

CHR18 Christy aged 2;3(14) to 3;9(16)

²3(14) 10-28-72

M: You're sweet.

C: uh huh , I am .

²3(14) 10-28-72

<M makes C a tent out of the table and a sheet, and pretends it is raining on top of the tent. C says:>

C: it gonna rain in here . <Also:>

C: since you get in a tent .

<Exact meaning here unclear.>

²3(14) 10-28-72

<C and M discussing a broken toy. C says:>

C: we ask daddy he put on when he come back .

<= We'll ask daddy if he'll put it on when he comes back.>

% Context "IF"

²3(14) 10-28-72

<Phonology:>

C: [pVsAz] " purses ".

²3(14) 10-28-72

<C has a broken toy. M says perhaps F will be able to fix it -- M did not say C could not:>

C: I wanta put this on but my mommy won't let me 'cause my daddy gonna put it on .

^2;3(14) 10-28-72

<C, standing up in bed holding onto the wall, says:>

C: I not gonna fall down since I gonna hold on .

<C has imitated "since" a few times lately. This is the first spontaneous use like this.>

^2;3(14) 10-28-72

<C putting aside doll's hat and getting other toys, says:>

C: I don't want this hat , though .

<"Though" somewhat appropriate, given context. Several other sentences with final "though" occurred today. First usages.>

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C, objecting as M starts to put the nipple on her not-quite full bottle, says:>

C: you didn't get this (it ?) fulfilled up .

% PASS-EMBED NOVCAUS PERICAUS-GET

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C in bed in the morning. She says:>

C: we haffa dress big dolly 'fore her go outside in [A] snow .

<There's no snow but C has been anticipating it for days.>

% HAVETO LEXCAUS

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C and M in the kitchen, C sitting on a stool. She says:>

C: can you sit down ? 'Fore < before > people come .

M: What people?

C: 'tend <= pretend> people .

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C looks at F who has a foot on the coffee table, and says:>

C: pretty soon him gonna put his foot off .

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<Phonology:>

C: [g(r)&sAz] " grasses ". <After M talked about green grass .>

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<Recent words: how (e.g. "how come?" "how this works?"), zoo, ceiling, glue (V), tiny, ghost.>

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C, playing on the surface of the stove, says:>

C: I making some hot soup for us [A] eat .

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C, taking things out of the drawer, says:>

C: here's my 'nother fork .

<She has already identified something as her fork.>

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C with two garlic presses. Has previously given one to M and kept one herself. Says:>

C: these are ours .

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C, anticipating a visit of Grandparents at Xmas, bringing toys, says:>

C: ... ing toys at our house .

<A longer sentence ending in this.>

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C takes a kitchen bowl out the drawer as she plays near the top of the stove, saying:>

C: I need this for cooking .

^2;3(15) 10-29-72

<C talking to F who is sitting on the couch, planning. She says:>

C: and me go night-night ... and I go night-night on my blankets .

^2;3(16) 10-30-72

C: know what could we do ?

^2;3(16) 10-30-72

C: go at there .

^2;3(16) 10-30-72

M: Let's put big dolly up here.

C: no ! I need she here .

^2;3(16) 10-30-72

C: I guess I .

<Embedded sentence.>

^2;3(16) 10-30-72

C: I going to home ... I going to my house .

^2;3(17) 10-31-72

F: Is this mine?

M: Yes.

C: what daddy call "this mine ?"

<= why did daddy ask "is this mine?". Confusion between ask and tell (call).>

^2;3(17) 10-31-72

C: I can't get off here 'cause I fall and I hurt myself .

% REFL

^2;3(17) 10-31-72

<New words:>

C: handle , forehead , pumpkin , trick or treat

^2;3(17) 10-31-72

<With reference to groceries:>

M: Maybe daddy will help us bring them in.

C: maybe he gonna not .

% PERICAUS-HELP

^2;3(17) 10-31-72

C: you can get on here when I finish .

^2;3(17) 10-31-72

C: ... and I hurt myself .

% REFL

^2;3(18) 11-1-72

C: I want some crackers while I wait .

^2;3(18) 11-1-72

<M tells C that a certain building we are passing is not a doctor's office as C thinks, but a store. C says:>

C: what it buys ?

<Meaning is probably "what does it sell?".>

% VMONEY

^2;3(18) 11-1-72

C: ... a daddy with her little boy .

^2;3(19) 11-2-72

<M had gone to a party the previous evening. Now M says to C:>

M: You played with daddy last night. <Or so.>

C: while you was gone to party .

^2;3(19) 11-2-72

<With reference to spaghetti, C says:>

C: but daddy gonna give me some after he come back .

% DAT

^2;3(19) 11-2-72

C: lion could go in there .

^2;3(19) 11-2-72

C: you can't have too much , mommy .

M: Why not?

C: 'cause me don't have any more .

^2;3(19) 11-2-72

C: we writing , are we ?

^2;3(20) 11-3-72

<After M glues a doll's eye on:>

M: Remember not to touch it for a while until it dries.

C: I will not .

<"Will's" have been used very occasionally, but this the clearest instance in a long time.>

^2;3(20) 11-3-72

C: it cold ... I better run so it won't be cold on my pants .

^2;3(21) 11-4-72

M: Why did you bite Marc's finger?

C: 'cause I won't give he three dollars .

<To do with one of Marc and C's "paying" games -- use in connection with "gas".>

% DAT

^2;3(23) 11-6-72

M: Do you hear the rain?

C: I am .

<= I do.>

^2;3(23) 11-6-72

<C in her crib in the morning. She and M have just been commenting on the fact that it is raining. C says:>

C: if we go out there we have to <[h&f]> wear hats .

% HAVETO

^2;3(24) 11-7-72

<After M and C cross the street and a car passes by, C says:>

C: that car will (would ?) hit me if I was in a street .

^2;3(24) 11-1-72

<New words:>

C: shadow , squirrel

^2;3(24) 11-7-72

<As M and C walk toward the park, C says:>

C: we're going to [A] park , are we ?

^2;3(24) 11-7-72 CHECK

C: where mommy bought that purse have birthday .

% VMONEY

^2;3(24) 11-7-72

<With reference to C's wind-up T.V., C says:>

C: mommy , go wind it this time and us wait .

% LEXCAUS

^2;3(24) 11-7-72

C: that not get melted .

% PASS-GET

^2;3(24) 11-7-72

C: cupses ... bookses .

^2;3(24) 11-7-72

C: you're taking [A] glasses , aren't you .

^2;3(24) 11-7-72

<As M and C take a walk. C has seen our mailman in the last few minutes. She says:>

C: we're not mailmans .

^2;3(25) 11-8-72

C: ... big bird was not come , last night .

^2;3(25) 11-8-72

<New words:>

C: toenail , kid , birthday , scarf

<Has had "birthday" for a long time.>

^2;3(25) 11-8-72

C: I want she down here .

^2;3(25) 11-8-72

C: there's a park where I fall down .

% REL

^2;3(26) 11-9-72

C: we can fix breakfast while daddy sleeps .

^2;3(26) 11-9-72

<For several days now, C has been putting her dolls and animals to bed, usually at M's suggestion. She says "night", covers them with a blanket, and kisses them. M suggests these procedures verbally but doesn't indicate what C is to do.>

^2;3(26) 11-9-72

<C is sitting in her high chair having cereal and a bottle. She finishes the bottle, lays it down on its side, and says:>

C: [nai] " night " .

^2;3(26) 11-9-72

<With reference to a squirrel, C says:>

C: I show you when I go outside .

% DAT

^2;3(26) 11-9-72

<C, playing with her bear:>

M: Did you go see daddy?

C: (yeah) . But bear a little bit shy to daddy .

<It is evidently too shy to go see daddy.>

^2;3(27) 11-10-72

<C, pretending to bake a cake, says to M:>

C: you get some cake when it ready .

^2;3(27) 11-10-72

C: what that noise ?

M: That was a cowboy.

C: I better get out him .

^2;3(27) 11-10-72

<C, referring to light, says:>

C: it gonna be bright .

^2;3(27) 11-10-72

C: I can't find that book we buy .

% VMONEY REL

^2;3(28) 11-11-72

<After M came home from an event, C says:>

C: I didn't came with you but you came home .

^2;3(29) 11-12-72

<C says to M, who has finished her toast:>

C: I got two toas'es <[towsAz]> ... but you don't got two toas'es (toastest) .

<C has two toast halves on her plate.>

^2;3(29) 11-12-72

<C, putting a cap on a pen after it stabs M, says:>

C: I need this on here so point won't get you .

^2;3(29) 11-12-72

<C, touching two of her bottles in her bed, says:>

C: these have rings and nipples for I can drink .

<She has just before noted that two play bottles don't have nipples.>

^2;3(29) 11-12-72

<After M comments that F is still asleep, C says:>

C: we haff wake he up .

% LEXCAUS

^2;3(29) 11-12-72

<C takes a Kleenex back to its box after M brought 2 Kleenexes and only used the other one, saying:>

C: you don't mean a bring this .

^2;4(0) 11-14-72

C: I don't want put more than that in ... 'cause that full .

% FG

^2;4(1) 11-15-72

C: that was in a bag like my blankets was .

^2;4(1) 11-15-72

C: but this was gone ... but I was find it at Dot's house .

^2;4(3) 11-17-72

<With reference to a dog at J and A's:>

M: He's sniffing in the closet.

C: but I don't want he in there !

^2;4(3) 11-17-72

<With reference to a dog at J and A's:>

M: <to dog:> Christy says she doesn't want you standing there.

C: I don't want he standing there .

^2;4(6) 11-20-72

C: I think she driving home in she -- in her -- in she car.

I think she is .

% SLIP

^2;4(17) 12-1-72

<"Will" used in numerous sentences, appropriately, in the last week or so.>

C: will

^2;4(17) 12-1-72

<After M kisses C, causing the pop bead crown C is wearing to fall off. C says:>

C: don't kiss me 'cause it will fall off if you do that .

^2;4(18) 12-2-72

C: you big with daddy big .

<= You and daddy are both big.>

^2;4(18) 12-2-72

C: I do that when my daddy give me paper of his .

% DAT

^2;4(19) 12-3-72

C: this same like other one .

^2;4(19) 12-3-72

C: daddy , you didn't seen this .

^2;4(19) 12-3-72

C: I cutting this with my spoon so it will be easy eat .

% INSTR

^2;4(20) 12-4-72

C: [mIwA] " vanilla ".

<Imitated and spontaneous.>

^2;4(20) 12-4-72

C: [bdd&f] " giraffe ".

