

EVA04 Eva, aged 1;6(7) – 1;6(26)

^1;6(7) 8-12-74

<E takes a magazine out of M's hands and lap and sets it carefully down on the floor. Says two separate times:>

E: sit .

^1;6(7) 8-12-74

<E is agitated, because C is lying with her bare feet on the couch and her stomach on the coffee table. She pokes at C's foot, saying:>

E: [no but.h] " no foot ".

<A moment later, she turns her attention to a small catalogue C is looking at. She tries to push it away from C, saying:>

E: no book .

<Note, as of 8-21-74 this form didn't progress. Last couple of days instead there's been "word" plus a head shake for negation.>

^1;6(8) 8-13-74

<After C takes a plastic carton with a lid out of the cupboard, E says:>

E: [bak.h] " box ".

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E brushes hair off M's face that had been touching M's nose, saying:>

E: [nos] " nose ".

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E spitting out and playing with cherry seeds. Says many times:>

E: [din] " seed ".

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E points to a picture with many flying birds. Going from one bird to another, she says several times:>

E: birdies .

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

M:Are you a baby?

E: no baby .

<Repeated on two separate occasions, the second for F's benefit. The third combination of "no" with another word. Shortly later:>

M: Who's this? <Touching E.>

E: baby .

<E calls herself "baby" most often in situations when she wants something that has been denied or taken away, hurt and fretful.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<When C tries to take something away from E, E says:>

E: [dondidi] " don't Deedee ".

<This phrase has been common, though I don't recall "don't" plus any other name.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E sees several men in a big bed asleep on T.V., says:>

E: nap .

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<After E shows M that her bottle is empty, waving the bottle around, she says:>

E: [dam] " some ".

<Clearly wants more. She'd just had some.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E gets on inchworm and tries to get C's attention, saying:>

E: bye Deedee .

<Very common situation for "bye-bye" + vocative.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

E: more .

<After M had made 2 pretend phone calls on E's toy phone, E had been delighted. She kept handing the receiver back to M, now with this request. So "more" and AGAIN do cover an overlapping range of referents. Both for events, though "again" more common. "More" for objects and food, though "again" was heard about once in this meaning and "again" for events, generally ones M or F have initiated or must help with.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<As E and F play with many tennis balls, E says:>

E: more ball .

<Exact context not certain.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E brings a toothbrush and paste to M. She's already had some toothpaste on the brush, now apparently wants more. She says:>

E: more teeth .

<"Teeth" used in connection with the toothpaste.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E looks at a picture of a statue of Babar, carved in a mountain, and says:>

E: up .

<Has first said BABAR!. "Up" could refer to elevation of the head, or perhaps just means "tall" or "high" here.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E looks at the picture of a giraffe in "Babar" book and says:>

E: up .

<Its head perhaps appears to be up on a scaffolding because of its long neck, legs are on the ground:>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<After M had told E not to pull off a bit of paper stuck to M's leg, E had tried to. Saying:>

E: on .

<Plus negative head shake; = "not on".>

<She has used "on" with meanings of both "on" and OFF lately.

One of the very few occasions E has combined a head shake with a word.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E across the table from M. She pats a place on the table by her where she wants M to set a container of beans down, saying:>

E: sit .

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<In the last couple of days, when her hands were sticky and she wanted help, E has said several times to M:>

E: dirty .

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

E: cut . fork .

<Both used in alternation as E asks F for a fork. Then when she gets it, she proceeds to cut off a piece of his cake for herself, as he had done for her earlier.>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E seeing pictures of a giraffe in "Babar" book, says on two separate occasions:>

E: moo .

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E stands behind M on the bed and touches her back. She says several times:>

E: [dambi] " tummy ".

<A sort of a joke, at least after the first time when M denied that it was her tummy and said "back".>

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

E: open .

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) After coming from the T.V., E says to M "open ". She then tries to lead M to the T.V. to turn it on. "open" = ON here. First use like this.
- 2) A moment later, after M turns the T.V. on, she says this to F. She then rotates her hand near the channel knob to show him she wants the channel changed.

^1;6(9) 8-14-74

<E takes something off a book on the coffee table and puts it on the floor, saying:>

E: book .

<M had just put the object on the book.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

E: no .

<In the last 5 days of so, E has begun to say this with great pleasure to refuse us if we ask "can I have a bite of that?", or some such request. Very coy.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

E: here .

<In the last few days, this often occurs when E gives something, but not with another word.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

E: thank Deedee .

<E said this many times. Once after C gave her peanuts and once looking up at C's pictures taped to the stairwell of F's office. Always with coy inflection and tipped head. "Thank daddy" and "thank mommy", also heard, reasons not so clear.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E looks at the picture (in the "Seasons" book) of a man with no shirt on, but noticeable white pants, and says:>

E: [b&nts] " pants ".

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<When M shows E a picture of pigs and labels it, E says many times:>

E: [oink.h] " oink ".

<First spontaneous use.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E has been touching M's hand to have it play "peekaboo" with a picture.

Then she says:>

E: mommy .

