched me by your long fingernails.

% NOVBV

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<C commenting on scratches on the chairs. She has some pebbles and thinks that did it. She says:>

C: they got all scratched up of rocks .

<= By rocks, with rocks.>

% PASS-GET

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<C, reminding M that her long stick is not available to make a broom with because she made it into a horse by fastening a paper bag to one end, says:>

C: now it's made out of a horsie see ? it's made out of a horsie .

% PASS-BE

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<Context?>

C: then they match in again when it's night .

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<With reference to a toy snake, C says:>

C: want me to curve this to an S ?

% RES-PP LEXCAUS

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<F telling C about caveman days. After a list of things people didn't have then:>

F: The children had no T.V.s then.

C: <astonished> what did they watch T.V. with ?

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<With reference to some objects, C says to F:>

C: want to see if they can be breaked -- broken ?

% PASS-BE

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<C, wondering about some expression of M's, says:>

C: why do you look like that to me ?

<=at me.>

% VPERC

^4;3(20) 11-3-74

<C, wondering about the hours of the local laundromat, says:>

C: why is the laundry place stayed open all night ?

% NOVCAUS PASS-BE

^4;3(20) 11-3-74 [CHECK]

<C talking about the saddle bag of the big wheel. Uses "made on" as intransitive V.

C: ... made on ...

<Cf. Andrea's "this made into a J".>

% NOVINTR

^4;3(21) 11-4-74

<As M feeds Eva, C says:>

C: sometimes Eva needs to be feeded with you because she doesn't eat .

<With you = by you.>

% PASS-BE

^4;3(23) 11-6-74

<With reference to burner on the stove, C says:>

C: I'll try not to lean back to it .

^4;3(23) 11-6-74

<C tries to zip her sweat shirt, saying:>

C: I can't zipper it .

% NOVDENOMV

^4;3(26) 11-9-74

C: see how bigger this is ?

<= How much bigger.>

^4;3(28) 11-11-74

<C and M have been playing with "Silly Putty"; now it is stuck to something. C says:>

C: I can't get it off or it'll pull too long ... you pulled it too long .

% NOVRES-ADJ NOVINTR

^4;3(28) 11-11-74

<C, telling M about the cheese she prefers, says:>

C: remember that the kind I like the best is the kind that doesn't have the wrappering on it ?

% REL

^4;4(1) 11-15-74

<C standing on a pillow. She tries to lift the pillow off the ground by holding onto it and then jumping. She says:>

C: I can jump with holding on this .

<Instrument with "with".>

% NOVWITH

^4;4(1) 11-15-74

<After M splashes water on C's face in the shower, C says:>

C: you made part of my patch come off by doing that .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^4;4(1) 11-15-74

<C, touching the ceiling with something, says:>

C: I can even touch this to the man of the ceiling .

<The meaning of "man" part, not clear.>

% NOVFG-BASIC NOVCAUS

^4;4(1) 11-15-74

<C says to M:>

C: you keep (there) .

<Wants her to stay in the bathroom as she is in the shower. First use of "keep" in the sense of "stay" since one use, before age two.>

% NOVINTR

^4;4(1) 11-15-74

C: I haven't got five yet .

<= Gotten to be five.>

% NOVGET

^4;4(1) 11-15-74

C: I promise I will have <[heyv]> .

<Approximate have, from "behave" as a V.>

^4;4(2) 11-16-74

<C hugging E, says:>

C: I'm going to marry with my Eva .

^4;4(3) 11-17-74

<C has just said that F was only able to read to her in the morning and in the P.M. She then says to M:>

C: ... and through those times I'm at school .

<= Between those times.>

^4;4(6) 11-20-74

<With reference to a bump M went over while driving the car and C's head bumped into the window, C says to M:>

C: you hit my head to the window .

% NOVFG-BASIC NOVCAUS LEXCAUS-OVERUSE

^4;4(8) 11-22-74

<C, after eating much popcorn, says:>

C: I'm full from popcorn .

% NOVFROM

^4;4(8) 11-22-74

C: you shouldn't have given Eva that .