C: [bdaz.v] " garage ". <Frequent>

^2;4(21) 12-5-72

C: I think you will be home after we come home .

^2;4(21) 12-6-72

<Phonology:>

C: [bAb] " grub ". <Imitated>

C: [dAk] " gluck ". <Imitated>

C: [t&p] " clap ". <Imitated>

C: [tIk] " click ". <Imitated>

^2;4(22) 12-6-72

C: big dolly said she want to come with us ... so I gonna pick she up so she can .

^2;4(22) 12-6-72

C: platses ... bookses .

<Recent forms.>

^2;4(23) 12-7-72 [CHECK DATE; LOOKS EARLIER]

<C falls , hits her head on the coffee table and cries. M says "did you bump your head?", etc. A few minutes later, C begins to point at the table, crying:>

C: ['bA] ! ['bA] " bump "

^2;4(23) 12-7-72

<With reference to a coat, C says:>

C: if you can take it off , then you might to .

^2;4(23) 12-7-72

M: I'll get your little slipper shoes.

C: if I need them I can put them on .

^2;4(23) 12-7-72

C: when daddy come home , he will watch it .

^2;4(23) 12-7-72

C: otherwise it gonna fall .

^2;4(23) 12-7-72

<C leaves the room carrying a chicken we've been referring to as "she", saying:>

C: I gonna take she to doctor 'cause she hurt on her finger .

% VBODYPART

^2;4(25) 12-9-72

C: eat yours all gone like this ... like I'm is .

% RES-PRT

^2;4(25) 12-9-72

<C, opening the pan she is pretending to bake a cake in, says:>

C: let me check if it XXX cook a little bit .

% PERICAUS-LET

^2;4(25) 12-9-72

<C, with a broken candle as she prepares a "party", says:>

C: this broken but we can still use it .

^2;4(25) 12-9-72

<C looks at a picture recipe book that came in box with cake pan, and says:>

C: and it have pictures on it have cake .

<= ... that have cake.>

% REL

^2;4(26) 12-10-72

C: let(s) lie down until we feel better now . <Also:>

C: and we lying down till we feel better now .

% PERICAUS-LET

^2;4(25) 12-10-72

C: I was gonna not see ... now I am seeing .

^2;4(26) 12-10-72

<Overregularized past tense forms lately:>

C: (see-d ... hear-d ... keeped).

^2;4(27) 12-11-72

C: except I don't want my pyjamas on .

^2;4(27) 12-11-72

<C says with reference to Dot:>

C: if she doesn't be there , we find her .

^2;4(28) 12-12-72

<C, wanting the refrigerator door to stay open, says:>

C: ... stay this open .

% NOVCAUS-ADJ

^2;4(28) 12-12-72

C: is you going to sit here ?

^2;4(29) 12-13-72

C: I not a boy ... so not you .

<= "Neither are you". Note, "so are you" for positive instance, analogy.>

^2;5(0) 12-14-72

C: now I want that . <Also:> I been talking about wait till we get home .

^2;5(0) 12-14-72

C: horses have reins for people can ride on .

^2;5(0) 12-14-72

<M has been talking about "wait 'till we get home ". C says:>

C: now I want that .

^2;5(0) 12-14-72

C: I didn't want he to do that .

^2;5(2) 12-16-72

C: mommy didn't fix any dessert . <Also:>

C: we have to <[h&fA]> eat ice-cream instead .

% LEXCAUS HAVETO

^2;5(2) 12-16-72

C: I didn't had Instant Breakfast .

^2;5(2) 12-16-72

<C, on finding a broken cone for ice-cream on a counter, says:>

C: I wonder what happen to-d it .

<Past tense maker on wrong part of speech.>

% SLIP

^2;5(4) 12-18-72

<Around the time that C's room is to be painted, she says:>

C: my room gonna paint ... my room gonna be paint .

% PASS-BE SLIP

^2;5(4) 12-18-72 [CHECK]

C: this what Marc do-s .

C: something when I be-s .

C: when I be-s there .

^2;5(4) 12-18-72

C: Marc burn(ed) Marc's self on [A] Christmas tree but it feels better now .

% REFL LEXCAUS

^2;5(6) 12-20-72

<C says by now:>

C: tooked .

<Many times.>

C: falled .

C: broked .

<Many times.>

^2;5(7) 12-21-72

<C, trying to lick out an ice-cream cone, says:>

C: I can't reach my tongue inside .

% NOVRES-PRT

^2;5(9) 12-23-71

C: do you want some toast like I'm ?

<= Like I've got, I'm having, me, etc.>

^2;5(9) 12-23-72

C: my shoes comed off with my pants .

^2;5(9) 12-23-72

C: is you got dressed 'cause you come to store with me ?

% INCH-GET

^2;5(9) 12-23-72

C: I thought I hear-ed some noise of my B.M.

^2;5(10) 12-24-72

C: did you ever did this ?

^2;5(10) 12-24-72

C: most of it I got .

^2;5(11) 12-25-72

<After explaining to her toy monkey that it shouldn't be afraid of the furnace because it can't walk, C says:>

C: did you didn't understand ?

^2;5(11) 12-25-72

<As M finishes breakfast, C says to her:>

C: now would you play with me ?

^2;5(11) 12-25-72

C: is you was ... ?

^2;5(13) 12-27-72

<C says to F:>

C: did you tooked a nap ?

^2;5(13) 12-27-72

C: I don't want any more of my toast .

^2;5(13) 12-27-72

<C and M discussing whether Marc knows how to put a little toilet seat on a big toilet -- C adds this:>

C: and Deedee know hows ... Deedee know how do it by Deedee self .

% REFL

^2;5(13) 12-27-72

<C, pretending a horse had some rice that is all gone, says:>

C: and there's no more in the pan of horsie .

^2;5(14) 12-28-72

<After M spills her milk, C says:>

C: I'm being very careful .

^2;5(15) 12-29-72

M: I'm gonna cut your bangs tonight.

C: I don't wanta be cut ... I'm a young lady .

% PASS-BE

^2;5(18) 1-1-73

<Re: story of Ping, the duck:>

M: What happens to the last duck who gets on the bridge? <Or so.>

C: he be's spank .

% PASS-BE

^2;5(21) 1-4-73

<After Marc tells C to stick her hands up and she does, she says:>

C: I'm is !

<Several times.>

^2;5(22) 1-5-73

<After M mentions a trip to Kansas City to F, C says:>

C: Is I'm going too ?

^2;6(23) 1-6-73

<C, asking about the identity of a man as we wait to see photos of her, says:>

C: is that was man took pictures of me ?

% REL

^2;5(23) 1-6-73

C: where's your tower . <To F.>

C: my mommy built a tower ... for she .

% REFL-ERROR

^2;5(23) 1-6-73

C: did you was eating peanuts ? <To F.>

^2;5(23) 1-6-73

<Past tense of "leave", correctly rendered as "left" -- overgeneralizations elsewhere common.>

C: (left)

^2;5(24) 1-7-73

C: but it didn't scared me .

% PSYCH

^2;5(26) 1-9-73

<C, anticipating that F will decide which type of juice she should have, says:>

C: (I want) daddy choose me (what to have).

<Choose me = "choose for me".>

% NOVDAT

^2;5(26) 1-9-73

<C, touching a rubber mat on the potty chair, says:>

C: is this is rubber ?

^2;5(26) 1-9-73

C: (... Dot) says to I'm , ("do this") .

<C reporting how Dot advises her to grunt while having B.M. On word "I'm". C touches her own chest. "Me" is regularly used as I.O. This first usage like this.>

% DAT

^2;5(27) 1-10-73

C: where that spoon that you use last night ?

% REL

^2;5(27) 1-10-73

C: we can't read this but we could read some other book .

^2;5(27) 1-10-73

M: Daddy doesn't always kiss big dolly.

C: do he knows ?

M: Does he know he didn't kiss big dolly?

C: yeah .

^2;5(27) 1-10-73

<With reference to a porcupine in a book:>

F: You didn't see one of these (them) at the zoo.

<C says to M:>

C: we hasn't see'd one of them .

^2;5(27) 1-10-73

F: Don't be naughty.

C: I'm is being naughty !

^2;5(27) 1-10-73

C: no , I want she [A] sleep in infant seat .

^2;5(30) 1-13-73

C: it's my toy , you know .

C: it's your not toy .

C: it's not your toy .

C: it's my toy .

^2;5(30) 1-13-73

C: did ointment was in this box ?

^2;5(30) 1-13-73

C: sun come ups ... sun comes up .

<Self correction.>

% SLIP

^2;5(30) 1-13-73

C: mommy , can you stay this open ?

% NOVCAUS

^2;6(0) 1-14-73

C: but I didn't was scared of the possum .

% PSYCH

^2;6(1) 1-15-73

<After M pretends to eat C, C says:>

C: hey spit me out ! ... 'cause here's not Deedee anymore .

% RES-PRT

^2;6(2) 1-16-73

<Reference to doll:>

M: Where do you want her tonight?

C: I want she in my bed .

^2;6(2) 1-16-73

C: do dad don't need his coat on ?

^2;8(12) 3-26-73

<C, wanting F to spin her around, says:>

C: daddy go me around .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;8(14) 3-28-73

<C holds a toy as she stands behind a screen and puts it out to the side, so M and F can see it on the other side. She says:>

C: I'm gonna peek it out .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;8(26) 4-9-73

<C protests about her pyjama bottoms, that unlike the other ones, these had no snaps. She says:>

C: I need them snapped to stay them on.

<= ... to make them stay on.>

% PASS-EMBED NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;8(26) 4-9-73

<As M playfully holds Eva out toward C, C covers her face and says:>

C: I don't want her to come.

<Then as M retreats, C drops her hand, saying:>

C: come her!

<As imperative, = "make her come", wanting M to bring Eva back.>

% NOVCAUS

^2;8(26) 4-9-73

C: it's gonna take him a ride .

<= Take him for a ride.>

<C playing with a toy locomotive and a tiny doll. Rather than deriving from a deleted prep. "for" I think this is equivalent to other incorrect uses of intransitive verbs as transitives, causatives. E.g., "it takes a ride", "it takes him a ride". Prepositions by this time are generally observed.>

% NOVCAUS

^2;9(1) 4-15-73

C: grate-cheese .

<= Cheese grater.>

^2;9(1) 4-15-73

<C drops a paper on E's head, saying:>

C: I'm gonna just fall this on her .