<Then she touches her own hand, which has also been playing "peekaboo", saying:>

E: baby .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E and M looking at pictures. E puts her hand over the picture of interest and says this before removing it:>

E: peekaboo .

<First use like this.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<After E has finished some pancake, she requests more by saying:>

E: more cake .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E lies on her back while F changes her diaper. Fiddling with a second diaper, she says:>

E: more dipie .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E standing by the kitchen counter. There's a bottle nearby, and E, possibly fiddling with the nipples, says:>

E: more bottle . <Not clear>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E watches C take aspirin tablets, which she's been given by M, saying:>

E: [gun] " good " .

<She thinks pills are candy. First spontaneous use of "good ". Has been imitated.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<After E hears C start to cry in another room:>

E: Deedee . Deedee .

M: Deedee?

E: [gai] " cry " .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<No word for "ride" has been used since [gi] dropped out.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<As she plays in the tub, she puts a vinyl fish in a bowl, saying:>

E: [gin ... bis] " in ... fish ... in ... fish ".

<Once or twice I've thought [gin] was produced for "in" in the past, not common.

Not clear if this was a 2-word utterance or successive 1- word utterances, the latter most likely.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E wants M's purse, which is on the back shelf of the car, brought up into the front seat where it usually is. She says to C, who is in the back seat:>

E: gigi .

<She hates things out of place, has been fretting.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

E: [didis] " what's this ? " <and> [atu] .

<Both used to elicit names from M, as E points to various objects and people in a picture and waits for M to name them. [didis] has occasionally been used in apparently this way in the past (rare, nonsystematic). Never [atu] , and she's never done it many times in succession. First a series with [atu] , then changed to [didis] .>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E gets a diaper out of a bag, but then sees that M already has one for her.

Returns hers to the bag, saying:>

E: back .

<"Back" continues fairly frequently, but nothing like the heyday it once had.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E pushing and pulling at the center of an open book, testing the page. Says once or twice:>

E: cut . <Pause> scissors .

<Exact intention unclear. She's looking up at M while saying "scissors" >

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<After E knocks or drops something on the floor during dinner, she says:>

E: [dap.h] " drop ".

<First spontaneous use.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E wants M to crack peanuts. Says many separate times:>

E: open .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<Just after M takes a crayon out of E's hand, breaking it in the process. E says:>

E: [b&ik.h] " break ".

<First use, I don't recall imitations.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E looks at a picture of a half-moon in the "Make a bigger puddle" book, and says:>

E: moon .. eak .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E inspects a towel which is pinned along the side of her crib, saying:>

E: [bogin] " broken ".

<One of the pins has torn through the cloth so the towel hangs down in the middle.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E looks at a picture of a boy swinging from bars in the back of a truck; it looks as if he is standing. She says:>

E: [d&n] " stand ". <Second use>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

E: eat .

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) E looks at a picture of pigs eating out of a trough, says this, and then puts her own face down on the page against the trough.
- 2) A few minutes later, she says this again while looking at a picture of "cookie monster" throwing an apple into his mouth.

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E gets in the tub. Patting the bottom of the tub with her hands, which is slightly wet, she says:>

E: wash .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E looks at C's bug collection. Some of the bugs are flies. She says:>

E: buggies . [bais] " flies ".

<She has imitated "flies" once or twice in other situations.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E looks at a picture of a "Sesame Street" detective who is holding a magnifying glass. She says:>

E: light .

<Not full view of the magnifying glass. It probably looks like a lightbulb to E.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

E: [badi] " body ".

<First spontaneous use, in reference to herself. She has only a shirt on. M has been trying to get a diaper on her, has been patting her bottom and calling it "fanny". "Body" has been imitated recently with clear comprehension.>

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E looks at dark crumbs from burnt toast, which M has scraped into a white sink, and says:>

E: [d&n] " sand ".

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E finds one of her bibs on the couch, and says:>

E: [bimp.h] " bib ".

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<E hands a vinyl fish to M, saying:>

E: here fish .

^1;6(10) 8-15-74

<After E tries to put a magnetized letter against the refrigerator on the wrong side, so it doesn't stick, she says:>

E: no .

<Then she turns it around and it works. Then she herself revolves in place, with delight.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<As M gets out baloney for lunch, E says:>

E: [bi&m] " baloney ". <Approximately>

<Second spontaneous use, first not recorded, was several days ago.

Note, again spontaneously on 8-21-74.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E picks up one bead, saying:>

E: [bins] " beads " .

<No others around.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<After M pretends to make E fall as she changes her diaper, E says:>

E: fall .

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<Just in the last day, or today, E has started to say "no X" every time she is asked "is that X?" or "did you X?", etc. Note, as of 8-21-74 this faded out gradually.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E nods her head, saying:>

E: daddy .

M: Is that what daddy does?

E: no daddy .

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E reaches toward F's keys (look like M's) on the shelf, saying several times:>

E: mommy key .

<First possessive combination. Note, as of 8-21-74, no other.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E just after situating herself standing on M's foot, says:>

E: foot .

<Wants M to walk, carry her along. Then she says:>

E: walk .

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E points to a rolling pin someone is holding in a picture, saying:>

E: [ba] " bottle " .