% DAT

^4;4(8) 11-22-74

<E playing with riding toy. C says about the steering wheel:>

C: you don't have to do anything to stir it except turn the stirring wheel .

% LEXCAUS

^4;4(10) 11-24-74

<After C told Linda that she doesn't mix her Instant Breakfast:>

L: How do you eat it then?

C: I just eat it by my spoon .

% NOVBV

^4;4(11) 11-25-74

<C, describing a storm, says:>

C: it was winding <[wInd-]> hard and then it started raining .

% NOVDENOMV

^4;4(11) 11-25-74

<C, struggling with the lace on her boot, says:>

C: how was it shoelaced ?

% NOVDENOMV PASS-BE

^4;4(22) 12-5-74

<With reference to a pancake M is fixing for C:>

M: Wait until I butter it and put some sugar on it.

C: and syrup it .

% NOVDENOMV

^4;4(22) 12-5-74

<After M put C down on the floor, C says:>

C: you lied me down on this hard floor .

% NOVCAUS-PP

^4;4(24) 12-7-74

<C puts first a bead, then a rubber band, into a piece of play dough she's making. She says:>

C: I think I'll bead it I think I'll rubber band it .

% NOVDENOMV

^4;4(26) 12-9-74

<After C has been telling F about gingerbread men she brought home from a friend's house, she says:>

C: would you like me to ... have ... you some .

% NOVCAUS DAT

^4;4(27) 12-10-74

<C, telling M about various games played at a birthday party she went to, says:>

C: the balloons is on the other side , after I ate . <Also:>

C: but there might have been more on the first side .

<Games were played both before and after eating. "Balloons" refers to a game of trying to keep balloons in the air.>

^4;4(28) 12-11-74

<C, asking M about a noise she'd heard, says:>

C: it heard like an airplane .

% NOVVPERC NOVINTR

^4;4(30) 12-13-74

<As M is getting dinner ready:>

M: Is there space at the table? <To F.>

F: No. <Pause of 30 seconds.>

C: clear it off , that's what she means .

% RES-PRT LEXCAUS

^4;5(0) 12-14-74

M: Maybe we can fix it.

C: yeah , by mending it .

M: What does it mean, to mend something?

C: it means to (make the pieces stay together (by glue)) .

<Last part is uncertain.>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^4;5(0) 12-14-74

<After C taps the rhythm of this song on the table, she says:>

C: that hears like " ho ho ho, who wouldn't go ", doesn't it ?

% NOVVPERC NOVINTR

^4;5(0) 12-14-74

<C tastes honey butter; M says "it's made with honey". C apparently takes "with" to introduce agent, as in passive BY phrase. She protests:>

C: it's not made by honey . it is <stressed> honey .

F: What's honey made by?

C: bees .

% NOVBY FROM

^4;5(1) 12-15-74

<With reference to a "train" she's constructing out of flat spongy tiles, C says:>

C: I had enough to fill to full that .

<She's been putting little peg people into the spaces in it and had enough of those to fill all the spaces.>

% NOVCAUS LEXCAUS

^4;5(4) 12-18-74

<C is upset after she can't get a drawing the way she wants it, to include in a "book" of drawings for little Emily. She says:>

C: this one is yukky ! ... be it for a picture !

M: Huh?

C: be it for a picture , I don't need a book .

<Causative "be", in the sense of "let".>

% NOVCAUS

^4;5(4) 12-18-74

<C, wondering if her school class has started yet, says:>

C: is school on yet ?

^4;5(4) 12-18-74

<After the car we are in slips a little on ice, C says:>

C: how come that <stressed> did ?

<Intransitive use of "did" - (it) did that.

% NOVINTR

^4;5(4) 12-18-74

<After C asks about the pliers M has been using to unbend and bend the end of wire necklaces, which we are stringing beads on:>

M: I've been using them for straightening the wire.

C: and unstraightening it ?

% NOVUN- -EN LEXCAUS

^4;5(7) 12-21-74

<With reference to the sputtering noise the humidifier is making, C says:>

C: how come it looks like that ? how come it hears like that ?