% NOVCAUS-PP

^2;9(7) 4-21-73

<C is having trouble turning a somersault and wants M to help C:>

M: Before I count to 5 she's gonna turn a somersault.

C: you turn me a somersault .

% NOVCAUS

^2;9(8) 4-22-73

<C, holding some Easter toy and putting it in a basket, says:>

C: and I want to hold it and stay it in there .

% NOVCAUS-PP

^2;9(9) 4-23-73

<C, wanting M to push a chair in so C can use it to climb off a table, says:>

C: you go it in .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;9(27) 5-11-73

C: he just make its (redder) and not so long .

<Note, inflection on it.>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^2;10(12) 5-26-73

<With reference to a finger-painting on the refrigerator door. C wants to take it off, saying:>

C: I don't want to stay it all night long .

<= To keep it (on the refrigerator).>

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;10(14) 5-28-73

<With reference to F, C says:>

C: maybe when he get ups .

<Note, inflection on up, as though get up analyzed as one V.>

% SLIP ?

^2;10(14) 5-28-73

C: and she just get its .

<Note, 3rd sing. -s on "it", as though "get it" is analyzed as one V.>

C: we need sandals , to keep our feet not to get a scrape or anything .

% SLIP ?

^2;10(26) 6-9-73

<After M refers to "hiccups", C says:>

C: see ? I'm not hiccing up .

^2;11(1) 6-15-73

<C, pretending to kill a monster, says:>

C: I maked him dead on my tricycle .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^2;11(1) 6-15-73

<C, wanting to keep her pyjamas on, says:>

C: I'm gonna stay these on for awhile .

<C also recently used "ride" as transitive -- "ride him".>

C: ... ride him ...

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;11(2) 6-16-73

<M models "opposites" game with "if I say good, you say bad ". Then goes on to "up", C immediately can play the game:>

C: up / down , in / out , on / out ... off ! , bottom / no bottom , front / back , high / low , big /little .

trees / not trees .

<She gives both alternatives.>

^2;11(10) 6-24-73

<C, wanting M to smooth the paper on her magic slate, says:>

C: (how would you) flat it ?

<Before M had said something about "make it nice and flat", or so.>

% NOVCAUS

^2;11(14) 6-28-73

<C, wanting M to put her pyjamas on at the couch, says:>

C: go me at the couch . that's a silly thing to say .

M: What should you have said?

C: go me to -- let me be at the couch .

<Correction here seems to concern the verb-preposition combination, not the verb per se. I.e., she seems to realize that "at" requires a static verb, and does not accept a motion verb.>

% NOVCAUS-PP PERICAUS-LET

^2;11(17) 7-1-73

C: when your blanket get cuts -- gets cut, then that's how it's not supposed to be .

% PASS-GET SELFCOR

^2;11(22) 7-6-73

<M and C discussing what is different about a pop-sickle made of O.J or from plain orange juice:>

M: It's hard.

C: yeah , so it's not the same eating as orange juice .

^2;11(22) 7-6-73

<C pretending to be a nurse. Eva, in the car seat, is patient going in to have an operation. C says:>

C: the nurse is gonna ride her in .

<Then starts to push the carseat.>

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;11(23) 7-7-73

C: maybe they had a cold and the cold stayed them awake .

<= Kept them awake.>

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;11(23) 7-7-73

<After C makes a playdough flower on the table, she doesn't want to remove it. She says:>

C: I wanta stay my flower out .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^2;11(28) 7-12-73

<After C sees Bert fall over by himself on Sesame street while Ernie stood near, she says:>

C: Bert knocked down .

<Use of transitive as intransitive. Cf. "fall down" as transitive too; the opposite error.>

% NOVINTR

^3;0(1) 7-15-73

<After C's third birthday, C says:>

C: I'm gonna beat Marc of being four.

<= Beat him in getting to be four years old.>

^3;0(19) 8-2-72

<C, wanting M to fix pillow in her carriage for Eva to be put into, says:>

C: you put a place for Eva to put in .

<= To put Eva in.>

% NOVINCH

^3;0(19) 8-2-72

<C, taking a squeaking toy away from M, says:>

C: I wanta squeaky it .

% NOVCAUS

^3;0(19) 8-2-72

<C pulling string on broken cow music box:>

M: The cow would like to sing but he can't.

C: I'm singing him .

% NOVCAUS

^3;0(19) 8-2-72

<C watches M use egg beater and she has her hand outstretched to take over the handle to turn. She says:>

C: I wanta -- wanta -- wanta round it .

<Trouble in finding words.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;0(20) 8-3-73

<C after going down a slide in long pants, says:>

C: how come it works better to slip me down if I have on long pants ?

<Earlier she had tried in shorts and had trouble, M had said long pants were needed.>

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;0(29) 8-12-73

<C, wanting M to take her sweater off, says:>

C: I wanta be it off .

C: I wanta put it off .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;1(8) 8-22-73

C: now you get her up .

^3;1(8) 8-22-73

<After M tries to brush a moth off C's carseat, C says:>

C: I don't want you to make him go off .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;1(10) 8-24-73

<With reference to the streamers on her bike, C says:>

C: now I gotta put two ones in .

% GOTTO

^3;1(10) 8-24-73

<As E lies on her stomach, C pushes her legs up, saying:>

C: up your legs .

% NOVCAUS

^3;1(11) 8-25-73

<After F hugs C when he is sweaty from tennis, C says:>

C: know what daddy did ? ... he made me with sweat .

% WITH-FIG PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;1(11) 8-25-73

<C, remarking on what she's told Eva, says:>

C: I said her no .

% NOVDAT

^3;1(11) 8-25-73

<C, noting that E's feet reach the ground when she is in a walker, says:>

C: her feet can match to the ground .

% NOVFG-INTR-BASIC

^3;1(18) 9-1-73

<C gives M an orange half. Yesterday M squeezed several orange halves directly into C's mouth. Wanting M to do it again, she says:>

C: drink me . uh ... put it in .

<= Cause me to drink.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;1(19) 9-2-73

<C is in the front seat of the car and M is holding E in the back seat. E is looking away from C:>

M: She's facing backwards.

C: face her this way .

<C evidently wants M to turn E so she can see her.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;1(19) 9-2-73

<C tries to push a ball under water, saying:>

C: I'm gonna float it down .

% NOVRES-PRT NOVCAUS

^3;1(24) 9-7-73

C: I'm gonna knock you over ! knock over !

<Imperative to M.>

% NOVINTR

^3;1(25) 9-8-73

<With reference to little pellets of play dough on the bed, C says:>

C: you jump them ... I'll jump these .

% NOVCAUS

^3;1(30) 9-13-73

<C, pointing to a ramp into a moving-van, which a hippopotamus is going up (in a book), says:>

C: is this to climb <[clayn]> her up ? ... so she can climb up ?

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;2(4) 9-18-73

<C, wanting to be picked up, says to F:>

C: daddy , do me up .

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;2(6) 9-20-73

<C hears a girl turn the water on in the bathtub in the next room, and says:>

C: how come she goes on the bathtub , mommy ?

M: What?

C: <Repeats.>

M: You mean how come she's turning on the water?

C: yeah .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;2(7) 9-21-73

<Just after a discussion of how soft E's skin was, C pushes on E's arm, saying:>

C: I'm gonna make her soft .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;2(7) 9-21-73

C: Eva gets feeded . <=fed>

% PASS-GET

^3;2(7) 9-21-73

<C, finding her rubber finger puppet of Ernie, says:>

C: I don't want Ernie's hair to be chewed off .

<Klaus (dog) chewed the hair off of it months ago.>

% PASS-BE

^3;2(8) 9-22-73

<M feeding E, pretending to speak for E:>

M: ... I'm so hungry. <C says to E:>

C: don't worry , you're being feeded .

% PASS-BE

^3;2(14) 9-28-73

<C finds a picture on a page of a book just inside the cover, and says:>

C: there's a picture on not the cover .

^3;2(14) 9-28-73

<C has been pretending to be a baby who can't crawl. Now beginning to crawl, she says:>

C: now our baby is grown upper .

C: now this baby is a big baby .

^3;2(15) 9-29-73

<C tips her head to one side and holds it that way, saying:>

C: I just stay my head like this .

% NOVCAUS

^3;2(17) 10-1-73

<C instructing M to put glue that M is holding on the table beside her. She is working on a project and M is about to take it away. She says:>

C: mommy , stay it here so if I want more ...

% NOVCAUS

^3;2(23) 10-7-73

<C, wanting M to hold a book open and keep it from closing, says:>

C: keep it from doing that .

^3;2(23) 10-7-73

<Wanting M to take the can lid off a container, C says:>

C: get it off .

^3;2(23) 10-7-73

C: -- -- make me die ?

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;2(24) 10-8-73

<C says to Eva, who is approaching:>

C: you get away your skin get away your skin .

^3;2(24) 10-8-73

<C has been picking up pieces of dropped playdough:>

M: Looks like you found most of it.

C: that's as most as I could find .

% REL

^3;2(26) 10-10-73

C: I dirtied it .

<C in talking about how a bead necklace got dirty. Embedded in many sentences of imaginary sequence in which necklace was buried in dirt. "Dirty" used in intransitive way several times too before this.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;2(26) 10-10-73

M: What am I doing with this man. <As M "walks" a toy man along.>

C: walking him ... still walking him ... rolling it .

% NOVCAUS

^3;2(26) 10-10-73

<M makes C's doll Vicky, squeak a toy man:>

M: What is Vicky doing with this man?

C: squeaking him .

% NOVCAUS

^3;3(1) 10-15-73

<After C calls M back to her room to take a lozenge off the floor that M had left there, she says:>

C: how come you stayed it there ?

% NOVCAUS

^3;3(1) 10-15-73

<C rejects a cheese sandwich she sees on her plate and wanting only a bread and butter sandwich, she says:>

C: you put me just bread and butter .

% NOVDAT

^3;3(1) 10-15-73

<Repeat of past action, C says:>

C: I maked mosquitoes dead in the park .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;3(2) 10-16-73

C: maked die .

<Same general theme. I've forgotten the exact utterance.>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;3(7) 10-21-73

<C is in bed, about to have a nap. When M comes into C's room to see if she has finished eating her food:>

M: Are you finished?

C: no , but stay it here so if I want some more... I can just get up and have it .

% NOVCAUSE

^3;3(7) 10-21-73

<After C stirs a graham cracker in a bowl until it is soggy, she says:>

C: I made it melt .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;3(11) 10-25-73

<While in the car, C pushes E's leg down, saying:>

C: down your little knee .

M: What?

C: down her little knee .

