

EVA08 Eva aged 1;8(8) – 1;8(20)

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E, trying to get ice out of a glass, says:>

E: come , ice .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<With reference to food:>

F: Do you want some more?

E: no , not .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

E: ow !

<In the last week or so, E says this often to M whenever M tries to change her dress, etc. Very exaggerated style.>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

E: sweater off .

<Produced on two occasions:>

1) E wanting her sweater off.

2) Soon after, E taking her sweater off M's lap.

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E, climbing up on a chair, says:>

E: on chair .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<Just after E finishes her juice, she picks up M's glass of juice and tries to pour some into her own glass, saying:>

E: pour ... me . pour me .

<= "pour some for me", or "pour into my glass", or some such.

Note odd noun argument for "pour".>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<As E is in the play area, she sees M put butter container on the counter, and says:>

E: butter time .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E says to Grandma, as we leave:>

E: bye , Grandma .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E looks at her bear, whom she's put on the couch lying down with his face in the corner, and says:>

E: beary gone . night-night . sleeps .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E puts her bear on the floor and now goes to get Vicki off the couch. She then brings her to bear and puts their faces together, saying:>

E: kiss ... Vicki .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<After C has gotten some gum for herself and E:>

F: Do you have some gum?

E: Deedee gum .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E brings a bean she's been eating to the kitchen and puts it on the counter, saying:>

E: like ... bean .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<With reference to somebody's offer to help her get a bite of something, E says:>

E: no . Deedee do it . Deedee do it . bite .

<Wants C to help her.>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E, holding her bottle up to bear's mouth, says:>

E: drink . drink bottle .

<First (?) combination of D.O. with "drink".>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E has asked for a bottle and now goes to the refrigerator with M in tow, saying:>

E: juicie drink .

<First time for "juicie".>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<Just after F takes a bite of E's ice-cream, she looks at him in outrage, and says:>

E: bite -- mine !

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E looking at a glass cupboard with little knick-knacks in it, says:>

E: no open.

<Seems to be anticipating that she can't play with it.>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<When F and C return from the potty, M and E have been waiting at the table. E says:>

E: Deedee comes potty .

<First construction like that.>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E rejects M's offer to give her grapes from the refrigerator as they stand at the refrigerator door. She holds up her hand in a "stay" gesture toward the grapes, saying:>

E: no ! stay .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E, leaving her bear at home (?), says:>

E: beary stay .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<After M gives E a mint that has a brown chocolate layer sandwiched between light green mint layers, rectangular shape:>

E: chocolate . gum .

M: Chocolate, yeah. <Or so.>

E: gum too.

<"X too" seems to just be beginning. A few uses so far.>

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<E goes to the phone from which C likes to call the weather, and says:>

E: [ga badi] " call weather ".

<When C tries to take the phone away, E says:>

E: I call ... I weather .

^1;8(8) 10-13-74

<M offers E a longer frito than she has:>

M: Do you want a longer one you can dip way down to the bottom?

<After a pause, picking up the chip, E says:>

E: I will .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<As E sets her cup aside at dinner, she says:>

E: naughty cup .

<She had just before been mock-scolding F, and had used the word "naughty".>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, squeezing M around the leg, says:>

E: tight .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E looks at the picture of a fox cooking hotdogs over a grill outside in her "Best Word" book, and says:>

E: cook . hot dogs .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, stepping on M's foot, says:>

E: [dip] " step " .

<First recent use, I think. There was one, weeks ago.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, taking additional magnets off the refrigerator, says:>

E: mores . take .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E has spread a clean diaper on the floor. She now looks closely at it, and says:>

E: bobidi , bobidi ? no .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E trying to squeeze "Ernie" finger puppet into a little space under the stairs of her playhouse. It is too big. She says:>

E: [bit] " fit " .

<First or second use.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, finishing broccoli in a dish, says:>

E: all gone .

<There are almost no combinations with this, though "X gone" occurs (not for food, perhaps?).>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, Mary W. (without her glasses on) and M are in Woags' kitchen.

E apparently thinks either that Mary doesn't have or isn't currently wearing glasses. Shaking her head, she says:>

E: glasses . Mary . no .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E brings a magnetic letter "O" from the refrigerator at Woags' to Mary W., saying

E: [O] " O " .

<First use, surprising.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<As E takes something back to M's purse, she says:>

E: back . purse .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<Shortly after M accidentally tips her water glass over on the table, E says:>

E: wet .

<Small pause, then:>

E: mommy . spill .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E at the lunch table, has had a piece of ice in her water glass.

Also, M had put a piece of ice in her cup of noodle soup earlier, after ladling the soup out from the pan on the stove. E says:>

E: ice . cooks . stove . in .

<Exact meaning not clear.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<As E bangs her plate around:>

M: Gently with that.

E: I will .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, starting to return a bag of crayons to makings box, says:>

E: back . I will . I will .

<No prior command.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, showing M her crumpled-up gum wrapper, says:>

E: way gum .

<Then throws it in the wastebasket.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, setting her pig doll on top of tiny stairs, says:>

E: up high ! up high oink .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E wants F to sit down? Or possibly she wants him to take her down?:>

M: Sit down.

E: down daddy . daddy . down .

<Not vocative. Intonation.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, wanting Mary to lift her up on the bed, says:>

E: Mary up .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, scolding Woags' cat, says:>

E: naughty miaow .

<First combination with "naughty".>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E playing a game with M where she'd point to camels in a wall hanging, saying:>

E: horsies <or> big horsies .

<She then waits for M to say "No!".>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E looks teasingly at Charlie W., during lunch at his house, and says:>

E: yukky Charlie <[dawi]> .

<First combination with "yukky" for some time.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E looks for the cup she's been using in the tub that was out of view under the bubbles, and says:>

E: my cup .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E looks for the sieve that she's been playing with in the tub, and says:>

E: my sieve <[dif]> .

<First use, had been recently modelled. Later "sieve" spontaneous, as E looks in the dishwasher.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, reaching for the last cookie on a plate, says:>

E: my cookie .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E climbs up into the chair that she's been sitting in at Woags', saying:>

E: my chair .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, trying to get her vinyl fish in the tub, says:>

E: my fish .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E looks around for the picture of C that she's had a minute ago, and says:>

E: Deedee . Deedee go ?

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, standing impatiently near the stove as M ladles out noodle soup into cups for C, E and A, says:>

E: noodle me <[nuni mi]> . in .

<"Noodle for me. in cup", or so, seems best expansion. An imperative.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E points to the ice crusher that is lying horizontally on the counter, saying:>

E: uh oh ice .

<Not clear when or how it got tipped over.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E awakes crying at night; her bear has fallen out of the crib. As M comes into the room, wanting her to pick the bear up, E says:>

E: beary come off . carry .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, returning a bit of cheese to M, says:>

E: like it , mommy , cheese .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E wanting to get up on the bed at Woags' house. M has said that she wouldn't come. E says:>

E: Mary do it .

<Mary then goes with her.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<After E, standing on a chair, drops a picture on the floor:>

E: I drop it .