% NOVVPERC NOVINTR

^4;5(7) 12-21-74

<As C licks the cookie dough bowl:> [CHECK]

M: Right. <Then a pause.>

C: that's Jack Sprat .

^4;5(7) 12-21-74

C: I'm licking it pretty clean because it's so good , right ?

% RES-ADJ

^4;5(9) 12-23-74

C: and I don't want to get cookies with germs .

<= Germy.>

% WITH-FIG

^4;5(9) 12-23-74

<C, inquiring about M's expression while listening to C, says:>

C: how come you look like that to me ?

<= At.>

% DAT VPERC

^4;5(9) 12-23-74

<As C sets up a doll party, she says:>

C: what can I pretend to be the cake ?

^4;5(11) 12-25-74

<C is upset about E moving toys in Noah's Ark. She says:>

C: Eva won't stay things where I want them to be .

% NOVCAUS

^4;5(12) 12-26-74

<After M turns off a light outside C's room when C has been put down for a nap, C says:>

C: how come you shutted that light ?

M: How come I shutted that light?

C: how come you turned off that light ?

^4;5(12) 12-26-74

<C shows an object to an audience and then pretends to make it disappear, saying:>

C: do you see it closely with your eyes ?

% INSTR

^4;5(12) 12-26-74

<With reference to a tiny doll with a parachute -- M asks if C has packed up the parachute part:>

M: Did you get him packed up?

C: I didn't get him packed upped . I didn't get him packed up .

% PASS-EMBED SLIP PERICAUS-GET

^4;5(12) 12-26-74

<While M is holding C, C drops a toy. Wanting M to bend over and pick it up while holding her, C says:>

C: get that from your arm .

<= with your arm.>

% NOVFROM

^4;5(13) 12-27-74

<C, reporting about a pig we saw today that snuffled at her, says:>

C: he blowed to me .

% DAT

^4;5(14) 12-28-74

<C, holding her two hands close together, palms together, asking how dark it is at night when Linda goes to her job. She says:>

C: is it that dark ?

<Cf. this in connection with her question about why M "shutted the light" yesterday. M then asks which is dark and which is light. C then shows that completely dark is with the hands pressed together, light is with them wide apart.>

% SPACE-TIME

^4;5(14) 12-28-74

<After E broke a doorstopper by twanging it:>

M: What happened?

C: that <=stressed> did .

% NOVINTR

^4;5(14) 12-28-74

<C, remarking on the slide Grandma was showing, says:>

C: the policewoman is smiling to that kid .

% DAT

^4;5(14) 12-28-74

<After M tells C that sometimes she "got bored" (end of sentence) with respect to slides we'd seen on the previous night, says:>

C: some (things) I get bored of .

% FROM NOVOF

^4;5(14) 12-28-74

<C, asking about what's wrong with her new Baby Alive, which won't work, says:>

C: is something missing to her ?

<=is she missing something?>

% DAT

^4;5(15) 12-29-74

C: if you wanta get me a picture of doing it , you'll have to wait .

<= Get a picture of me doing it.>

^4;5(16) 12-30-74

<While starting to arrange diapers that are jumbled up in a box, C says to M:>

C: I'll straight these out 'cause you don't know how they went, did you ?

<Causative.>

% NOVCAUS

^4;5(16) 12-30-74

<C says to Richard:>

C: you might haven't seen them .

^4;5(16) 12-30-74

C: we'll find a way how to do this .

% REL

^4;5(16) 12-30-74

C: they're gonna come in don't knowing what it is .

<= Not knowing.>

^4;5(16) 12-30-74

<After C lifts E down from a chair, C says:>

C: I done it with my arms .

% INSTR

^4;5(17) 12-31-74

<With reference to fixing up a bunk-bedroom:>

M: Well, we're gonna have that room painted.

C: all into white .

% RES-PP

^4;5(17) 12-31-74

<C, setting a doll down near someone, has said that the doll is smiling. She then says:>

C: she's happy at you .

% DAT

END OF FILE CHR19