<C to M. E's leg is still up and C continues pushing on it.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;3(13) 10-27-73

<During a discussion of where Dot's dog eats, what she eats, etc., C says:>

C: (his food) is where Dot keeps <[kEps]> food .

<First observed use of "keep" in causative sense. There may well have been some others.>

% REL

^3;3(13) 10-27-73

<C, smelling a loaf of banana nut bread, says:>

C: it sniffs good .

% VPERC

^3;3(14) 10-29-73

<C having lunch with 2 dolls sitting on small chairs beside her. She is pretending to feed them, one doll has a closed mouth. She says:>

C: see , she can't eat .

M: Just pretend, honey.

C: but I can't eat her !

% NOVCAUS

^3;(15) 10-29-73

<C and M discussing where E caught a cold after E has been coughing. C says:>

C: I think she caught it when we came home because she seems coughing .

^3;3(15) 10-29-73

C: after you've feeded Eva and put her back to bed will you give me reading .

% DAT

^3;3(15) 10-29-73 [CHECK]

C: he can't really bounce ... he just holds still like that . <Pump>

^3;3(15) 10-29-73

<After E touches C with her sticky fingers during lunch, C says:>

C: most days I don't let she touch my hands .

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;3(15) 10-29-73

<C, scratching one knee after M has just put itch ointment on both knees, says:>

C: this one's the most itchier one .

^3;3(16) 10-30-73

<C, pushing dishes to one side on her stool to make room for something else, says:>

C: if I scoot over these a little then there will be room .

% RES-PRT

^3;3(23) 11-6-73

<C, shredding an adhesive line on the end of a paper pad, says:>

C: it always makes nobody feel good .

M: What?

C: to take off that line .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;3(23) 11-6-73

<M and C have been drawing puzzles for each other. Three things are the "same" and one is "different", you have to guess which is different. After C does one:>

M: Do you think daddy can guess that one?

C: I'm gonna guess it to him !

<Then runs upstairs to his office.>

% NOVCAUS DAT

^3;3(23) 11-6-73

<C, M and E in bed. M has been throwing and pushing C and E around in various ways. C says:>

C: do a trick to me that you never did before.

<= Make me do a trick ... >

% NOVCAUS DAT

^3;3(23) 11-6-73

<Just after putting buttons and other small items in both a jewelry box and a wire coin purse, C says:>

C: both of these things can be put things in .

% PASS-BE

^3;3(24) 11-7-73

<M, trying to hand F's glass of milk to C, says:>

M: Can you drink this to daddy ?

<C refuses the glass, then says:>

C: how do you do it ? ... I don't know how to do it yet .

% NOVCAUS

^3;3(24) 11-7-73

C: people have lots of sounds of their talking .

<General observation.>

^3;3(25) 11-8-73

<C, complaining about Eva bending something, says:>

C: I don't want she to bend it .

% LEXCAUS

^3;3(25) 11-8-73

<C and M have each been holding onto an end of the Slinky doll. Just after C lets go of her end and Slinky snaps toward M, C says:>

C: it just sank right back to you .

^3;3(26) 11-9-73

<While M is rinsing C's hair:>

M: Your point's gone away.

C: the water doesn't stand it up .

<Just before, M had made a point out at Christy's soapy hair. Now the water has washed the point out. Implicit here seems to be the notion that the soap does "stand it up".>

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;3(27) 11-10-73

<C, struggling to work a little puzzle that must be shaken until metal balls fit into tiny holes, says:>

C: I'm gonna try and make those balls go in those little holes .

C: I can't make them go in those holes .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;3(27) 11-10-73

<After C makes a design on the refrigerator with magnets, she says to M:>

C: now tell daddy to just leave it what I made .

% REL

^3;3(27) 11-10-73

<After M observes that C used to run away when M tried to change her diapers, but that E cannot run away yet, C says:>

C: probably that will happen when Eva gets learned how to walk .

% PASS-GET NOVCAUS

^3;3(28) 11-11-73

<When M scolds C for whining after E has just touched her with a food-y finger, C says:>

C: but Eva got my finger and made it messy .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;3(28) 11-11-73

<C, playing with a toy airplane, says:>

C: after I took these people a ride , then I take you people a ride .

M: What? <C repeats verbatim.>

<"These people" are imaginary, "you people" include M and imaginary others.

She then goes off "flying" the airplane.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;3(28) 11-11-73

<C, instructing M not to step on her coin design on the floor, says:>

C: don't step in it because that will make it a mess .

<Shortly after her instructions to M with reference to her coin design on the floor, C instructs Eva, saying:>

C: now Eva don't get in my penny design because that will mess it up .

% LEXCAUS

^3;3(28) 11-11-73

<C's airplane is under the couch. She says to M:>

C: you try to get it .

^3;3(28) 11-11-73 [CHECK]

<A while after telling M that she wanted to take her for a ride, C says:>

C: you didn't get ride , did ya ?

<Then C says to F, saying:>

C: you didn't have a ride , did ya ?

<C has been playing with a toy airplane. Remarks within about five minutes of each other.>

^3;3(28) 11-11-73

<After Eva takes C's toy watch, C says:>

C: I don't want her to have my watch .

^3;3(29) 11-12-73

<C, not wanting F to take a letter off the letter board, says:>

C: don't get off this .

<He already had his hand on it.>

^3;3(29) 11-12-73

<While the family waits for a table at a restaurant, C says:>

C: when is our turn going to be ready .

^3;3(29) 11-12-73

<After C draws something that M and F admire, C says:>

C: I'm really getting good to drawing .

^3;3(29) 11-12-73

<After C puts a doll on the floor, she says:>

C: this is big dolly laying on the floor .

C: Christy put she on the floor .

^3;3(30) 11-13-73

<C squeezes M's mouth and M says "ow ". C, now wanting M to do it to her, says:>

C: I wants see if that hurts to me .

% VPERC

^3;3(30) 11-13-73

<C, sitting on her potty, says to M:>

C: I'm not as long as you because my feet don't touch to the ground .

% NOVFG-BASIC

^3;3(30) 11-13-73

M: How come your sleeves are wet?

C: 'cause I got them wet .

% PERICAUS-GET

^3;3(30) 11-13-73

<C rejects M's attempt to cover her with a blanket at bedtime, saying:>

C: (don't put my blanket on) because that makes me too hot .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;3(30) 11-13-73

<C, trying to get something opened, says:>

C: how do you open this ... 'cause I want to have it opened .

% PASS-EMBED PERICAUS-HAVE LEXCAUS

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<After M tells C to take her hands off the (edge of the open) window in the back seat of the car. C has one hand on the ledge of the car door just below a partially rolled up window. C says:>

C: I only have one hand on the door that you go open and shut .

% NOVCAUS

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<In a language experiment, after C hits a toy animal with some other object, C says:>

C: that hurts ! . <Then:>

C: let me see if that hurts to me .

<C does it to herself.>

% VPERC PERICAUS-LET

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<C is pretending to be a statue by holding very still:>

M: Why are you breathing?

C: 'cause I can't stop my breathing .

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<M has been talking about a lady who cuts hair as her job. C says:>

C: when I grow up I'm gonna be a cutter-hair lady .

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<Lately, C has been resisting having F come into her room to say good night. She says:>

C: I don't want daddy to say good night , so don't let me .

<"Let" evidently is "make" here.>

% PERICAUS-LET PERICAUS-MAKE MAKE-LET

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<With reference to our car being repaired, C says:>

C: we couldn't drive it to it so we had to have it towed .

<All referents for "it" given by C in the preceding utterance.>

% PASS-EMBED PERICAUS

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<After C gets into a chair at the table (no one pushed her in), she says:>

C: look how pushed in I am .

% PASS-BE

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<C finds a magnifying glass, then holds it to her foot and looks through it, saying:>

C: what do you do with it ?

M: It makes things look bigger.

C: I wants see if it sees my foot bigger .

<Added later: cf. other errors which make it plausible that this one is a causativization: 1-29-74: What does it see? = what does it look like?; 5-30-75: White and yellow see really well through blue. = show; after painting a cardboard house.>

% VPERC NOVCAUS

^3;4(0) 11-14-73

<While playing with a toy wagon, C notices a hook on one end, and says:>

C: what does this hook to ?

<Then, picking up a toy car to hook together with the wagon, she says:>

C: I'm gonna hook it to (this) .

% RES-PP NOVINTR

^3;4(1) 11-15-73

<C is upset about a broken parasol. She touches it and tries to make it stay open:>

M: Do you want to throw it away?

C: yeah because I can't stay it up like that .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;4(1) 11-15-73

C: what does " mending " mean ?

<After C herself has used the word to ask M to fix her broken parasol.>

M: It means fixing, repairing.

<M is in the process of trying to put tape on the ripped paper.>

C: put [A] tape be over ?

<Note, cause [tape be over] lexicalized only partially here.>

% PERICAUS-PUT

^3;4(1) 11-15-73

<M explains to visitors that we didn't have any pants to match C's shirt, so she just kept the pyjama bottoms on that she already had on. Touching her pyjamas, C says:>

C: so we stayed on this .

<No mention of "keep" or "stay" in foregoing by M.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;4(3) 11-17-73

C: I have an itch to my foot right there .

% VBODYPART

^3;4(5) 11-19-73

<C watches a dog (Maisie) take a bit of food away from C and M and take it over to the rug in the next room. She says:>

C: she came it over there . <Also:> she brought it over there .

% NOVCAUS

^3;4(7) 11-21-73

<C has been trying to get Eva to lie down and now wants M to do it:>

M: She doesn't want to lie down.

C: but lie her down !

% NOVCAUS

^3;4(8) 11-22-73

<C, wanting to exchange bottles with Emily to get her pink one, says:>

C: let's do the wrong ones . <Also:> you put the pink one to me .

% NOVDAT PERICAUS-LET PUTGIVE

^3;4(9) 11-23-73

<C thinks she heard someone say "hi" but M denies that she did. C says:>

C: but I heard he say hi .

^3;4(13) 11-27-73

<C instructs M as M tries to choose a book to read to C. M is looking at the books on the top shelf but C wants M to look through the books on the lower shelf. She says:>

C: no , one of the down ones ... find one of the down ones .

<C contrasts "top" to "down" as objective, in something like "not the top ones".>

^3;4(13) 11-27-73

<After M snaps one of 4 snaps on C's pyjamas, C says:>

C: button me the rest .