M: You dropped it.

E: I get .

<First I-V-it, I think (except "I do it").>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<After the top falls off a shampoo bottle that E is holding while in M's arms, she reaches down for it, saying:>

E: top ! I get . I get .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<After E has asked for her bottle, M has told her it was in her bed.

E comes back from her bedroom holding it, saying:>

E: I got it .

<Second I-V-it combination. Cf. "I get it", a few minutes earlier.>

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, showing M a tiny doll's shoe, says:>

E: came off . shoe .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<After C bumps a tiny stair case and the little doll that E has set up on it, falls off, E says:>

E: fell off .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<As M puts E and C in the car to go to Woags' house:>

M: Going to Andrea's house.

E: Mary too .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<C tries to get up on a rock and has probably used the word "up ". Then E, who is trying to get up behind her, says:>

E: up too .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<E, looking at a girl singing on T.V., says:>

E: sing .

F: Can you sing?

E: sing man .

^1;8(9) 10-14-74

<After E draws with a marker on the coffee table, M says:>

M: Not on the table.

<E immediately switches over to the pad that C is drawing on next to her and says:>

E: on Deedee .

<This seems to mean "on Deedee's X".>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

E: Grover nose " Grover's nose ". <Imitated>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E looks at the picture of a boy that ends at his waist at the bottom of the page, and says:>

E: shoes . shoes . find shoes ... shoes . find shoes .

M: Who's finding the shoes?

<As E looks for the boy's shoes, she says:>

E: baby .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<As M and E are looking at the picture of a boy holding a closed bag of candy, E says:>

E: candy bag ... in . in .

<Imitation of "candy in the bag".>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<M asking about the identity of 3 cats in a picture we have been naming:>

M: What about these?

E: miaows .

<Then, E touches just one of the cats, and says:>

E: miaow .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E looks at the picture of a spider in Sesame Street book, and says:>

E: [baydi] " spider ".

<First use, not modelled in this situation. Spontaneous, has been imitated.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, touching the picture of Grover in Sesame Street book, says:>

E: [gowi] " Grover ".

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E looks at the picture of Bert with his head bent down on its side on a box or surface. His eyes open, an odd position. She says:>

E: Ernier ! stuck ! night-night .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, pointing to a number 5 in Sesame Street book, says:>

E: [&di] " letter ".

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, looking at children on T.V. riding dog riding toys, says:>

E: boys ! ride !

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E and M looking at the picture of "cookie monster" tossing up an apple and waiting for it with his mouth open:>

M: What's the cookie monster doing?

E: bite .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E looking at C's Vicki, whom C has just brought out of bed with her and then at bear that got up earlier with E. She says:>

E: Vicki up ... beary up .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E looks at the picture of a princess standing upright on a terrace, and says:>

E: stand up .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E sitting on the couch. She picks her bear up and cuddles it, saying several times:>

E: come here , beary .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, looking at her pink teddy bear, says:>

E: pink pink . pink . beary .

M: Well, the beary is pink.

<E, looking at her bear's eyes, which are black with green lashes, says several times:>

E: pink ... eyes .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, turning quickly past the table of contents of a book, says:>

E: goodbye letters .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E sitting on the couch, says:>

E: patch .

M: Where's a patch?

E: patch on ... Deedee .

<No patches in sight, C doesn't have one on.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<As E tries to stuff the paper head of a boy (out of pop-up book) into the front of her pants, she says several times:>

E: pocket boy .

<Sentence status clear by repetitions with pauses between.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<We are all having supper. C, E and F have been playing some "game" at the table. E says several times:>

E: game boys . <Meaning unclear>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E wants M to unsnap the snap on M's nightgown after E tries and fails. She says:>

E: mommy please .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E looks around for a spoon while having dinner but she cannot find one. She says:>

E: spoon gone.

<Then at some point after M gives her one, she says:>

E: [beybis ... bun] " baby's ... spoon ".

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, looking at Sesame Street book, says:>

E: boy gone .

<I forget the exact reference.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<A sing song. After C goes to the potty, E says:>

E: Deedee wet .

<First apparent use of "wet" as a verb.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E and M up on a fire-engine in the park. E now squats down facing the slide where C is sliding and says:>

E: watch Deedee .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E picks up F's piece of cantaloupe and prepares to take a bite, saying three times:>

E: bite daddy's . <Then does>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<At dinner. C has just gone to the kitchen to get a fork and is still there. E looking after her, says:>

E: wait Deedee .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E at the table, looking at the end window where there is a reflection of a roundish yellow globe light in the play area. She says several times:>

E: [mun di] " moon see " .

<First inverted order with "see".>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<Just as M finishes cutting corn off its cob onto E's plate, E says:>

E: mommy . mommy ... cut .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E protests as M tries to remove her from her play with sundry small objects, saying:>

E: play toys .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<After E's bottle drips on the couch, she says:>

E: [ay dip] " I drip ".

M: Oh dear, did you drip?

<E wipes away the milk, saying:>

E: wipe .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E and C, both in their beds getting ready for night time.

C has been pretending that the design on her wooden bed is pieces of gum and candy. E says:>

E: Deedee eat gum .

<Very deliberate, pause between each word.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E brings an unopened bandaid to M for M to open. She has been back and forth to F with bandaids, but never comes back for this one to take it to F. She says:>

E: open daddy . open daddy's .

<Pause as M opens it.>

M: Who is this for?

E: daddy .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E pulls on the snaps of M's nightgown, saying:>

E: snap .

<First use. M has often modelled in this situation.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<As E pulls, a tiny doll falls off the peg bus where

E had put him. She says:>

E: boy ! came off !

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, putting a bottle up toward bear's face, says:>

E: [dink ba] " drink bottle ".

<Tentative intonation. Then immediately after, she says:>

E: [dip it] " drip it ".

<Not clear if the milk dropped out of the bottle.>

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E sets a cracker down carefully on the floor beside her after M tells her it is time to go out, saying:>

E: cracker stay .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<We are in the house and a band outside. When the band stops for a moment, E says:>

E: [daps] " stops ".

<When the band starts up again, E says:>

E: on .

^1;8(10) 10-15-74

<E, trying to get M's pen and paper, says:>

E: draw baby .

<"Baby" is agent, herself.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, touching the picture of a young woman on a box of raisins, says:>

E: mommy .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

E: pink .

<Produced on three occasions:>

- 1) E watching an orange(y) yellow truck go by.
- 2) Also, two days ago, pointing out blue polka-dots on pillow case.
- 3) Today, holding up a blue magic marker.

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, picking up two barrettes, says:>

E: [ba:ts] " barrettes " .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, holding up 2 lady-bug magnets, says:>

E: two . buggies .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E playing with magnetic letters. Seems to have learned a section of the alphabet by heart E:>

M: That's a letter "G".

E: G , H , I , K .

<Note, 10-18-74, says "X, Y, Z" as she looks at a book.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E leaves the couch where C, M and her bottle are.