M: Ball? <Etc.>

E: [ba . diNk.h] " bottle . drink " .

<E "disambiguating" -- after "drink", she picks up her own nearby bottle and hands it to M.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E in the bathroom holding a cup she's found on the counter. Wanting water in it, she says:>

E: more cup .

<Holding it toward the faucet, no water now coming out, she says:>

E: more on .

<= "Turn water on". Happy when M fills it.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<At Woags' house, kids are all eating licorice strings. M has been breaking pieces off for E. She has said "piece" several times. Now returns for another, saying:>

E: more piece .

<A few minutes later, Mary modelled "candy" and E repeated it. Now coming back for still another piece, she says:>

E: more candy .

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E, who has been sitting on her kiddicar for a minute, says:>

E: sit .

M: Sit?

E: bike .

<Seems just a comment.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<When E stops to inspect the bottom of her bare foot, something is stuck to it.

She says:>

E: [dik.h] " stick ".

M: Stick? Is something sticking to your foot?

E: yuk .

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E is in the driver's seat of the car, pretending to turn the wheel.

She looks at M, who is outside, and gestures for M to close the car door, saying:>

E: open . <= " close " >

<Happy when M does. Same thing occurred yesterday.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E hands M a pile of toy animals she's been collecting from her bed, saying:>

E: here . walk .

<Wants M to take them ("walk") into the living room where C has a pile of her animals and E has started one. Cf. C's use of "room" to get M or F to move from one place to another.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<E picks up a tiny finger puppet from a bowl and inspects it, saying:>

E: [bogin] " broken ".

<It used to be fastened to something a long time ago, probably before E's time.>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<When M asks "where are daddy's keys", and something else. E says several times today:>

E: [no no:] " don't know ". <First use>

^1;6(11) 8-16-74

<After C said she was going to get a frog, E says:>

E: [baNGks] " frog ".

<She's imitated "frog" before.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<F tells E that he is going to take a shower and is now closing the door to the bathroom, E says:>

E: [as] " wash ".

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E gives a crayon to M, saying:>

E: [iau g&n] " here crayon ".

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E holds out a powder puff to M, which she has just found in a drawer, saying:>

E: face . here face .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E watches a girl gymnast on T.V. and says:>

E: mommy . jump . jump .

M: Jump?

E: mommy .

<Most pictures of ladies are called "mommy". No word yet for "lady".>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

E: more cakes <and> more cake .

<Both of these produced when E was eating pancakes. She still had some, but didn't persist for more.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E sees a tiny red cup on the counter and reaches for it, saying:>

E: more cup .

<There's nothing in it and she doesn't persist. No other cups in the context.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E has had some ice at dinner. She wants F to fix her more, saying:>

E: more ice .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

E: more <and> again .

<Both said at various times when C and E have been playing a game where C grabs E and pulls her down. Whenever C leaves, E shouts one of these in hope of bringing her back to play again.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<As E sits on a chair by the counter, there's a carton of eggs near her, she says:>

E: eggs . [moi &NGks] " more eggs ".

<Exact reference unclear.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<As M rolls up socks, E plays with finished ones, saying:>

E: on sock .

<Meaning is not clear. First combination with "on".>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E in the bathroom. She beckons M to come in too, saying:>

E: [gin] " in ".

<First use of "in" (or "out") like this.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E tries to pick a ball-shaped cookie off of a page of a cook book, saying:>

E: gigi ball .

<She doesn't seem to be serious about it. First combination of "gigi" with other than vocative.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<F reports that E rejected something he offered her, saying:>

E: no . want .

<Then E, pulls a towel toward her, wanting the towel instead of what her M offered, saying:>

E: want . towel .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E struggles to pull a tractor through a narrow space between chairs, saying:>

E: gigi mommy .

<Wants M to help. M is about 5 feet away on the other side of the table.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<Just after taking a flat paper with a picture of a snowflake that came unglued from a puzzle picture, out of a bowl and laying it down flat on the kitchen counter, E says:>

E: night-night .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E picks up a little bowl full of toy odds and ends. She brings it closer to M, then sets it down again on the counter, saying:>

E: sit . toys .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E takes a magazine out of M's lap and sets it on the floor, saying:>

E: sit .

<She has brought a book to M. She doesn't proceed to sit herself.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E has been playing with a phone. Now, going to hang it up, she says several times:>

E: back . <Then:> goy . back . goy . back . goy . back. goy .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E watches a girl on T.V. with snow in her black hair, and says:>

E: dirty .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E is outside the bathroom. When F, who is inside, scratches on the door for E's benefit:>

M: What's daddy doing?

E: bang .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<After E drops one grape on the floor, she says:>

E: drop . [dap ... b&iks] " drop ... grapes " .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E holds a peanut, in its shell, up to M, saying:>

E: open .

<Withdrawing the offer, she puts it between her teeth and cracks it, saying:>

E: teeth .

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E has just woken up at night and discovered that her bottle has fallen out of her crib. She says several times:>

E: drop . [dap.h ba:] " drop bottle ".

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<As F carries E toward the exit doors of a building, E says:>

E: open .