<= Button the rest for me.>

% NOVDAT

^3;4(15) 11-29-73

<M is frosting a cake. After C snatches a pan away from Eva with cards in it, which she is pretending is a cake, she says:>

C: because you don't want her fingers to get with -- what do you call that ?

<M forgot what this was> on top of the cake.

% WITH-FIG

^3;4(15) 11-29-73

<While eating pancakes, C gets syrup on her hands. She says:>

C: it makes my hands sticky .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;4(15) 11-29-73

<C looking at a price tag she had picked up and stuck on the counter a few days ago. At that time we had joked about its "price", 3.95. C says:>

C: the counter cost thirteen miles away from here .

<Evidence for the lack of knowledge of which kinds of measuring units go with which concepts (distance, amount, length, time, price, etc.).>

% VMONEY

^3;4(15) 11-29-73

<C, telling M about a farmer holding a pig on "Matter" talking animal toy, says:>

C: and see , he gots a little piggie .

^3;4(16) 11-30-73

<While playing with a toy cat, C catches her glasses and they get pulled off.
She says:>

C: this kitty cat snapped right off my glasses .

% RES-PRT LEXCAUS

^3;4(17) 12-1-73

<While M tries to unclog the disposal with a plunger, C says:>

C: we don't know what it is .

M: No, we don't know what's stuck in the disposal.

C: we don't know what's sticking it .

<Then to F, she says:>

C: she's trying to unstuck the thing that's down in the disposal .

% NOVCAUS NOVUN-

^3;4(17) 12-1-73

<C watches an elephant's trunk pick up food, on Sesame street, and says:>

C: somebody is feeding the elephant .

^3;4(17) 12-1-73

<For the last several weeks, C has strikingly put separable particles before D.O.'s with the verb. She never used to do this so much, or perhaps not at all. No data on the past frequency, there is a much stronger tendency now to do this than before this period. Also, with pronoun D.O.'s.>

^3;4(17) 12-1-73

<C touching a cake on the counter. M has told her she can have some after dinner. C says to F:>

C: after dinner I can have some of this cake that I'm touching to .

% NOVFG-INTR-BASIC REL

^3;4(18) 12-2-73

<C, wanting M to tie a baby monkey in a mommy monkey's arms as they had been at another time, says:>

C: make her hold the baby .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;4(18) 12-2-73

<C, stamping her foot on the floor, says:>

C: jump jump -- I'm jumping one foot .

% NOVCAUS

^3;4(19) 12-3-73

<C holds a toy and pretends she will press it against M, then she presses it on her own forehead, saying:>

C: I'm gonna press you .

^3;4(20) 12-4-73

<After C puts a piece of food up against her glasses:>

M: Don't do that, honey.

C: why ?

M: It makes a mess.

C: it makes me not see .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;4(20) 12-4-73

<C pushes magnets up high on the refrigerator, saying:>

C: know why I'm putting all these magnets up here ?

C: ... 'cause of Eva , so she can't get them .

^3;4(20) 12-4-73

<After E wakes C up in the morning, by shouting:>

M: ... you heard Eva shout.

C: and that made me wake up ... she woke me up .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;4(20) 12-4-73

<As M puts C to bed, a noise (not F) is heard. C says:>

C: I heard something ... it heard like daddy ... it sounded like daddy .

% VPERC

^3;4(20) 12-4-73

<C, joining magnets to each other, says:>

C: put this to here ... now put this to here .

^3;4(22) 12-6-73

<Tammy-Beth is about to spin Eva in a ron-n-spin chair, C says to her:>

C: don't go her too fast .

% NOVCAUS

^3;4(23) 12-7-73

<After C has almost finished the catsup on her plate, she says:>

C: now I'm almost gone with the catsup .

% NOVFG-REV

^3;4(25) 12-9-73

<C being held by M. Wanting M to take her to a different part of the room to inspect her helium balloon, she says:>

C: come me over there .

M: What?

C: come me over there ... to see it .

% NOVCAUS

^3;4(25) 12-9-73

C: did we buy this .

% VMONEY

^3;4(25) 12-9-73

C: do you gonna have some too .

^3;4(26) 12-10-73

<C and M talking about where M will take C after nursery school. C says:>

C: bring me to Dot's house .

M: No, Dot will already be at church, remember, we go right to the church.

C: OK , then bring me to the church .

^3;4(27) 12-11-73

<C, with regard to some household item or toy, says:>

C: it probably used to belong to Dove ... now its belonged to me .

^3;4(27) 12-11-73

<M says to Dot, describing where something E was wearing came from:>

M: It belonged to one of her cousins.

C: it's belonged to one of my cousins .

^3;4(27) 12-11-73

<As C washes a dish with soap, she says we will put it in the dishwasher:>

M: If we clean it before, we don't have to.

C: we're clean-it-ing before .

^3;4(27) 12-11-73

<While soaping a utensil, C is upset because it isn't sudding. She says:>

C: I don't get this with bubbles.

% WITH-FIG PERICAUS-GET

^3;4(28) 12-12-73

<C's sock has slipped down around her ankles. As she struggles with trying to pull it up, she says to herself:>

C: keep that sock up .

^3;4(29) 12-13-73

<C, describing how she made a pancake tree decoration out of baker's clay at school, says:>

C: they didn't have a pancake cookie cutter so I made my hand to it .

% NOVFG-BASIC

^3;5(2) 12-16-73

<M gives C and E lunch but hasn't fixed M and F's lunch yet. C says:>

C: now it's just two people's not lunch .

<M repeats C. Then C says:>

C: two people aren't eating .

^3;5(4) 12-18-73

<C, explaining to someone about a wheelchair ride a nurse gave her in the hospital, says:>

C: ... a nice nurse lady took me a ride .

% NOVCAUS

^3;5(4) 12-18-73

<C, explaining to M where Grandma is going, says:>

C: your mommy's just going to take Klaus a walk .

% NOVCAUS

^3;5(4) 12-18-73

<C asks M about pliers M has been using to unbend and bend end of wire necklaces on which they are stringing beads. M says:>

M: I've been using them for straightening the wire.

C: and unstraighting it?

% NOVCAUS NOVUN-

^3;5(6) 12-20-73

<M is assembling a wind-up train for C. C is fixing the track and doesn't want M to wind it yet. She says:>

C: don't go it yet .

% NOVCAUS

^3;5(13) 12-27-73

<C has just climbed on the couch with her cousin Emily and is "posing", wanting M to take a picture. She says to M:>

C: be a picture of Emily and me .

% NOVCAUS

^3;5(18) 1-1-74

<C, pulling on the broken alarm button of a clock that won't stay up by itself, says:>

C: I can just pick it up and stay it up with my fingers .

% NOVCAUS

^3;5(18) 1-1-74

<C has stuffed one sock into another and protests as M begins to take them apart, saying:>

C: I want to do that. leave it like that !

<leave = "let stay", keep = "make stay".>

^3;5(19) 1-2-74

M: You were invited over there?

C: with a call with Marcie .

% NOVWITH INSTR

^3;5(22) 1-5-74

<C is in M's lap facing M and wants to be lowered over, backwards. She says:>

C: turn me a backwards somersault .

<Then after several backwards somersaults, C says:>

C: turn me a forwards somersault .

% NOVCAUS

^3;5(23) 1-6-74 [CHECK DATE?]

C: look at what Eva did, she pushed me like this and she let me stand on my head .

<= Made me stand >

% PERICAUS-LET PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;5(24) 1-7-74

<After Grandma makes a ducktail in E's hair, C says:>

C: don't make a puff .

<Then, after C smooths it down, she says:>

C: I puffed it down .

% NOVRES-PRT NOVDENOM

^3;5(25) 1-8-74

<C shows M a pencil she is inserting into a pencil sharpener, saying:>

C: I'm gonna sharp this pencil.

<M has talked only of the pencil sharpener in the preceding discussion.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;5(28) 1-11-74

<C, standing in her bare feet on the tile floor, says:>

C: the cold floor makes my feet cold .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;5(29) 1-12-74

<C, starting to draw a picture for Eva, says:>

C: now I'm gonna do Eva a picture .

% NOVDAT

^3;5(30) 1-13-74

<M and C having a discussion as to where milk comes from. C has said from cows, then it goes to the grocery stores:>

C: and then the people go it around .

M: Go it around?

C: put it everywhere in the store .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;6(0) 1-14-74

C: these socks itch my feet .

<C taking her socks off, then scratches. In same speech context, also uses "itch" in sense of "scratch".>

% NOVCAUS VBODYPART

^3;6(1) 1-15-74

<After M warns C not to lose some object, C says:>

C: I don't want to lose it . <Also:> It won't lose . I won't lose it .

% NOVINTR

^3;6(1) 1-15-74

<C, complaining of being cold as M tucks her in bed on a snowy day, says:>

C: I probably got some snow on my hands and that made my whole body be cold .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(2) 1-16-74

<After M tells C that she must go to bed, C protests, saying:>

C: I don't want to go to bed yet . <Also:> don't let me go to bed .

< = don't make me go to bed .>

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;6(2) 1-16-74

<While M is driving, C looks at her car key, which has its top embedded in black plastic, and says:>

C: if you lose that black thing -- if that thing loses -- then you won't have any key .

% NOVINTR

^3;6(3) 1-17-74

<After M finally gets the car started, C says:>

C: how come you had a little trouble going it ?

M: Hmm?

C: how come you had a little trouble ?

M: How come I what?

C: the car didn't want to go .

% NOVCAUS

^3;6(3) 1-17-74

C: did she bleed it?

<C inspecting E after E bumps into the edge of the table and M has said "watch out" or so to E. "It" apparently refers to some part of E's anatomy which C thinks might have been caused to bleed.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;6(4) 1-18-74

<After M tells C that she can't have or do something, C says:>

C: don't say me that or you'll make me cry .

% NOVDAT PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(4) 1-18-74

<C is surprised after M only put her partially into the car-seat, left her legs out. She says:>

C: and you just let my legs stay out and let me put my legs in ?

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;6(5) 1-19-74

<As E gets in her way while C is trying to walk on stilts, C says:>

C: no! you make me tip !

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(6) 1-20-74

<C is upset after M takes something away. She says:>

C: anyway , you made me cry ! <Also:>

C: anyway , you made me cry , with putting those up there !

% NOVWITH PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(6) 1-20-74

<Adult acquaintance: F to M, after a discussion of converting a pool into a solar energy storage unit, " ... or do you want it to stay a swimming pool?" C listening in, says:>

C: why stay it a swimming pool ?