She turns first to her bottle, then to C and M, saying:>

E: right back , bottle . right back , guys .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E looks over the back of the chair that she and M are sitting in.

She searches the floor, looking for beads that she's been playing with:>

M: Watcha doing?

E: look . beads .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, looking at the picture of a child on a trike, among many other children, says:>

E: baby doing ?

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E turns around to look over the back of Dot's porch swing at the workman doing something to the windows on the adjacent apartment house. She says:>

E: man doing ?

<= "What's the man doing?".>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, wanting to get up into her highchair at the table, names the different agents who might lift her, saying:>

E: daddy do it ... Deedee do it .

F: C cannot do it.

<Then, as she looks at glasses of milk on the table, she says:>

E: milk do it .

<One of E's first jokes.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, reaching for another handful of pebbles on the back seat of the car, says:>

E: mores .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, trying to pull her bear out of where it's caught in the fold of M's robe, says:>

E: stuck .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, taking a piece of food out of a compartment of her divided dish and putting it down onto the table, says:>

E: out .

<Cf. recently, as she moved something from her placement to the table nearby, she said:>

E: off .

<The general context was the same: both times she was sitting in her highchair that is attached to the table.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, wanting to get out of the bathtub, says:>

E: out .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<After the bell in the clock strikes at Dot's, E looks in the direction of the clock, and says:>

E: [b&w] " bell " .

<Possibly the first non-imitated use.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

E: [yayks] " yikes! ".

<E says this often, in the last few days. Just like C and Marc, with an excited emotional quality, tense body, agitated. Exact nature of things that set if off not clear.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<When E hears sirens from the living room, she says:>

E: sirens .

<First use, no model.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E playing with several beads out of a big container of beads, puts them back and says:>

E: mores . backs .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<As E washes C's back in the bubble bath, she says:>

E: back . back . back . Deedee ..... wash .

<Long pause with intervening speech by others between utterances.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<As E talks on a pretend phone:>

C: Eva, who are you talking to?

E: Markie .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, washing C in the bathtub, says:>

E: wash . Deedee .

<Could be a 2-word utterance.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, watching C pretend to cry in the bathtub, says:>

E: cry . Deedee .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, putting magnetic letters into a small box, says:>

E: [di in] " letters in " .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E picks C's big ring up off the floor and puts it back into the container from which she'd removed it. She says several times:>

E: ring off .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<M running the tub for C and E. E stands by waiting to get in, and wanting M to take her pyjamas off, says:>

E: clothes off .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, says with reference to a dress she wants on?:>

E: on me .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, wanting to get down from her highchair, says:>

E: I down .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E in her highchair at the table, F standing near her:>

M: Do you want more or have you had enough?

<Not looking at F, evidently in response to M's question, she says:>

E: down . daddy down .

<Then, she turns toward F, and says:>

E: daddy , down .

<Intonation becomes more vocative.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<As E runs down a slightly inclined grassy slope in the park, she says several times:>

E: run down . <Slightly uncertain>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<As E stands up in her highchair, she says:>

E: stand up .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E upset as C takes up her room in the tub.
She tries to push her away, saying:>

E: Deedee , gidi .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, washing the side of the tub with soap bubbles, says:>

E: wash. naughty boys .

<Meaning unclear. As part of a soliloquy.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<In the park, E pushes aside a bit of something that looked like chewed bread, saying:>

E: yuk cracker <[g&ki]> .

<"Cracker" in the last few days.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E sitting on a chair at the table, sees M with her bear in the next room. She summons her and pats the table in front of her where she wants M to put the bear down, saying:>

E: my beary . here . table .

<About the second use of "table".>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E hands M a little Fischer-Price man as M gets C and E out of the car.
Wanting M to put it in M's pocket, where E has put her dolls often lately,
She says:>

E: pockets man .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E shouting at the door of the bathroom as she is in the tub, says:>

E: money daddy .

<Shortly earlier, F had pretended to buy bubbles from her and had given her a pretend penny. She seems now to want him to come back.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<As E drops a necklace on the floor over the side of the chair, she says:>

E: drop it .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, wanting C to put clothes on a doll, says:>

E: Deedee do it .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<After a box of beads falls off the chair that E and M are sitting in, E gets down to get them, saying several times:>

E: I do it .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<After a piece of a magnet falls under the edge of M's bathrobe as E and M sit on the couch, E reaches for it, saying:>

E: Oops . I get . mommy . on . DINK .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E finds M to show her that E has spilled cheerios out of her cup. As we look at the spill, E says:>

E: spill cheerios .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, trying to grab juice pitcher away from M and to stir it, says:>

E: make <[weyk]> juice .

<First use of "make".>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, touching numbers on a page of Sesame Street book, says:>

E: touch . eight . bobidi .... bobidi touch .

<Not the figure 8. Perhaps this is a joke, since there are no bobidis in the context.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E looks at the picture of a child holding a bag of candy (which we talked about yesterday), and says:>

E: candy ... open .

M: Open candy?

<After she turns to a different page in the book, she looks at a girl muppet, and says:>

E: open candies ... open dolly .

<Exact meaning unclear. "Open to the dolly?".>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<As E opens a book, she says:>

E: open .

<Several times.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, holding a closed raison box and wanting it open, says:>

E: open .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, unfolding a towelette, says:>

E: open .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, picking up a crescent-shaped cheerio, says:>

E: moon .

<Last night, handing M a magnet shaped like a "D", she said:>

E: moon .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, coming to M to have M snap the back of her pyjamas, says:>

E: [d&p] " snap ".

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, wanting to undo another snap on M's nightgown, says:>

E: more off .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, looking under the bathrobe drapped over M for M's feet, says:>

E: [bayn bit] " find feet ".

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<After E leans over the side of the chair and picks up her bottle off the floor, she says:>

E: got it .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E holding a barrette and manipulating its open clasp, says:>

E: came off . barette . came off .

<It has not been on her hair.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E and M on Dot's porch swing. E watches C come around the side of the house up to the porch stairs, and says:>

E: Deedee going on .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<Last night, after C was in bed and F had left the room, E said:>

E: daddy going go .

<She was being silly. Again, after F left the bathroom where he was visiting E and C in the bubble bath, she said:>

E: daddy going go .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<After F leaves the bathroom where C and E are having a bath, and presumably goes upstairs to his office. E says:>

E: bye-bye office .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E puts her bottle down next to M on the couch and then leaves, saying two times:>

E: bottle . stay . stay mommy .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E has been blowing bubbles in her cup. When F and M also begin blowing bubbles, she says:>

E: too !

<First use in isolation.>

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<E, refusing M's help as she gets out of the car, says:>

E: I do it .

^1;8(11) 10-16-74

<As M gets ready to pour milk into our dinner glasses:>

M: Lets have milk for supper. <Or so.>

E: I juice .

<= "I want juice". Happy when M gives her juice.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E, putting building toys back into a container, says:>

E: [b&nts] " back ".

<Word meaning unclear.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<As E walks on her bear, she says several times:>

E: step .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E, touching holes in an electric socket in the wall, says:>

E: [owsis] " holesies ".