<M, who is in front, is holding the doors open.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E leans toward F's dish of ice cream at dinner, saying:>

E: [a] taste .

<C has asked for tastes 5 minutes earlier. First use.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<As E takes a paper towel from M to wipe the floor, she says:>

E: [ai aip.h] " [ai] wipe ".

<Occurred both yesterday and today.>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E takes a bite of something, saying:>

E: [ai bait.h] " [ai] bite ".

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<M is in the next room. As E eats pancakes, which M has made, she says:>

E: mommy cake .

<Doesn't sound like vocative.

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<E plays with a card with a picture of a catfish on it, saying:>

E: buggie .

<The fish has whiskers which probably look like bug's legs to E. The body of the fish is behind and above its head, (i.e., front view, not sideways).>

^1;6(12) 8-17-74

<As E and M watch C put her boots on, E says:>

E: boot .

M: Boot?

E: Deedee .

^1;6(13) about 8-18-74

<E climbs on a chair, right next to a towel hanging on the stove handle, and says:>

E: gidi towel .

<"gidi" is a "word" I think she's said for some time, but it's not recorded because I don't know its meaning or derivation. I begin as of 8-22-74 to get a sense of it as having to do with E's physical acts of climbing or getting around things.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E puts a doll's garment on top of a toy dog in a box. She says this before lifting the garment up again:>

E: peekaboo .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E hands M additional doll's garments, mostly dresses, perhaps bikini bottoms, saying:>

E: more ! more coat ! more coat .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<M stuffs doll clothes into an empty juice pitcher and pretends to drink.

E now reaches for the pitcher, saying:>

E: [a dAm] " [a] some ".

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E finishes a cup of coke. She takes it to F for a refill from his glass, saying:>

E: [mo gok.h] " more coke ".

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E collects up her vinyl fish. Now, going back in the room to get another, she says:>

E: more .

M: More?

E: (fish) . [moi bis] " more fish ".

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E plays with beads on the kitchen floor, saying:>

E: more beads

<Exact meaning is unclear.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E crying because C has a lollipop and she doesn't. As she cries, she reaches up to touch a bag on the kitchen counter that had held cheese before. M had recently taken the cheese out to make lunch with. She says several times:>

E: [agan dis] " all gone cheese ".

<First 2-word utterance with "all gone".>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<After E finishes coke which F put in her cup, she says:>

E: all gone .

F: Not all gone. <Fills the cup.>

E: all gone .

<Shaking her head.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<M shows E how to take bits of vinyl off vinyl backing and stick them back on:>

M: (Take them off) and stick them on.

E: [an dik.h] " on stick ". <Several times>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E is barefoot, holding one sock of C's. She Goes to sit down on the floor with it as if to put it on, looks at M for help, and says:>

E: [an dagis] " on sockies ".

<Several times. Also:>

E: [an di dagis] .

<As a variant. Same utterance yesterday.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<C picks up E's fish from a toy box and brings them toward E. E says to her several times, as a command:>

E: back !

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E picks up play saucer which has been on the ground in the back yard for some time and is a little dirty, saying:>

E: [bik.h ... dudi] " cup ... dirty ... cup ... dirty ... cup ".

<Intermediate between 1 and 2 word intonation.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E and M working on a jigsaw puzzle. E abandons a piece, and not looking at M, says:>

E: mommy back .

<M then puts it back. Perhaps an instruction.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<M puts long socks on E. E goes to show them, first to C and then to F, saying:>

E: [Deedee ouk] " Deedee look " <and> [d&di ouk] " daddy look ".

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E plays with doll clothes on the couch and has just dropped some.

She says several times:>

E: [dap.h ... gous] " drop ... clothes ".

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E tries to get a piece out of a jigsaw puzzle, saying:>

E: open .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<M closes the door to the cupboard in the bathroom in which the towels are kept. E had had it open before and wants it open again. Fretting, she says two times:>

E: open towel .

<M stuffs vinyl fish into a large plastic 2-piece egg and shuts it up.

E then takes it and tries to pull it apart, saying:>

E: [aubin bis] " open ... fish ... open ... fish ... open ... fish ".

<E and M put doll clothes into a hinged box and close it. E tries to get it open, saying:>

E: [oubin gous] " open clothes ".

<All these "open X" utterances were within 5-10 minutes of each other.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E looks at a box (in a picture) which has cookie on it, and says:>

E: open cookie .

<She's called this "cookie" in the past.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E sees Joey from across the street, and says:>

E: [doi] " hi Joey ".

<Then to his dog, from close up, she says:>

E: hi doggie .

<Both of these as greetings. Joey, a child who lives across the street, had been away for weeks. E had seen him from inside, shortly before. M had said "Joey" and E had imitated the word.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E, looks at M though a new magnifying glass, and says:>

E: hi mommy .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<M has sent C to her room for kicking the spring horse as E was trying to ride it. E says:>

E: [gik.h ... ois , bum] " kick .. horse , kick .. horse , room ".

<M may have modelled "stop kicking the horse", or so, a few minutes earlier.