% NOVCAUS

^3;6(6) 1-20-74

<As C walks over a pebble driveway, she says:>

C: rocks make people slip .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(6) 1-20-74

C: that made it hurting .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(6) 1-20-74

<With her Vicky (doll) nearer to M than C, C says:>

C: I want my Vicky . Bring her over to me .

^3;6(6) 1-20-74

<With reference to a broken whistle:>

M: It got stuck so the note is always the same.

C: you can still whistle it .

% NOVCAUS NOVDENOMV

^3;6(7) 1-21-74

<C wants M to play a game with her, pretending that she is a baby going to bed:>

M: Put yourself to bed.

C: I don't want myself to put me to bed .

% REFL

^3;6(9) 1-23-74

<C has a sore throat and has talked of a "flat place" when she swallows:>

C: when I swallow it makes it go away and when I keep swallowing it makes it stay away .

<A pause, then:>

C: if I swallow it goes away and when I keep swallowing it stays away .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(9) 1-23-74

C: don't let it undo .

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;6(9) 1-23-74

<After C puts lotion on her hands, waves them around and claps, she says:>

C: but I still have to clap to soak it in .

C: it's hard for me to soak it in .

C: it's not hard for me to soak it in now .

C: it's soaking in now .

% NOVCAUS-PRT NOVRES-PRT

^3;6(9) 1-23-74

C: stay this on . <Also:>

C: stay my clothes on all night ... even when I'm going to bed .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;6(10) 1-24-74

<C and M discussing sponge toys that C and E got for Christmas:>

M: Sometimes she'll probably want to play with your piggy and you'll want to play with her elephant.

C: I could let Eva play with my piggie for a little while .

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;6(10) 1-24-74

<As C plays with the size of shadows her hand casts on the car-seat, she says to herself:>

C: made it bigger ... made it smaller .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(12) 1-26-74

C: my tummy doesn't feel good ... and when I eat it makes it feel more not feel good .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(12) 1-26-74

<C and M and C's bear playing a lotto game. M says that the bear might win by getting his card done first:>

M: He'll win if he finishes first.

C: but I want to win you ! ... I'm gonna win anyway ... I'll beat you ...

I'm gonna beat 'cause I only have one two three ...

<spaces empty on the lotto board>

C: ... I'm gonna be the winner ... I beated -- I winned .

^3;6(12) 1-26-74

<After doing most of the work putting a game away, C says:>

C: I do everything for putting this away .

^3;6(12) 1-26-74

<After M wins a game of cards, C says:>

C: let's play it again and let me win this time .

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;6(13) 1-27-74

<Observation: After jumping in a bean bag chair, C says:>

C: by jumping , it makes the bean bag all messed up .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(13) 1-27-74

<After walking on the edge of bean bag chair, C says:>

C: I'm gooder than my cousin Emily does it .

<Object of comparison.>

^3;6(14) 1-28-74

<C, explaining how scales got broken on Sesame Street, says:>

C: see , Big Bird wanted to weigh Snuffulup .

M: Mr. SnuffalupaNGus?

C: yeah , and he jumped on it and that made it break .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(14) 1-28-74

<C, kneading play dough, saying:>

C: I'm gonna flatten it down ... I'll flatten down this .

% -EN

^3;6(14) 1-28-74

M: You're so soft and squeezy.

C: uh uh . My bones don't make me squeezy .

<= keep me from being squeezy.>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(15) 1-29-74

<After having carefully moved a playdough man so she could use rolling pin on more play dough in the same area of the table, C says:>

C: ... I might have rolled him back up again and I didn't want to roll him up .

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;6(15) 1-29-74

<As C and M watch two men about to take something out of a removal van across the street:>

M: When they bring it out, then you'll (we'll) see.

C: what does it see ? ... what do you see ?

% NOVVPERC

^3;6(16) 1-30-74

C: the boy pushed the witch into the oven and that made her dead .

% RES-PP PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;6(16) 1-30-74

<C, trying to sit on M's legs which are outstretched, M wearing pants. If M's legs come apart, C falls through. C says in fairly short succession:>

C: stay closed your legs ... stay your legs closed ... close them .

% NOVCAUS LEXCAUS

^3;6(16) 1-30-74

<C, explaining why E was crying in the bathroom, says:>

C: I wasn't letting her have any soap .

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;6(17) 1-31-74

<C retelling the fantasy she and a friend had at school, not too long after seeing 'Peter and the wolf'. She says:>

C: and the monster would eat you in pieces . <Also:>

C: and the wolf would eat the pieces .

% NOVRES-PP

^3;6(17) 1-31-74

<C and M discussing a clogged nipple:>

M: The nipple isn't doing a good job.

C: stay -- you be a good job !

<To the nipple, C holding it. Then:>

C: unstuck it .

<To M, after M takes it.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;6(17) 1-31-74

<C remarks that puppets she made at school were not really puppets. M has said they were. C says:>

C: but usually puppets make ... let people put their hands in .

% PERICAUS-MAKE PERICAUS-LET

^3;6(17) 1-31-74

<After C finishes her bottle, she says:>

C: this (bottle) is a done bottle .

^3;6(18) 2-1-74

C: I want it there in my bottom ... to keep my bottom warm .

^3;6(18) 2-1-74

<After C can't find her lady-bug coat hook name tag at school, she says:>

C: I wonder if a coat got putten on my lady-bug one .

% PASS-GET

^3;6(19) 2-2-74

<After C replaces the lid of the cinnamon jar, she says:>

C: I putted the cinnamon top on .

^3;6(20) 2-3-74

C: after you finish changing Eva's diaper will you look in the T.V. guide and see if there's a children's television program that we never have sawn ?

^3;6(20) 2-3-74

<C, wanting to whisper something to M, says:>

C: I want to tell it in the ear .

^3;6(21) 2-4-74

<M telling C she is almost done with dentist appointments:>

M: Then I don't have to go again for half a year.

<C, remembering a past conversation about when she'd go to the dentist again, says:>

C: until I'm four I don't have to be gone . When I'm four I'll go .

% NOVCAUS PASS-BE HAVETO

^3;6(21) 2-4-74

<C has already noted that pepper can go on food. Now, talking about salt, she says:>

C: also it can be putten on your food .

% PASS-BE

^3;6(22) 2-5-74

<C, playing with a bead necklace, says:>

C: snapping onto this is only used for three things .

<She has been saying her hands snap onto it and telling three things she could then do.>

% LEXCAUS

^3;6(22) 2-5-74

<C, protesting when M took pictures of Eva and not her, says:>

C: you're going to take a picture without taking me a picture .

C: take me a picture now .

% NOVDAT

^3;6(22) 2-5-74

<C with a toy whistle, says:>

C: it's a whistle ... I wonder what it does when you whistle it .

% NOVCAUS NOVDENOMV

^3;6(22) 2-5-74

<C, protesting when M calls her to leave the house, says:>

C: ... but I have to stay it on there .

<She is trying to get reins to stay draped across her horse.>

% NOVCAUS-PP

^3;6(23) 2-6-74

<M earlier made C a pony tail, C now remarks that she wants to leave it, saying:>

C: I want to stay this rubber band on ... I want a piggie tail .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;6(26) 2-9-74

<C and E on horse, C says:>

C: ... take her for a ride .

<First observed use of "for" in this type of sentence.>

^3;6(26) 2-9-74

<C playing with two long sticks, pretending they are canes. She says:>

C: that helps me to stay up .

% PERICAUS-HELP

^3;6(28) 2-11-74

<As M tapes a box shut at C's request, C says:>

C: that's to keep it shut .

^3;6(28) 2-11-74

<C, lying on the floor, has been laughing. She says:>

C: I'm so laughing I hardly can get up .

^3;6(29) 2-12-74

<C in the tub, has been playing a game whereby M makes a point of her shampooey hair, then C flattens it when M turns away. Now as M turns back, C denies that she is responsible, saying:>

C: I wasn't doing it down ... it just was falling down .

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;7(0) 2-14-74

<With reference to something M has suggested, C says:>

C: that would make her more sick ... she doesn't want to be more sick .

<C pretending that her doll is sick.>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;7(0) 2-14-74

<C, holding a rope between her hands and moving her arms backward over her head, says:>

C: I have to have something to go it back .

<"It" refers to her arms, the "something" to the rope.>

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;7(1) 2-15-74

<C puts her coat on by putting her arms through it upside down in front, then flapping it over her head. She says:>

C: I'm jumping it over (my head) .

% NOVRES-PP NOVCAUS

^3;7(1) 2-15-74

<C scolding M, says:>

C: you should have putten my cream of wheat there .

^3;7(1) 2-15-74

C: he keeps getting knocked over ... from some people .

<Reference to a character on Sesame street. From = "by". She has often used "by" correctly.>

% PASS-GET NOVFROM

^3;7(5) 2-19-74

<When C thinks she will vomit again, but doesn't, she says:>

C: I feeled it in my tummy to do it again but I kepted it <=vomit> in .

^3;7(5) 2-19-74

<C and M looking at a book in which you use a mirror to change the pictures. M is reading instructions from the book:>

M: Can you make it disappear?

C: now disappear it again , it says .

<C has done so, now does it a second time.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;7(5) 2-19-74

<C, playing with a yoyo but not succeeding, says:>

C: one time I made the yoyo come back up to me .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;7(6) 2-20-74

<C and M are walking to the park. The wind is strong and M says that C should hold her coat on till we get to the park, then M would zip it shut. C not wanting it zipped, says:>

C: I can leave it on ... I don't need to zip it .

<"Keep it on" would be semantically more appropriate here. Indicates confusion between "leave" and "keep" -- both contain "stay".>

^3;7(6) 2-20-74

<C, talking about her coat after the wind just blows it right off, says:>

C: I can leave it ... I can stay it on better .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;7(6) 2-20-74

<C, trying to get a book of music on the piano to stay open when she takes her hands away, says:>

C: I can't stay it open ... stay open !

<On imperative, pounds music.>

% NOVCAUS-ADJ

^3;7(6) 2-20-74

<After M observes that M has more teeth than C, C says:>

C: tooth [iz] will grow into me .

% NOVINCH

^3;7(6) 2-20-74

<C playing with her doll, says:>

C: she can do a somersault , and also can do a backwards somersault .

^3;7(70) 2-21-74

<C, putting her hand out of the window of the car while snow is falling, says:>

C: I can't catch some snow .

M: What would you do with it if you caught it?

C: I wanted to rub it and make it warm in my hands .

% PERICAUS

^3;7(7) 2-21-74

<Just before C and F precede M as usual to C's room for her bedtime, C stands on M's foot, saying:>

C: I'm gonna stay you here till I and daddy go in my room .