<Perhaps the first completely spontaneous use. Has been recently [ows], not in this context.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E, patting her chest as she looks into the mirror, says:>

E: me .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<After M turns one of several pancakes on the griddle over, E says:>

E: [w&n] " one " .

<Then, she points anxiously to the others. "One" just coming in.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

E: mommy ?

M: What?

E: um ..... popcorns . bite . cup .

<Two separate times today. A couple of days ago she began calling M, then saying "um ... popcorns". She seems to be developing a ritual based on our having popcorn the other night. She puts hers in a cup.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E sees C put a sweater on to go out. She now wants one on too, saying:>

E: sweater on .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E holding and examining cellophane that M had just opened and taken a cracker out of, says:>

E: cracker in.

<E also has a cracker and trying to put the cracker back in the paper, she says several times:>

E: in cracker .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E comes to M to get her bib off after she finishes lunch, saying:>

E: bib off .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E looks at a towel wrapped around M's wet hair and apparently wants it off. She says:>

E: off towel .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<At E's request, M has put a bandaid on E's arm. Now, as she tries to pull it off, she repeats several times:>

E: off bandaid <[b&n]> .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E runs over to where M has just gotten out C's white sweater, which is similar to E's, saying:>

E: my sweater <[b&wdi]> .

<She began saying "sweater" spontaneously on 10-13.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<After E drops a cracker on the floor and M picks it up and puts it on her own tray, E says:>

E: no more cracker . 'way .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E picks two mismatched shoes out of M's closet, then throws one back in. Now, she holds the other one and looks around as if for its match, saying:>

E: one ... go ?

<Happy when she finds another similar shoe. Not certainly one sentence.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E, putting beans (beads? I forget) on the living room table, says:>

E: beans ... [deybi] " table ". <Locative>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E, setting a doll next to her on the table, says:>

E: right here . baby right here .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E looks around for a bandaid she has been playing with a short time earlier. M had put it on the kitchen counter. She says:>

E: bandaid <[b&n]> go .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E looks around for C, who had gone out of sight in the park,
and says:>

E: Deedee go . <A question>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<As E jumps up and down on the bed holding her doll, she says:>

E: jump baby .

M: Who is the baby? <Then, while patting her doll, she says:>

E: baby .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<After E wets her diapers, she says:>

E: I wet .

<Note, "I" not in "I want" sense.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<C has gone out on the front porch and E agitating to join her.

E says many times, on two occasions, within 5 minutes of each other:>

E: outside play .

<A new construction. Note, changed pronunciation of "outside".>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<After E sees C's doll (Vicki) fall out of the baby swing in the park, she says:>

E: [ba beybi] " fall baby ".

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<After a marble rolls away, E chases it, saying:>

E: I get . I get .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E trying to wash M's face with a towelette that M had gotten out to wash her with, says:>

E: mommy wash . <Two times>

E: wash ... mommy . <Two times>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<Just after E licks the spoon of C's finished Instant Breakfast, she says:>

E: bite Deedees .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E resists C's efforts to get her to stop pushing the baby swing that Vicki is in, saying:>

E: I push .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E, bouncing on M's leg, says:>

E: I play .

<Note, another not "I want" use of "I".>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<C, M. F and E in a bookstore. We are about to leave. E goes to look for C, and says:>

E: find Deedee .

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E sets her doll on the ground as she goes to get into the swing, saying two times:>

E: baby stay.

<Could be vocative, but she wasn't looking at the doll.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

E: I ? <[ayn]> done . I ? <[ayn]> done , mommy .

M: Oh, are you done?

<M gets up to take E down. E says two times while pushing her away:>

E: daddy do it .

<Then F comes and takes E down.>

^1;8(12) 10-17-74

<E runs to take her doll out of her crib after M says "I'll get ...", etc., saying:>

E: I do it .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E looks at a screwdriver with an orange plastic handle on the T.V., which looks like an odd shaped lollipop, and says:>

E: candy .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E asks where her poppy is and M says that it is in her purse.

E now opens up the purse to look in to find it, saying:>

E: look .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E looks down at many pebbles in the driveway, and says:>

E: lots <[ats]> . lots . rocks .

<Was imitated two nights ago, in connection with many beads.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E looks up at the outside of an air-conditioner on the window that has two circular bulges on it, and says:>

E: eyes .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E holds up one (of several) hamburger piece from her dinner plate, saying:>

E: [w&n] " one " .

M: One. that's right.

E: piece .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E gives a command to F, to put ketchup on top of her hamburger pieces. Pointing, she says:>

E: top .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<After M gives E a piece of hot bacon, E says:>

E: hot . bacon .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<When M wipes E's face with a warm washrag, she says:>

E: [oym] " warm ".

<First totally spontaneous use. Has been imitated many times.

Note, used often after this in this same context 10-24-74.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E tries to get back a yardstick after C picks it up off the floor, saying:>

E: no , Deedee , mines . mine . mine .

<E had been playing with it.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E, turning the knob on the T.V., says:>

E: [du:n] " turn ".

<First use. Two separate times. Note, no others as of 10-24-74.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<M comes up with a blanket that E has requested and starts to cover her as she pretends to go to sleep on the couch. E says to F:>

E: blanket <[b&nkit]> . baby .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<After E picks up a yardstick, she says:>

E: stick .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E has just come down the steps at Dot's, turns, and wants to go back up. Dot is standing up on the porch. As M tries to get E away, E says:>

E: up Dot .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<As E steps into our front door, she says:>

E: come in .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E inside, hears children's voices when C goes outside. She says:>

E: Joey ! come in .

<Apparently thinks Douglas' kids are outside.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E has been sitting on F's lap while watching a movie.

Now she leans toward M and gets into her lap, saying:>

E: sit mommy .

<5 minutes later, C has also come to sit on M's lap. E shoves at her, wanting her to sit with daddy, saying:>

E: sit daddy .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E in the car, looking out of the window at Marc as we leave Dot's, says:>

E: bye-bye , Markie . bye-bye , boys .

<Brad is inside.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

E: my seat .

<Produced on two occasions:>

1) E sitting down in C's car seat in the Chevy.

2) E sitting down in her own car seat.

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<As we walk past a stone church, E says:>

E: Nanny house .

<5 days ago we took Grandma (F) to a big building in Topeka, this may have reminded E of it. Slightly uncertain.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E excitedly finding a penny on the couch. As she crouches over the area where it lies, she says:>

E: money there ! couch .

<First use of "there" in this type of construction, I think.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-7

<E, setting her poppy carefully on the edge of the counter, says:>

E: poppy there .

<Second construction like this with "there".>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<C has been counting bits of hamburger on her and Eva's plate.

E looks at F's plate, then at C's plate, and says several times:>

E: daddy eight .

M: Does daddy have eight?

E: eight Deedee .

<The count was not "eight" but this is E's only number.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E takes a pad and pen away from M and starts to draw, saying:>

E: I write .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<After E drops a penny over the back of the couch, she says:>

E: drop it .