M did say that if C did it again she'd have to go to her room. First use of "room".>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E gets ready to throw a ball in an exaggerated way, saying:>

E: [gik.h] " kick ".

<"Throw" is out now, "kick" seems to be used instead. Cf. 8-8-74.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<After E drops a bead and it rolls away, she looks for it, saying:>

E: [A] go ?

M: Where'd it go?

E: no know .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E has been observing bugs outside, saying:>

E: buggie .

<After M goes in, she calls M back, saying:>

E: gigi buggie .

<Then she shows M a bug.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E sees water swirling on T.V., and says:>

E: [b&s] " splash " .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E watches M wipe her glasses on E's pyjama top, and says:>

E: [aip.h . dot.h] " wipe . shirt (or suit) " .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<M approaches E with a paper towel to wipe her face and a tray.

E anxiously grabs it out of M's hands, saying:>

E: [ai aip.h] " [ai] wipe " .

<She then wipes the tray herself. [ai] seems to occur only in front of "wipe". Perhaps a variant of "desire" [A] .>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E tries to work a jigsaw puzzle that C brought her, which has many cars and trucks on it. She says several times:>

E: Deedee bike .

<Talking to herself. The meaning unclear.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E handles C's roller skates, saying:>

E: bike .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E looks at and points to a clock on the kitchen wall, saying several times:>

E: B . sky .

<"Sky" apparently refers to its high up location. "B" has been used lately when E sees letters, perhaps numbers.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

E: [agon] " ice-cream ". <Approximately>

<E has said this for some time, at least a month, in connection with seeing cones or dishes of ice-cream, or pictures of them.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E gives something to C, saying:>

E: here Deedee .

<First instance of this particular sentence. (?)>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E picks up a toy boat in the yard, saying:>

E: boat .

<She hasn't seen this for some time or heard it labelled. Yesterday M pointed out boats in pictures and she imitated. First totally spontaneous use.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E tries to give C's skates to C, saying several times:>

E: here Deedee .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<Soon after M gives E a pitcher stuffed with clothes, E says:>

E: 2thank1 1mommy3 . " thank mommy " .

<E not in the same room with M, i.e., she had already gone into the next room. She didn't seem to be addressing M.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E gives some doll clothes to M, saying:>

E: here clothes .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<Just after E carefully climbs up and stands on M's foot:>

M: What are you doing?

E: foot .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E suddenly touches a button on M's bathrobe, saying:>

E: [bints] " buttons " .

<Then moves her finger to another button.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E holds out a toy dog for M, saying:>

E: here mommy .

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<As E goes to get a pamper, she says many times:>

E: dipie baby .

<She then brings it and tries to put it on a doll.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E looks at a picture of one frog, and says:>

E: [baNGks] " frogs " .

<Perhaps the first spontaneous use.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E looks at a picture of a swing set with animals playing on it, and says:>

E: [biNGs] " swings ".

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<Yesterday and today, as E picks up her baby pillow to take out of her crib in the morning, she says:>

E: [biui] " pillow ".

<Approximately. First uses.>

^1;6(13) 8-18-74

<E lies on her back as M wipes her bottom with a towelette, and says:>

E: [b&ndi] " fanny ".

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

E: [aNG gindi] " all cleany ". <Imitated>

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

< Shortly after E tries to hang a sock on a hanger, without success, she says:>

E: [an dak.h] " on sock ".

<Now she does something else.>

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E finishes some raw rice that M had given her during dinner preparation.

She asks for more by saying:>

E: [moi ais , moi mais] " more rice , more rice ".

<First use of "rice". M has modelled "rice". She also says [moi mais] for "more ice".>

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E points to M's teeth, saying:>

E: teeth .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E touches her own ear, saying:>

E: ear .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E inspects her hands, which have food coloring on them, and says:>

E: dirty .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

E: OK .

<E has said this several times lately, spontaneously. Usually after M has suggested doing something, e.g., "let's", etc. It had dropped out for quite a while.>

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<M had put C's pants on the table and they have salt on them now. E picks them up, looks at them, and says:>

E: dirty .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E watches lions walk along a road on T.V. When some more come into view, she says:>

E: more .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E picks up C's shirt and shorts off a little table where M had put them, saying:>

E: [gous !] " clothes ! " .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E has just seen one dog in a pen and another has just come into view around a corner. She says:>

E: more .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E eating hot rice at dinner, says:>

E: rice . hot .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<After E sticks her finger into hot water, she says:>

E: bonk .

<Later, at night, E was awake crying much of the night. She often said "bonk" tearfully, even though there'd been no bonking. Perhaps she hurt somewhere and the word has generalized.>

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E puts a barrette in a box which M has just brought her, saying:>

E: [gin] " in " .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E and C sitting on the couch. Just after M turns on the floor lamp, E says:>

E: on .

C: On. <Repeat sequence several times.>

E: mommy .

C: Mommy turned it on.

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<As she sits feeding herself breakfast, a piece of egg falls between E's legs, she says:>

E: drop . piece .

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E sits on her spring horse and holds the reins down near the horse's mouth where the ends have come off from their tenuous attachment. She says several times:>

E: [1'bogin2 2'ois2] " broken horse ".