% NOVCAUS

^3;7(8) 2-22-74

<C has a toy plate up her sleeve. First she raises her arm, then lowers it and the plate stays in. She says:>

C: when I put my arm down , it doesn't go down .

<"It" refers to the plate.>

^3;7(8) 2-22-74

<After C almost empties a glass, she says:>

C: look how down I drank it .

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;7(8) 2-22-74

<E is playing with a toy phone near M. C, wanting E to BRING her the phone, says:>

C: take it to me .

% DAT

^3;7(12) 2-26-74

<C, helping F to assemble a crib, says:>

C: I'll help stay it up .

% NOVCAUS-PRT PERICAUS-HELP

^3;7(12) 2-26-74

<C notices that a jigsaw puzzle on the floor has gotten all messed up after she walked on it without noticing what she was doing. She says:>

C: it didn't use to be like this ... I did it all up .

<"Did it all up" appears to be the equivalent of "messed it all up".>

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;7(12) 2-26-74

<With reference to a mobile hanging from the ceiling above the crib:>

M: We're gonna have to move this, 'cause Eva could pull on it.

C: but we can stay this .

M: Huh?

C: we can stay this.

<Indicating a toy hung on the side of the crib.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;7(14) 2-28-74

<C on trapeze, stops pumping, and says:>

C: I know how to (stop moving) ... just stay your legs out in front .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;7(14) 2-28-74

<As C slips gradually off the trapeze, she says:>

C: I'm getting downer and downer .

% INCH-GET

^3;7(18) 3-3-74

<After stabbing herself on the edge of the high chair and remarking that the projection was not as sharp as a scissors, C says:>

C: could scissors make people bleed ?

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;7(19) 3-4-74

<C, running toward the house with a handful of snow, says:>

C: I'm gonna melt it inside .

% LEXCAUS

^3;7(20) 3-5-74

<After M raises C's feet briefly off the ground to get both her legs into her overalls simultaneously, C says:>

C: you jumped me .

% NOVCAUS

^3;7(20) 3-5-74

C: come see what happened to Brad's plate .

M: Come and tell me about it while I tie your shoes.

C: no you show -- I show you . Come look at what happened to Brad's plate .

^3;7(22) 3-7-74

<C having trouble with some project in the bathtub, says:>

C: it didn't come ... it keeps didn't coming .

^3;7(22) 3-7-74

<As M puts C's relatively new shoes on, C doesn't want to wear them because she says they hurt her feet. She says:>

C: how come you always let me wear those ?

<Let = "make".>

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;7(26) 3-11-74

<C thinks the cord is in the way of the books on the bottom shelf. M, with reference to the cord in front of the bookshelves, says:>

M: You don't really have to step over to get to the books.

C: but you do for the little down ones .

^3;7(26) 3-11-74

<As M bends to put E into her highchair at lunch time, C says:>

C: no , mommy , don't eat her yet , she's smelly .

<E is indeed smelly.>

% NOVCAUS

^3;7(26) 3-11-74

<Slightly later than "don't eat her yet", etc., C says:>

C: Eva's still hungry 'cause she's eating part of my sandwich .

^3;7(28) 3-13-74

C: but mine's brokener than Eva's .

^3;8(0) 3-14-74

<C tries to assemble a "potato-head" type toy but some piece keeps falling off when she puts it on. She says:>

C: I can't stay this on .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;8(1) 3-15-74

<C tries to get Eva to take something with her mouth while Eva is in the highchair, saying:>

C: take it from your mouth , Eva .

% NOVFROM

^3;8(2) 3-16-74

<M, F and C disagreeing about whether C should hit her horse as she rides him. C wants to. She says:>

C: I do what my horsie says me to do .

% NOVDAT

^3;8(2) 3-16-74

<After M puts C's coat on, C is fretting because her shirt sleeves got pushed up underneath. She says:>

C: my sleeve's up ... leave them down .

<Leave = "keep" here.>

^3;8(2) 3-16-74

<As M is putting on C's socks, C is showing her how she wants the tops turned down. She says:>

C: and go ... put it like that .

% NOVCAUS SLIP

^3;8(2) 3-16-74

<As M is putting diapers on over doll's legs, the diaper is down at doll's rubber ankles. C, wants it up against doll's cloth trunk, says:>

C: go it up to the cloth .

M: Huh?

C: pull it up to the cloth .

% NOVCAUS-PP RES-PP

^3;8(3) 3-17-74

<C, recounting the story of "The Magic Flute" she's just seen, says:>

C: the lizard got dead ... got alive (again) .

% NOVINCH-GET

^3;8(3) 3-17-74

<C, M and F are playing a pretend game involving role changes. C says to M and F:>

C: that's you two's little sister .

^3;8(3) 3-17-74

<C and E in E's crib. C has been trying to get her feet over against E and M has just told her to stop bothering E. C says:>

C: I can't put them to her .

<"Them" refers to her feet or legs.>

% DAT

^3;8(3) 3-17-74

<As E kicks up the edge of the table cloth with her foot, C says to her:>

C: Eva don't ! ... leave it down !

^3;8(4) 3-18-74

<Conversation with reference to a T.V. show:>

C: if you want to see it I'll let you .

C: if you don't want to see it I won't let you .

<Let = "make".>

% PERICAUS-LET PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;8(4) 3-18-74

<C asks M what made a noise:>

M: What kind of a noise?

C: a noise ... it heard .

<She hears it again, and says:>

C: that noise .

% NOVVERC NOVINTR

^3;8(4) 3-18-74

<C had just slightly pulled apart a little "book" she's made by stapling squares of paper together. She says:>

C: I pulled it unstapled .

% NOVRES-ADJ

^3;8(4) 3-18-74

<C, telling M a story about a fence that didn't like its color, says:>

C: it got a painter to paint itself .

% REFL

^3;8(4) 3-18-74

<C starts to take off 2 papers that were fastened onto an easel, saying:>

C: I'm gonna put those down.

<Approximate except for "put those down".>

^3;8(5) 3-19-74

<F is hiding under a blanket. C, telling how she will reveal him, says:>

C: when I — this it will get its cover off .

^3;8(5) 3-19-74

<As M tries to move a chair C has positioned, C says:>

C: stay -- stay it there .

% NOVCAUS

^3;8(5) 3-19-74

<As E takes a sticker "medal" off C's overalls, C says to her:>

C: leave that on !

^3;8(6) 3-20-74

<C riding her horse, has been singing loudly to spur the horse on. She says:>

C: saying giddy-up doesn't make it go faster ... singing goes it faster .

% NOVCAUS-ADJ PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;8(6) 3-20-74

<C asking M for a piece of bread and honey, says:>

C: and I want to get the honey on .

<"Put" would be more appropriate.>

^3;8(6) 3-20-74

<C, finding a paper "medal" from school, says:>

C: and is this mine ? ... it ripped up .

% NOVINTR

^3;8(6) 3-20-74

<C, worrying about her pyjama tops and bottoms, says:>

C: I don't want these pyjamas not to get snapped .

I don't want them to get unsnapped .

% INCH-GET

^3;8(6) 3-20-74

<C pretending to put on a magic show after seeing one at school. She has just touched M with a "wand" and pushed her from prone to sitting. She says:>

C: I turned you into a ... I turned you into getting up .

% NOVRES-CLAUSE

^3;8(6) 3-20-74

C: when can my patch come off ?

<= When can I take my patch off? Note, "take off" not "bring off" would be the appropriate causative.>

^3;8(7) 3-21-74

<With reference to a medal she got at school, C says:>

C: I got one too but I'm not gonna wear it on me .

<Another child has just shown his medal to M.>

^3;8(7) 3-21-74

<With regard to the paper "medal" on her pants, C says:>

C: this is where I'm gonna keep it until it gets washed .

% PASS-GET

^3;8(7) 3-21-74

<C walking along the edge of a brick wall. She says to no one in particular:>

C: don't fall down ... don't fall me down .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;8(7) 3-21-74

<C, trying to hold a doll by its dress while dangling it over the front of her car seat, says:>

C: I can't stay her by her dress ... stay up .

<After C's doll falls down over the front of C's car seat, C holds her dress and pulls her up, saying:>

C: I caught her up ... I pulled her up .

% NOVCAUS-PRT NOVRES-PRT RES-PRT

^3;8(8) 3-22-74

C: just let me look through this again and see what I could do .

% PERICAUS-LET

^3;8(8) 3-22-74

<With regard to the groceries. All of us are inside, groceries are outside.

C says:>

C: I got a good idea ... daddy takes them in and you put them away .

^3;8(8) 3-22-74

<When part of C's car-seat comes off, she exasperatedly catches it then tries to put it back, saying:>

C: leave this on !

<Then after she puts it back, she says:>

C: you stay on !

^3;8(8) 3-22-74

<C, pulling her sock up, says:>

C: I have to be --- have it up !

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;8(8) 3-22-74

<C in her car seat. The car jerks a little as M is starting it and C says:>

C: you put me forward .

C: you put me forward a little bit .

<= Made me go forward.>

% PERICAUS-PUT

^3;8(9) 3-23-74

<After M observes that the yard is a mess after much playing in the snow, C says:>

C: I can get the snow off with making little balls .

<Note, C has had confusion in the proper preposition for instrumentals. Errors between "with", "from" and "by" -- one where the other is appropriate.>

% NOVWITH

^3;8(9) 3-23-74

<After C's snowsuit hood slips off while outside, she says:>

C: I didn't make (my hood/it) come off .

<Note, "take off" is the appropriate suppletive form for many (all?) instances of "come off", not "bring off".>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;8(9) 3-23-74

C: we can make a snowman if there gets enough snow .

% NOVGET

^3;8(10) 3-24-74

<C is standing on her little chair with one leg of it tipping down into a "hole" in the kitchen floor. She says:>

C: I can stable not on that but I can stable on that.

<She then tips back. C off the chair and trying to show M some part of the back of the chair, says:>

C: there's something I can stable on the back . <Also:>

C: you'll see what's stabling it .

<C on the chair again, the chair has all four legs flat on the floor. C says:>

C: there's nothing I can stable on now .

<"Stable" seems to mean "balance" or so, here.>

% NOVINTR NOVCAUS

^3;8(10) 3-24-74

<C, making up a story about Vicky (cast as a boy) and some ailment (a thorn), says:>

C: ... and they couldn't get it out so they bringed him to the doctor .

% DAT

^3;8(10) 3-24-74

<C says with regard to some cut of hers:>

C: it's not getting unhurting .