<"Drop" has occurred with only "it", the last few times.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E, C and M playing on the bed. M pushes E down.

E rejects C's offer to push her down, saying:>

E: mommy do it .

<After M does it again, E wants C to do it, saying:>

E: Deedee do it .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<After C drops a vinyl fish in the car, E wants to get it herself. She says:>

E: I get !

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<As E looks at the moon in the sky, she says:>

E: look moon .

M: Look at the moon. <Or so.>

E: sky .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E, wanting F to open a ketchup bottle, says:>

E: open .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E, trying to push the car door closed from the outside, says:>

E: open .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E, looking at black, irregular piece of construction paper high on the wall in a school classroom, says:>

E: moon .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<As E sits down on the floor in front of the T.V., she says:>

E: [wats &di] " watch letter ".

<Sesame Street is on but no letters are currently being shown.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<After E's poppy falls out of her mouth, she picks it up saying:>

E: poppy ! came off . came off .

M: Came off what?

E: <Pause.> pyjamas . came off . came off .

<She is bare. A few minutes earlier M had taken her pyjamas off and unpinned the poppy from the pyjama shirt. E goes away to get her pyjama shirt and then returns and shows it to M, saying:>

E: shirt . pyjamas . came off .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<F reports that as he held E at a water fountain and tried to drink himself, E pushed to get the drink instead, saying:>

E: I do it .

<A slightly different sense than usual.>

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<E, holding the broken-off lid of the saddlebag of C's big wheel, says:>

E: broken .

M: I'll have to tape it.

E: Deedee do it .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<C, E and M see an almost-dead bug. E and C have argued about whether it is dead or not:>

E: [dai] " die ". <Imitated>

C: It is not dead! <Or so.>

M: She doesn't know what "die" means. <To C.>

E: I do too .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<After E sees M get bread and butter out of the refrigerator, she climbs up beside M at the counter on a stool, saying:>

E: [w&yk . w&yki] " make . making " .

^1;8(13) 10-18-74

<As E bangs around with the yardstick, she knocks it into M:>

M: Don't hit me.

E: hit baby .

<She immediately goes over to her doll on the floor and hits it.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<With reference to E's bottle.

E: more juice .

M: Bring it to mommy, Eva Beve.

E: I will .

<She goes to get it.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E has had some coke and wants more. Standing by the stove, she says:>

E: I drink . I drink , mommy .

<She wants some more coke from F's glass, says two times:>

E: drink daddy's .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, picking up M's pen and starting to scribble on M's notepad, says:>

E: draw mommy's .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<When M goes to get E up in the morning, her bottle is in her bed. E says:>

E: (bottle) . drip me . my bottle .

<It might have dripped on her.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E says to C and to her doll:>

E: come on , Deedee .... come on , baby .

<Both as imperatives, at different times.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<As E pats a doll that is lying beside her on the couch, she says:>

E: baby down .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74 *

<E, pushing a brush aside on the counter, says:>

E: gidi , mommy..ush .

<M is nearby but not involved at all.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<After E picks up her cheerio off the table, she says:>

E: baby me .

<Exact meaning unclear.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E instructing M, after M gives E a dry bowl of cheerios, says:>

E: milk me ... sugar me .

<M had already put milk and sugar on C's.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, holding up one cheerio from her bowl, says:>

E: one .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, trying to get her hand into a glass up on the counter, says:>

E: hand in .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<With reference to something with holes in it, E says:>

E: holes in .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<Holding up a meatball that F has just given her, E says to him:>

E: cut . <Pause> open .

<Then after "open", she pulls it apart.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<After M throws a pacifier to E who is lying on the couch,
E says:>

E: mommy throw baby . couch .

<Then E throwing the pacifier back to M, says:>

E: throw mommy's .

<Cf. "sit daddy's" on 10-22-74, sitting on F's leg.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, taking a book away from M and leafing through it, says:>

E: [ay&f it] " I have it ".

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

M: We don't have any cookies.

E: have it ... cookies .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E gives her bottle back to M with a look of distaste, saying:>

E: [aygit ba:] " like it bottle ".

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<When E sees soup in her dish, she says:>

E: soup !

<First spontaneous use, not modelled for some time.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, watching Andrea eat soup, says:>

E: [suwp ... &ndi] " soup ... Andrea ".

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<M is changing E and has left for a minute. During this time, E's pants come off and she says:>

E: pants off .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E comes in from the sandbox and looks for something to carry water out in. C had poured water into some sand and E wants to also. She says several times:>

E: pour in .

<First combination of V and "in".>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, trying to get "Ernie" puppet onto a chair, says:>

E: Ernie sit .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, trying to fit various dolls into something, says:>

E: dollie fit .

M: Dollie fit?

E: baby fit .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<After E touches the red label on a jar of baby fruit, she says:>

E: pink .

<Then she points up to the cupboard where she can see another jar of baby fruit (blue label), and says:>

E: pink up high .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E looks at some wet chewed pieces of cookies that have come out of her mouth onto the bed, and says:>

E: yuk bobidi .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<M gives C a bracelet she's made for her from baker's clay.

E also wants one, saying:>

E: one ?

<M then gives her one.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<Seems as if just lately there's been more purposeful rising intonation.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, picking a second pig out of her basket, says:>

E: another oink .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E, showing M how she has succeeded in squeezing toothpaste onto a brush, says:>

E: do it .

<Note, lack of "I", reporting past action.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E puts something on the bed near F. As she withdraws, she says:>

E: stay daddy .

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<C and Andrea are already outside. After M puts E's shoes on, M says:>

M: Now you can go outside.

E: Andrea too .

M: Andrea too.

E: baby too .

<Who "baby" is, is not too clear. Perhaps E plans to take her doll out. Or, possibly, herself.>

^1;8(15) 10-20-74

<E runs to the second curtain after M closes the first, saying:>

E: I do it ... one .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, at the dinner table, says:>

E: [dowins] " sandwich " .

<Meaning not clear. Perhaps referring to sandwiches at lunch.

Note, new pronunciation.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E tries to open a bag of noodles that M has had, saying:>

E: I open .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

E: want / I .

<Today "I", which had equaled "I want" in semantic intent, seemed to differentiate. "Want" occurred for the first time as an independent morpheme (I want noodles). Also yesterday, and today, for the first time "I" used with a verb referring to a past event rather than a desired one.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E tries to climb up on a chair at the piano, behind M, saying several times:>

E: I go .

<Meaning not quite clear.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<As E tries to get into M's lap as M sits at the piano, she says:>

E: sit here .

<Locative with "sit" is always "here".>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, requesting to be carried, says:>

E: carry , mommy .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, seeing her pacifier, says:>

E: Eva(s) poppy .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E and Andrea in the yard, looking at the big boat a little distance away. E says:>

E: boat Andrea's .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<After E spills a container of beads on the floor, she says:>

E: [biw bins] " spill beads " .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<After M gets E up in the morning, E says:>

E: me up .