<First combination with "broken ". Note as of 8-21-74, there's not been another yet.>

^1;6(14) 8-19-74

<E gives M a pen which has a cap shaped like a tiny hammer, saying:>

E: open bang .

<She's been pulling at it, clearly wants M to take the cap off.>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

E: all gone cake .

<I think this was at some point after E or another finished pancakes off a plate. First combination with "all gone".>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<As E plays with keys and says many times in a low monotone voice:>

E: bobidi key , bobidi key . <Etc.> .

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E looks at the open back door of the car after C, E and M get back from the grocery store, and says:>

E: open man .

<Five minutes earlier, at the store, the grocery boy had opened the door and put the bags in.>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<After E has dropped a bean down through her highchair or onto the floor, she says:>

E: drop . drop ... beans , drop beans , drop beans .

<Only one bean, though she has many on her plate.>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<Just after M gives E some Instant Breakfast powder in a cup, she says:>

E: [dʊt.h] " stir it ".

<C has often said lately "do I have to stir it?", etc., in this situation. First use, may be delayed imitation from C's model. Don't know if there was a model.>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E having a bite of something, says:>

E: [ai] bite .

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E watches a group of young agoutis playing on a branch on T.V., and says:>

E: [bibi ... b&i] " baby ... play <?> ".

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E takes blankets and small animals out of her crib and takes them to the living room. She goes back for another load, saying:>

E: more doggie .

<She calls all the little animals "doggie".>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

E: thank ... mommy .

M: Thanks Deedee.

E: thank open .

<C had recently opened the curtains. E seems to be thanking the wrong person.>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E hands her bottle to M, saying:>

E: here bottle .

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E has been playing with peg bus. She picks a man doll out of a toy tub, saying:>

E: man .

<She tries to fit the doll into a hole in the bus where peg figures can ride and fails:>

M: There's a man. A daddy man. Can he ride?

E: no .

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E takes peg bus off a shelf with both hands, saying:>

E: come .

<Also as she pulls it behind her. First use for objects other than for people.>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E hands a bottle to M, saying:>

E: [ba] " bottle ".

M: Want to put your bottle down? <As M puts it down.>

<After M puts it down, E, on her way out of the kitchen, says:>

E: sit .

<Idea is that the bottle is sitting. "Sit" often means "put down".>

^1;6(15) 8-20-74

<E touches a tube of toothpaste that M has just set on the arm of the couch, saying:>

E: [a:] " up " ... sit .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

E: more cow .

<E in the natural history museum. She has seen many animals, now says this in connection with a moose, a deer, and possibly other. Many times. Plain "cow" also applied to a walrus, mountain goats and a buffalo.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E gives a balloon to C, saying:>

E: balloon Deedee .

<Shortly after, she tries to get either that or another balloon back from C, saying:>

E: balloon baby .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<As E picks up a balloon in the bunk bedroom and carries it to C in the living room, she says many times:>

E: balloon Deedee .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E protests after M closes a drawer into which E has just been stuffing clothes. She goes to the drawer with raised arms, saying:>

E: open clothes .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<In the natural history museum, E wants M to follow her to see a picture of a prehistoric man on the wall. She says many times with clear 2-word intonation:>

E: gigi man .

<Satisfied when M comes and she can point it out. "Gigi + X", can be either a vocative, as in "come daddy", or equivalent to "come and look at X".>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E has just taken scissors away from M. Now puts them up against her bottle, saying:>

E: cut bottle . <Slightly uncertain>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<M trying to cut E's nails but E has taken the scissors away. E keeps pulling them out of M's reach saying:>

E: [ai] cut .

<She then sticks them into her own hair or nails. First combination of [ai] and "cut".>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E and M in the kitchen, E says:>

E: mommy .

M: Um?

E: close . mommy close .

<I forget exact situation; not a clear-cut "closing" one. Reference seemed unclear.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E stands by the kitchen counter. M has put the dinner things on a tray just above her. Each of the following utterances involved E taking something off the tray and moving it to the counter:>

E: [amam] Deedee .

<E took C's cup.>

E: [amam] spoon .

E: [amam] fork .

<Used for fork and spoon respectively. Matter-of-fact tone of voice. Several repetitions.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E gives her bottle to M, saying:>

E: here bottle .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<Just after F gets up and appears in the living room, E shouts to him:>

E: hi daddy !

<He answers probably with "hi Eva" and she then says:>

E: hi baby !

<He repeats, she then looks exuberantly over at C's trike, says:>

E: hi bikey !

<She then goes to the trike. "Bikey" seems to be influenced by "daddy" and "baby".>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

M: Where are my glasses?

E: no know .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<After E stuffs a Snoopy "jack-in-the-box" down into the box and closes the lid, she says:>

E: bye-bye doggie .

<Could be vocative. Somehow the intonation sounded more like a comment, i.e., "doggie went bye-bye".>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E peeks at C, who is watching Sesame Street on T.V., through pass-through shelves, and says:>

E: hi Deedee <and> hi zoom .

<Evidently confuses "zoom" and "street".>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<After E has had some cereal, she says:>

E: daddy .