% NOVGET VPERC

^3;8(10) 3-24-74

<C, with reference to a package on the table, says:>

C: how come this is leaved here ? <Also:>

C: daddy , how come you leaved this ... on the table ?

% PASS-BE

^3;8(11) 3-25-74

<C, wanting to know if M plans to put either her or Eva down for a nap in the morning, says:>

C: are you taking anybody to bed ? <Approximately>

% PUTTAKE

^3;8(12) 3-26-74

<C, commenting on pancakes she has just poured onto skillet, says:>

C: that one will touch to that one . <Also:>

C: that little bitty short one will touch to the small one .

% NOVFG-INTR-BASIC

^3;8(12) 3-26-74

<C, flattening a playdough "crown" she has made, says:>

C: I'm pressing my crown out .

% NOVRES-PRT

^3;8(16) 3-30-74

<C in the tub, about to push down a shampoo point on top of her head, says:>

C: when I push it down , you say " where's my point ?"

% RES-PRT

^3;8(16) 3-30-74

<C in the tub, says:>

C: I keep slippering .

% NOVINTR

^3;8(16) 3-30-74

<After C gets her fingers in an egg, she says:>

C: I got my hands all with egg .

% PERICAUS-GET FG

^3;8(16) 3-30-74

<Both C and E are in the tub. C says with reference to her body, then her feet:>

C: Eva's making me stay ... I'll stay em there .

% NOVCAUS PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;8(16) 3-30-74

<After M tries to take C's blanket, C says:>

C: I'm not gonna have you have it .

<Have = "let", here.>

% PERICAUS-HAVE PERICAUS-LET

^3;8(16) 3-30-74

C: my foot jumped down here ... I jumped it up here ... it < ... contd.>

C: jumped up here .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;8(20) 4-3-74

<M suggests C must be tired while on a walk. C says:>

C: I'm not tired ... I'm just tired from walking .

% NOVFROM

^3;8(21) 4-4-74

<C is mad at M after M bent something she was making:>

M: I don't appreciate your screaming at me when I was trying to help you .

C: well , I don't appreciate you with bending it .

%NOVWITH

^3;8(22) 4-5-74

<C, trying to get a drink from her glass, says:>

C: I keep don't getting any .

^3;8(24) 4-7-74

<M is covering C. She has already put one blanket on C and is about to put the other one on. C's doll is on the bed half-dressed. C says:>

C: do my other one on .

M: What?

C: put my other one -- I want my big dolly dressed .

% NOVRES-PRT PASS-EMBED

^3;8(24) 4-7-74

C: that eats ?

M: What?

C: that can be eaten .

<(Approximate) of food on plane. Shortly after "can that press?" "Be eaten" as "eat".>

% NOVINTR PASS-BE

^3;8(25) 4-8-74

<After M tells C her shoes are soaking wet, C says:>

C: they're not soaking wet ... I don't even feel it wet .

% NOVVPERC

^3;8(26) 4-9-74

<C, pushing a knitting bear doll along on the floor, says:>

C: that pushes along 'cause there's wheels .

% NOVINTR

^3;8(26) 4-9-74

<After C rings our door bell:>

M: Ding dong.

C: I ding donged it .

% NOVCAUS

^3;8(26) 4-9-74

<C and M discussing guns, C has seen children with toy ones, afraid they would shoot her. M talks of getting hurt with guns, C here noting that guns make you dead. Says:>

C: _____ make _____ dead .

<= Kill.>

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;8(27) 4-10-74

<C, wanting M to spin her in the ron-n-spin chair, says:>

C: you didn't at all go around me ... go me round and round and round and round ... fast. push me .

% NOVCAUS-PRT

^3;8(29) 4-12-74

<C and Andrea dyeing eggs. With reference to the patterns on the eggs:>

A: It maked into a "J".

C: mine turned into a chair .

% NOVINTR

^3;8(30) 4-13-74

<C tries to get her roller skate on and now wanting M's help, she says:>

C: mom , would you make it come on ?

M: What?

C: would you make it come on my foot ?

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;8(30) 4-13-74

<C, trying to blow up a balloon, says:>

C: you wanta be it a little tiny one ?

M: Huh?

C: you wanta have it (be ?) a little tiny one ? <Also:>

C: mommy , watch how tiny I want it to be .

% NOVCAUS

^3;9(0) 4-14-74

C: I know better ... I know best of all .

^3;9(0) 4-14-74

<When M has the camera out, C says:>

C: have a picture of me tickling myself ... do a picture !

% REFL

^3;9(0) 4-14-74

<F is watching T.V. After C complains to M that F won't let her watch a show she wants, she says to F two times:>

C: make me watch it .

<= Let me ... >

% PERICAUS-MAKE PERICAUS-LET

^3;9(0) 4-14-74

C: you better not take me a quiet time, you better take me a quiet time .

% NOVCAUS

^3;9(1) 4-15-74

<As M fixes bottles for C and E, C instructs M about which bottle she wants, saying:>

C: put me the pink bottle ... give me the pink bottle ... give the pink nipple to me .

% NOVDAT

^3;9(2) 4-16-74

<C singing a made-up song to herself:>

C: if it touched Humpty Dumpty it would make Humpty Dumpty dead . <Also:>

C: Humpty Dumpty got dead . <Also:> Humpty Dumpty got alive again .

% NOVGET PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;9(2) 4-16-74

<Talking about a snake we'd seen at the zoo:>

M: If it bites you it would make you very sick.

C: and it might even make you dead .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;9(2) 4-16-74

C: we haven't playen with her for quite a while .

^3;9(6) 4-20-74

<C wields her blanket at F or E, saying as a joke:>

C: want a smack in the face with some pie ?

% INSTR-WITH

^3;9(6) 4-20-74

<C, instructing M that she wants M to make her a pancake, says:>

C: I want a teeny tiny one that's made from you .

% NOVFROM PASS-BE

^3;9(6) 4-20-74

<C has said our roof was leaking, now she says to M:>

C: get it unleaking .

% PERICAUS-GET

^3;9(7) 4-21-74

<C says to M:>

C: you should - of - n't took all the brick cheese .

<=shouldn't have.>

^3;9(7) 4-21-74

<After M asks C to stop unbuttoning her, C says to her:>

C: I'm not taking you unbuttoned .

% NOVRES-PPART PASS-EMBED PERICAUS-TAKE

^3;9(7) 4-21-74

<As C and M are pouring pancakes onto the griddle, C says:>

C: don't make that one touch to mine ... I'm gonna make mine touch together with yours .

% NOVFG-INTR-BASIC PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;9(8) 4-22-74

<After asking M if she could have a new stick of gum after dinner to replace her old one, C adds>

C: a new fresh gum that no one have been aten .

% PASS-BE

^3;9(8) 4-22-74

<C has discovered she can open the front door herself if it's unlocked and M has said she would leave the door open when C is playing out in front of the house. C reminds M:>

C: but never ever put the door locked .

% NOVRES-PPART PASS-EMBED PERICAUS-PUT

^3;9(9) 4-23-74

<C, disappointed that M came upon her before she was dressed, says:>

C: I wanted to surprise you with getting dressed .

% NOVWITH

^3;9(9) 4-23-74

<After M puts a second shirt on C and C is upset about the sleeves, she says:>

C: this is twisted ... I feel it tight !

% NOVVPERC

^3;9(10) 4-24-74

<After C runs over a dead fly on her trike and squishes it, she says to M:>

C: but it was already dead .

but I only make it more dead .

but I just made it more deader .

it was already real dead .

% PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;9(10) 4-24-74

<C looks out at the early morning sky and says:>

C: ... (up of the) sky is light and the down of the sky is dark .

<Meaning is not quite clear.>

^3;9(10) 4-24-74

<As M tries to tighten C's overall straps:>

M: I can't seem to tighten these.

C: they tight .

M: Huh?

C: they get tight .

% NOVINTR INCHGET

^3;9(10) 4-24-74

<C's horse has reins wrapped around his head. C says:>

C: look at my horsie's head ... it's all tied up by my reins .

% PASS-BE NOVBV

^3;9(11) 4-25-74

<C, after hearing brakes squeal outside, says:>

C: it hears to me {like/that} one car bumped into another car .

% NOVVPERC NOVINTR

^3;9(11) 4-25-74

<C, smelling an Easter egg, says:>

C: it sniffses yukky ... it sniffs yukky ... it smells yukky .

% NOVVERC

^3;9(12) 4-26-74

<C, bubbling saliva so it shows on her lips, says:>

C: (I made that) from my mouth .

<"With" more appropriate. Instrumentals.>

% NOVFROM

^3;9(13) 4-27-74

<C, wanting M to feed her something, says:>

C: you feed me ... take me little bites ... give me little bites .

% NOVCAUS DAT

^3;9(13) 4-27-74

<When Jenny comes to play, C says to her:>

C: you can ride on my ... I -'ll ride you on my <(trails off.) C wants to go out to the driveway to play on her toys.

Here "ride you" means "let you ride".>

% NOVCAUS-PP

^3;9(14) 4-28-74

<While in the tub, C holds a cup that has holes in it; water is spouting out. C says:>

C: this is pooey that's coming out of here .

<She then covers the holes with her hand so no water comes out, saying:>

C: and that -'s how to make it uncome .

% NOVUN- PERICAUS-MAKE

^3;9(14) 4-28-74

<C having a fantasy, says:>

C: ... and then the cookie swallowed and (then) went down down down .

<= got swallowed.>

% NOVINTR

^3;9(14) 4-28-74

<With reference to things she brought on a car trip, C says:>

C: I just brang my blankets and my Vickie .

<Vickie=doll. Note, as of 6-18-74 "brang" continues productive. Also:>

C: swang

<as past tense of "swing" heard on 6-17-74.>

^3;9(14) 4-28-74

<After M has accused C of spilling water, C says:>

C: I'm trying not to do any water on the floor .

% NOVRES-PP

^3;9(14) 4-28-74

<C says to F at dinner:>

C: you should have usen a spoon .

^3;9(14) 4-28-74

<C, stopping pouring water into a cup, says:>

C: that's as full as I'm going to take it .

% NOVRES-ADJ PERICAUS-TAKE

^3;9(16) 4-30-74

<With reference to F's voice, C says:>

C: where did it sound like it's coming from ?

^3;9(16) 4-30-74

<As C looks through colored plastic pieces at M, she says many sentences with this format; particular color word depends on the plastic piece at the moment:>

C: I see you light / dark / dark green / red .

% NOVVERC

END OF FILE CHR18