<She has always said "baby up" in this context before.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, looking at a plastic diaper backing on the table, says:>

E: yuk dipie .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, playing with a tiny plastic baby with an arm and a leg off, says:>

E: broken .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

E: ooh , hot .

<Produced on two occasions:>

1) When M gives E a piece of hotdog.

2) Looking at M's hot cup of cocoa.

<Note, "hot" is never combined with the object.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<When E sees M take a spoonful of egg from F's plate and put it on her dish, she says:>

E: bite daddy's .

<"Bite X" has occurred several times lately
(I think all instances recorded) with 's.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<As E tries to buckle a seat belt over her lap,
she says:>

E: belt on . belt on , mommy .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, brushing M's shoe with a little broom, says:>

E: wash shoe(s) .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

M: Let's get your pants on.

E: I will , I will , mommy . I will .

<E then comes to comply.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<In the morning after E gets up, she sees that C is chewing gum. She looks at C, and says:>

E: gum Deedee .

<Then, she turns to M and says:>

E: gum Eva .

<Negative head shake. = "Eva doesn't have gum".>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E looks at camels in a wall hanging, and says:>

E: [biNG owsi] " big horsie ".

<Frequent in this context in the last few days. Note, continues on 10-24-74.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E looks at a man in a wall hanging who is wearing an odd hat, and says:>

E: hat on .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<As M is brushing C's teeth, E says several times to her:>

E: brush me .

<Happy when M gets another toothbrush and brushes hers.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, wanting to ride on the tractor which C is on, says:>

E: I ride <[wayn]> .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, reaching up toward a bag of noodles on the stove, says:>

E: [ay want nunis] " I want noodles " .

<First use of "I want" very distinct. She has imitated "want" in isolation several times.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E looks into a pan full of dirty water with bits of onion floating in it that resemble bits of ice, and says:>

E: ice in .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<Requesting a refill, E says:>

E: more juice .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E indignant and furious after C takes a noodle out of E's dish, says:>

E: Deedee bite !

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

%POSSESSOR -- POSSESSED .

<This is still not firmly established despite use of elliptical -'s, e.g., "bite mommy's". When possessor and possessed are mentioned together as 1-word utterances, the possessor is usually mentioned last.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, trying to get her bib off, says:>

E: bib off .

<After she gets it off, she says two times:>

E: I do it .

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E, trying to get her bib off, says:>

E: I do it .

<After she gets it off, she brings it to M, saying:>

E: I do it .

<Note, here another past tense reference, this time with "I". Cf. "do it" recently without "I".>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<E trying to peel two pieces of ham apart, says several times:>

E: open .

<Just after she gets them apart, she says:>

E: open ! I do it .

<Note, "I" for the past event.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

<After E slips off the chair in front of the toy piano, she says several times:>

E: I fall .

M: Did you fall?

E: yah .

<Note, "I" with past event.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

M: Where are your pants Eva?

E: no know . <Pause> maybe ... maybe .

<As E says "maybe" she runs ahead of M into the bedroom, as if looking for her pants. She doesn't persist in the search once she is in the room.>

^1;8(16) 10-21-74

E: too tight .

<Produced on three occasions:>

1) As M puts E's moccasins on. <M has modelled in this connection.>

2) As M unpins the pacifier which she pinned to her own shirt. E wants it off.

3) As M tries to get E's hood on, the neck of her sweater-shirt is too tight.

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, taking the lemon wedge off the rim of M's glasses, says:>

E: moon out .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, unfolding a napkin, says:>

E: open .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<As M draws a face for E, E wants her to put a hat on it.

M has called it a baby but E is calling it a mommy. E says:>

E: write mommy hat .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<With reference to a face that M drew for E, E calls it a mommy. E says:>

E: naughty mommy .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E says with reference to a face which M drew for E, E calls it a mommy. She says:>

E: cute mommy .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, picking up the pumpkin basket to take it off the couch, says:>

E: OK , purse .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E looks hopefully toward the T.V., which is off, and says:>

E: [wats gigu:] " watch Captain Kangaroo ".

<C.K. is indeed on at this hour. M turns it on for her. First use of "Captain Kangaroo".>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, preceding M into the bathroom where she wants
M to get her some toothpaste, says:>

E: come in . come in . mommy .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, touching threads that M is braiding into a glasses band for C, says:>

E: pretty strings .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, sitting on F's hip on the bed, says:>

E: sit daddy's .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<After E fits a doll into "Ernie" puppet, its feet are sticking out, she says two times:>

E: baby in ... feet out .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E holds a toy dog away from M, although M has not tried to get it, saying:>

E: my doggie ! <Two times>

E: have it ! <Two times>

<"Have it" = "don't have it".>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<In order to get M to move, E says:>

E: move , mommy .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<After E fits baby doll into "Ernie" puppet, she says:>

E: I do it .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, retrieving something, says:>

E: I get .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<When her doll falls out of sight, E says:>

E: where ?

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E has a book of toys, and says:>

E: find key .

<Then looks through it till she finds a picture of a music box with a key sticking out.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

E: on pants .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

E: naughty boy .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, standing little dolls up on the arm of the couch, says:>

E: stand up ! stand up boys .

<Intonation not vocative.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

E: Ernie fit ... fit Ernies . fit Ernie .

<Both as she tries to fit other dolls into the hole in the "Ernie" finger puppet.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, trying to get a drink of M's ice tea, says:>

E: I drink .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

E: my sweater .

<E wanting one, none present.>

M: Why do you want a sweater?

E: 'cause .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E looks at a scare crow decoration on the wall, and says:>

E: doing , daddy ? <Scare crow>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E has just shown M a little doll with a hat on.
Now she shows her another doll without a hat, saying:>

E: hat on .

<Negative head shake. Then she shows the first doll again, saying:>

E: yeah ! yeah , mommy .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E takes her dish with a helping of egg in it, off the counter to the table, saying:>

E: take mine .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E's highchair is attached to the dining room table with its arms, which stick out on either side of where her plate goes on the table. Sitting in her highchair, E lifts a dish out of the enclosure made by the arms and sets it on the table, saying:>

E: dish out .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E looks up at stars, and says:>

E: stars .

<New in the last few days.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

E: poppy stuck .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<As M takes her purse out of the car, E says:>

E: purse out .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<After E's piece of ice falls under the table, E says:>

E: my ice ! go ?

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E tries to get her package of crackers away from F, to open, says:>

E: I do it .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E reaches for another package of crackers, saying:>

E: more crackers .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

F: Can I have a bite of yours?

E: bite mine .

<Indignant, as F takes a bite.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, bringing a book to M to read, saying:>

E: kind ?

<"Kind?" also often used when E points to different airplanes in "Best Word" book.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<As E watches M eat ice-cream (?), she says:>

E: mommy ... some .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, pushing away F's offer to pour ketchup on her plate, says:>

E: no , daddy . pour in . pour in .

<She doesn't want any. "Pour in" a fixed form? Haven't heard plain "pour" lately.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E trying to get up behind M on a chair. Pushing her, she says:>

E: move , mommy .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

M: What's here? What's in the bottle?