<M told her daddy was still in bed. E says, while shaking her head:>

E: bite .

<Idea is that F can't have a bite.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<After E has already had some juice, she runs after M to get some more in her bottle, saying:>

E: more .

<10 sec. pause, then:>

E: bottle .

<5 sec. pause, then:>

E: more bottle .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E puts peg people in and out of peg bus, saying:>

E: open . close .

^1;6(16) about 8-21-74

<E brings M two pieces from a potato-head type toy, saying:>

E: mommy . on . mommy . on . mommy . on .

<Continues to say "on" as M gets the toy and sticks the pieces on.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<Just after M adjusts the car seat that E is sitting in, E says:>

E: [biks] " fix ".

<First use since "fix" for the curtains, completely spontaneous.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E in her car seat. The top has come off and is in her way. Fretting, she says:>

E: broken .. break .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E pulls on a vinyl fish that C is holding in her mouth, and says:>

E: fish . baby .

<She is the "baby". Just after she succeeds in getting the fish out of C's mouth, she says:>

E: Deedee .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<After C kicks E, E says:>

E: [gik] " kick " .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E on the kitchen floor. She looks up at glasses of milk and salt on the tray on the counter above, and says:>

E: milk <and> salt .

<Contrast these with "[amam] X" when she took things off the tray.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E sees a spider-monkey in a tree in a museum, and says:>

E: monkey . <Then:> monkeys .

<Her attention seemed to shift slightly, she may have seen a second monkey nearby.>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E sees a stuffed black bear on all 4's in a museum, and says:>

E: horse .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E finds a tiny round snap under a sofa cushion, and says:>

E: piece .

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E goes from one little receiver-like speaker to another in the natural history museum, saying many times:>

E: call .

<She didn't say [goi] .>

^1;6(16) 8-21-74

<E looks up at the inside of the shade of the floor lamp, which has dirty spots on it, and says several times:>

E: dirty , moon . dirty , moon .

<"Moon" pronounced [muN:] . The two words were clearly juxtaposed, then a pause, then again, but without a one-sentence contour.>

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<E picks up child nail scissors and manipulates them. Then says many times:>

E: [g&t.h b&is] " cut face , cut face " .

<She then finally comes over to M and puts them up against M's face. Associates them with tweezers.>

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<E runs toward, C who has put E's sunglasses on. She reaches for them, saying:>

E: [a] baby .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<E upset after C tries to take away a container of peas E has been eating from. She says:>

E: [amam] pea !

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<Just after C takes frozen peas out of E's container, E snatches some for herself, saying:>

E: baby , [a] baby .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<After E throws a balloon out of a box that she'd just climbed into, she says:>

E: pop .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

M: Here's your vitamin pill.

E: OK .

<E then grasps the pill.>

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<C has brought a frog out of the bedroom. E, before going in to get some more, says:>

E: [bank.h] " frog ".

<M models "froggies", and E now says:>

E: [bagi , bagis] " froggie , froggies ".

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

E: gidi .

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) As E climbs over F's legs on the couch.
- 2) As E tries to squeeze behind C in a narrow hall in order to get past.

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<C, is pretending to be asleep on top of a pile of cushions. E says many times:>

E: night-night .

<Then when C doesn't respond, she says repeatedly:>

E: Deedee .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<E playing with a tiny doll:>

M: What is this?

E: doll .

<First use of the word.>

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

E: [d&ns] " dance ".

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) E watching computer-distorted images of xylophones waving around in time to music on T.V., also disembodied hands playing them. First use since once many weeks ago.
- 2) When E starts capering in time to music.

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<E goes to the room that she and C share, after C has been sent there for bad behavior, saying:>

E: [buwm] " room ".

<First spontaneous use, has been delayed imitated once.>

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<C hands a half-eaten banana back to E, who had given it to her, saying:>

C: Eva, I don't want the banana anymore.

<E receives the banana, then comes to the next room and gives it to M, saying:>

E: mommy .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<E on the tricycle. M has had her hands on the handlebars and has been pushing her. E now tries to get M to do it again, by slapping a spot on the handlebars in front of her where M's hands should go, and saying:>

E: go .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<After E blows into a cup of water in the tub and gets a face full of water, she says:>

E: face .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<C has just taken a canister of toys from the bedroom to the living room.

E now picks up another canister and stands holding it:>

M: Where are you going?

E: play .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<E comes up to M, and seeing a package of frozen peas in M's hand, says:>

E: ice . peas .

^1;6(17) 8-22-74

<Several times E has seen M cutting a potatoe and has said:>

E: banana .

<M has then gotten out a real banana for her, and E says:>

E: [aua d&b&] " (want ?) banana ".

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

E: [b&ndi] " funny ". <Imitated>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

E: [m&: n] " mad ". <Imitated>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E has finished her grapefruit pieces at breakfast (which she calls "grapes") and is now asking for a refill, saying:>

E: [moi b&ik(s)] " more grape (s) ".

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<After M gives E a set of doll house stairs, saying "stairs". E, waving a doll near it, says:>

E: up ... stairs .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E plays with baby doll and toy doll stairs:>

M: Is she walking upstairs?