E: [g&____] " ketchup ".

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<M screws the top on the ketchup bottle, after E has been trying to do it. E says:>

E: on . on . mommy .

<M as agent.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, moving the wrappers from crackers off her place at the table, says:>

E: cracker off .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<When C and F are discussing where C's napkin is, F says that it is on E. E says:>

E: me on .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<As E eats hot soup, she says:>

E: soup ! soup ! <Pause> hot .

<Note, "hot" doesn't combine yet.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<When E hears a loud crash of dishes in a restaurant, she says:>

E: uh oh !

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E looks out the car window at a rocky river under the bridge that we are going over, and says:>

E: rocks !

<Note, the plural.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E looks at a skeleton decoration hanging in a restaurant, and says:>

E: pretty .

<A pause, then:>

E: baby ! pretty baby .

<Second use of "pretty" in combination today.

A new type.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<As C bounces on the couch, she says:>

E: [bawns] " bounce " .

<First use since one, weeks ago.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, picking up 2 leaves in the park, says:>

E: [ifis] " leaves ".

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<M says that she cannot fix E's bottle now. E, wondering if F would, says:>

E: [d&di biks ba] " daddy fix bottle ".

<Very clear, first S-V-O with "fix". Not a vocative, to the air, F sitting nearby.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, sitting in the car and feeling around for the seat belt, says:>

E: find belt .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

M: I think that man is jumping.

E: man jumping . <Imitated>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<As M braids a band for C, while C is still in bed, E says:>

E: maybe . maybe Deedee up .

<Idea seems to be that "maybe C will get up soon".>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E coming hopefully to the kitchen:>

M: Your eggs are ready! <To F.>

E: I too ?

<M has also fixed her an egg.>

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E, trying to get a drink of M's ice tea, says:>

E: I drink .

^1;8(17) 10-22-74

<E brings her doll over to M's face and pushes it against it, saying:>

E: kiss mommy .

<Then she brings it up against her own face, and says:>

E: kiss baby .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

E: [&nks] " legs ". <Imitated>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E grabs up a toy dog, holds it away from M, and with a little pushing gesture on "have it", says:>

E: my doggie . have it <[&f it]> .

<"Have it" seems to always mean "don't have (take) it".

Then in the same context, she says:>

E: have it . doggie , no <[&n]> .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, peering at M from the living room as M starts breakfast, says:>

E: making ?

<Happy when M says "I'm making eggs", or so.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, informing Dot that M had arrived, says:>

E: mommy , Dot .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E looks up at the daylight sky, sees no moon, and says:>

E: where moon ?

<"Where" or now "where X" is used when an object has not ust been present, while "X go?" is used when an object was just there.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E on her knees in the grass. She gazes up at the sky and says:>

E: sky . nice .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E has been playing a game with C in which C calls her and E goes to see what she wants:>

M: What does Deedee want?

E: want . <Imitated, then:> Deedee want .

<Delayed imitation>

<First prediction of "want" to someone other than herself.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

E: want , mommy ?

<"Do you want it?", holding out a toothbrush to M in the bathroom. Then, when M says she doesn't want it, E says:>

E: why ?

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E eating hot soup, says:>

E: hot .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E sees M get her cup out of the cupboard, and says:>

E: cocoa me .

<= "Cocoa for me?". She's had cocoa in it in the recent past, but none now.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E sees a dog a slight distance away, and says:>

E: doggie walk !

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E looks at a skeleton halloween decoration hanging in the doorway, and says:>

E: pretty man . fancy man .

<Third use of "pretty" and "X" since yesterday. First use of "fancy" though slightly uncertain (E confirmed M's expansion of it).>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, mouthing top of a peg-doll, says:>

E: taste . <First use>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<As we sit down on the couch with books, E says:>

E: [ay win] " I read ".

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, wanting M to close a door, says:>

E: close door .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

E: close it .

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) As E tries to push a peach slice back together, in which she has just made several deep cuts with a spoon.
- 2) As E tries to fold up a towelette that M has just unfolded.

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E touches her palm saying two times:>

E: on hand .

<She's just gotten out C's perfume and wants M to open it and put it on her hand, as we've done before.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E puts a perfume jar back on M's shelves on her desk (between two shelves in a narrow space), saying two times:>

E: under here .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<After F closes the door to his office, E says:>

E: door daddy .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<As E washes C's back in the tub, she says:>

E: wash Deedee .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E holds her hands out toward the faucet (no washing actually taking place), saying:>

E: wash hands .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

E: up me .

<An insistent request. M finally ascertains that E wants to go up to F's office.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, wanting M to button a button on M's nightgown, says:>

E: on .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<After M helps E get into M's nightgown, E leaves the room to find F, saying:>

E: show daddy .

<M has often modeled this in this type of situation.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, after picking up M's nightgown, holds it toward M and says:>

E: on mommy .

<Then toward herself (= "baby") and says:>

E: on baby .

<Then M helps her put it on.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E looks up at the nightgown hanging on a hook on the back of the door, and says:>

E: clothes door .

<Could be "close door", but she doesn't.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, putting something on again, says:>

E: on again .

<I forget the context.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, running to help C get out of bed, says:>

E: I help .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E in a chair at M's desk, and wanting M to push it in, says:>

E: push chair ... <Long pause, then:> ... in .

<First construction with V + D.O. + loc. particle.>

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E, reaching for a pen, says:>

E: get pen .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E upset when C is holding her doll. She says many times:>

E: my baby .

^1;8(18) 10-23-74

<E comes running into the kitchen as M gives C a vitamin pill. Wanting one too, she says:>

E: I too , mommy .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As M puts her shoes on, E says:>

E: shoes time . go out .

<E thinks this means we'll go out soon.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

E: big one . <Reference unclear>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, pulling a doll's plastic pigtail, says:>

E: break it .

M: Don't break it.

E: no break it .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<M has brought E to the sink to wash her hands.

E tries to do it herself, saying two times:>

E: I want .

<First use of these two together alone. "I want noodles" is the only other combination of "I" and "want".>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, handling the salt shaker, says:>

E: salt in .

<Stative. Then trying to pour some on her hand, she says several times:>

E: pour in .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E manipulates a towlette of the kind that M washes her face and hands with at night, saying:>

E: wash hands .

<Then, she puts it toward her stomach and legs, saying:>

E: body . [&nks] " legs " .

<First spontaneous use of "legs".>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, trying to put grains of salt back into a salt shaker, says:>

E: in go .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, lying down on the bed against M's arm, says:>

E: lie down mommy's .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, holding a margarine tub with a tiny bit of butter left in it, says:>

E: butter . butter in !

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

E: [nais gin] " nice clean ".

<This has occurred several times lately, this time while stroking the kitchen cabinet.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<With reference to F's glasses:>

F: Let daddy wear it.

E: I wear it .

F: Can I have my glasses now?

E: I wear !

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<After C says that she wants to go outside, E wants to go too, saying:>

E: 'side too .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E looks over at M's soup bowl as M begins to eat, and says:>

E: soup mommy's .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, wanting Jeffrey B. to look at something, says:>

E: see , Jeffrey ?

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<In the morning before F is up, E seems to think he is about to come out of the bedroom. She says:>

E: daddy comes <[gomps]> out . come out .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<Both of the following said to M to get her to continue dancing while holding her:>

E: more <and> again . <Mostly "more".>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, wanting M to put a top on a graham cracker "sandwich" that M is making for her, says:>

E: close it .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, objecting as M tries to take her shirt off, says:>

E: wear !

<First clear cut spontaneous use. Has often been imitated.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

M: The juice is all gone.

E: all gone juice .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, peeling a noodle apart, says several times:>

E: break it .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E is upset when she finds the placemat removed from under the arms of her Turner chair. She says:>

E: my chair broken !

<Second use of "broken" in combination. Last one was "broken horsie", months ago.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

E: open .

<Imperative. Wants M to spread her legs apart.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, inspecting the soles of her pyjamas after she gets them wet in the shower, says:>

E: I wet .

M: Oh, are you're feet wet? <Or so.>

E: feet wet . <Imitated>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E coaxing M from the bedroom into the living room, ("out"). She says:>

E: come in .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As E looks at herself in the mirror, M says to her:>

M: Where are you?

<E touches the reflection of herself. M says:>

M: Where am I? <E looks at M's eyes, and says:>

E: close eyes .

<A command to M. M then says:>

M: Where is me?

E: <No response.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E standing at the kitchen counter, looking hopeful. She says:>

E: cookie .

M: Where's a cookie?

<E points toward the cookie jar, and says:>

E: cookie there.

<"There" has locative rather than nominative function.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, putting bottles of food coloring back into a box, says:>

E: back , mommy .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As M tickles C, E wants M to "do it to her" too. She says:>

E: do it me .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E playing with dolls in dollhouse and one apparently is about to go to work. She says:>

E: kiss me .

<She seems to be speaking for the doll.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, taking C's sandals out of the baby carriage, says:>

E: Deedee shoes .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E reaches up toward baker's clay decoration on a shelf and gets it. She says:>

E: find it .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, wanting M to open a barrette, says:>

E: off .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As E drinks from M's coffee cup, she says:>

E: drink mommy ... lot .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, trying to get up on the table, says:>

E: time up .

<Agrees to expansion "time to get up on the table".>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<After E gets a Fischer-Price doll into a tiny potty, she says:>

E: boy potty . <Locative>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, starting to put dolls back into pumpkin basket, says:>

E: my stuff .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, looking into a drawer with associated sizes of toothbrushes, says:>

E: little one .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As M and E roughhouse:>

E: fall .

M: Don't fall.

E: fall mommy .

<Not clear is this is "mommy fall" or "fall over mommy".>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E playing with dolls and a dollhouse, has set several dolls around a table. She says:>

E: bib on .

<Evidently imagining that bibs should now go on.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E has choked several times while eating salt. A moment later, she grabs for the salt shaker again:>

F: Do you want more salt?

E: more no .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E has gotten out a cotton pad and wants to put M's lotion on it. She says:>

E: coldie one .

<First use of "coldie" in this context, or as adj.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E brings C's pyjamas to M and wants M to put them on C.

She says:>

E: on pyjamas .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, pushing the salt shaker away after she's had several licks from it, says:>

E: [d& da da] " that's all salt ".

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<After M puts grapes on E's plate, E wants M to give C some too. She says:>

E: grapes ! ... some Deedee .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As E sets a bottle down on the counter, she says:>

E: bottle here .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

E: little one .

<Context unclear. First of two uses today.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<After E closes the cupboard door, she says:>

E: close it . There . I do it .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E pushing her stomach against the mirror, says:>

E: kick .

<"Kicking" with her stomach has occurred on other occasions too.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<After E shuts a door, she says:>

E: close door .

<On 2-3 other occasions today.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As E kicks M:>

E: kick .

M: What are you kicking?

E: mommy .

M: Who is kicking? <Several times, no response.>

M: Who is kicking mommy? <Still no response.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E holds up different bottles of food coloring, saying each time:>

E: kind ?

<Happy each time when M tells her the color.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, dancing on the bed, says:>

E: dance me .

<A pause, as she pats the bed near her as if to show M where to come. Then says:>

E: up , mommy .

M: You want me to dance with you?

E: yeah !

<Recall "dance beary" and "jump beary" in this same situation.>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E, reaching for the salt shaker, says:>

E: get salt .

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<As E tries to take over an activity from F, she says:>

E: Eva do it . <Possibly modelled>

^1;8(19) 10-24-74

<E sees C having a cup of Instant Breakfast, and wanting some too, she says:>

E: I too cocoa .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E, pretending to hide from M in a closet full of shoes, says:>

E: hide <[ayn]> . shoes .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<As M holds E, E reaches toward the ceiling with both hands. F sometimes holds her up to touch the ceiling. She wants M to do the same, and says:>

E: hands ceiling .

<First clearly spontaneous use of "ceiling".>

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<With reference to a small piece of play dough, E says:>

E: tiny one .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<When M gets E up in the morning, E says:>

E: I up .

<Has been "me up" lately.>

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

E: Vicki ... Deedee's . <Possessive>

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E inspects the soles of her pyjamas that have tiny white rubber balls on them, and says:>

E: ping balls .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<Wanting C to put something into her hand, E says:>

E: my hand .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<After E's bottle drips on E's bear, E says:>

E: I drip it . bear . <And> drip it bear .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

E: where go ?

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E pours M's milk into her cup, saying many times:>

E: pour mommy's . <Then again> pour mommy's ... more .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E tries to climb up behind M into the chair that M is sitting on, saying:>

E: mommy up .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E, clutching a bunch of toys to her in the tub, says:>

E: my things .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<After E bites on a hot cookie, she says:>

E: hot .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E pushes her stomach repeatedly against the sink, saying:>

E: kick .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E, stepping up on a stool in the bathroom, says:>

E: step up .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<With reference to her glass of Instant Breakfast, E says:>

E: mines ! my cocoa .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E, asking if F wants milk, says:>

E: have milk , daddy .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E, looking around at the sky, says:>

E: where sun ?

<Sun not too visible.>

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E with a cookie (I think?), says:>

E: have cookie .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E has lost sight of C, she says:>

E: where Deedee ?

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E, fitting the lid on a box, says:>

E: close it .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<As E tries to get at objects in a picture, she feels the page, wanting access. She says:>

E: open ... out .

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E, wanting to go into the bedroom where C is crying, says:>

E: see Deedee cry .

<First embedded sentence with "see".>

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<C and E have chocolate chips, M now eating one.

E says:>

E: mommy chocolate too , mommy ?

<= "Is mommy having chocolate too?".>

^1;8(20) 10-25-74

<E wants some Instant Breakfast when she sees C having some. She says:>

E: I some .

F: Some what?

E: some cocoa .

END OF FILE EVA08