E: up .

E: up . up ... baby .

<"Up ... stairs" is not clearly a 2-word utterance.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E tries to push a toy piece of furniture through the door into her doll house, saying:>

E: [gin dis] " in this ".

<Uncertain, since "this" hasn't been established.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E brings a roll of masking tape to M, wants her to pull a piece off it, saying:>

E: open . tape . open tape . open tape .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<After M starts to move E's little chair away from the kitchen cupboard, E says to her:>

E: [dondidi] " don't Deedee ".

<Never have heard "don't mommy" or "don't" plus anything other than "Deedee".>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E and M in the kids' bedroom; F out of earshot in the living room. M gives a toy snail to E that F had given to her weeks ago:>

M: Snail.

E: snail . <Imitated>

M: Daddy gave it to you. <Or so.>

E: thank , daddy .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<After F gives something to E, E says:>

E: thanks , daddy .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E looks out of the window in a store. On seeing a family pass, she says:>

E: hi baby ... hi mommy ... hi daddy .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<As E plays with the door to M and F's bedroom, she says many times:>

E: open . <= " close " >

<Mostly when she was closing the door from the living room side. She has to pull it toward her to make it close from that side. Also when she wants M to close the car door on her as she sits in the car. Again today, in order to get M to close the door with M inside the bedroom while E was in the living room.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E looks at the picture of rhinoceroses in a cage in "Babar" book, and says:>

E: out . <= " in ">

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E and M on the couch looking through a box of odds and ends.

E holds up a chain toward the desk, looks first at the desk and then at M, saying many times:>

E: back . gigi .

<Wants M to take it there, as she took another item earlier, to the location from where M had gotten the box. First use of "gigi" to direct someone else to go somewhere E was not going, or planning to go. Cf. same shift in C's "room".>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E places a tiny shell carefully on the ground, saying:>

E: sit .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<As E makes a toy bathtub go along the arm of M's chair, she says several times:>

E: [b&s] " bath ".

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E points at M just after M had put a dress on, saying:>

E: [d&s] " dress ".

<First spontaneous use, has been imitated.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

E: knee.

<Produced on two occasions:>

1) Picking up a toy dog that was near her knee.

2) After M puts a piece of tape on C's knee.

<First uses of "knee", no modelling recently.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<After M notes that one of E's crib toys could "sing" and winds it up. Now E hands out each toy as if asking if they could sing, saying:>

E: [1diNG2] " sing ".

<First use. Also, without model, with falling intonation several hours later as E plays with a music box.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<As E takes bibs out of a drawer, she says several times:>

E: [bim] " bib ".

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<As E peers into a doll house which is empty except for a toy dog:>

M: Is anybody at home?

E: all gone .

<Then, as E suddenly sees and reaches for the dog, she says:>

E: <Pause> doggie .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E puts a pen to paper, saying:>

E: draw .

<New. Many times on 8-24-74.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E touches straw, saying:>

E: [da] " straw ".

<First use, has been imitated. Repeated on 8-24-74.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E looks out of the window, to across the street. Joey's trike is visible; she says:>

E: Joey . bike .

<Several more sequences:>

E: 2Joey2 2'bike1 . " Joey bike ".

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E manipulates child coat hangers on which pants suits (that she calls "coat") have come for herself and C. We took the suits off a few minutes earlier. Shortly after, E tries to put pants suit top on the hanger, saying:>

E: on coat .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<Just after C climbs on top of a tall stack of sofa cushions, E watches her, saying:>

E: sky .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E touches a roll of toilet paper, saying:>

E: [boit] " pull it !".

<She then looks expectantly at M, pulls a piece off, and puts it in the toilet.

M has said "don't pull it" lots of times. This is the etymology.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E touches a place on the rug where possibly there was a little water, saying:>

E: place .

<She imitated "place" recently for the first time.>

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E looks at vacuum cleaners in a store window as we are passing, and says:>

E: noise .

^1;6(18) 8-23-74

<E puts M's watch to her ear, saying:>

E: call .

<Shortly before, M had done this to her, telling her to listen, etc. This is a new activity (listening to watches), since the watch has been broken for 8 months.

E called the watch TICK TOCK. "Call" seems to be used in connection with putting things next to the ear, rather than telephone proper.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

E: [bimps] " bibs ". <Imitated>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

E: barrette . <Finding barrette>

E: baby . on barrette .

<Holding barret close to doll's hair.>

M:Do you want it on the baby?

E: on baby .

<Imitated, several times.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E wants M to come to the bookshelf with her to pick out a book, she says:>

E: mommy book .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E on inchworm, has gotten stuck by a book (children's) on the floor under the wheels. Wanting M to fix the situation, she says to her repeatedly:>

E: mommy book .

<Goes on satisfied when M moves the book.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E watches M go out into the patio through the already-open living room doors, and says:>

E: mommy door .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E riding on her spring horse, says softly to herself:>

E: mommy horse .

<M had helped her in difficulty on her horse at another time today.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E has been trying to put a book back between other books on the bookshelf, struggling. Now appealing to M for help, she says:>

E: gigi book .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E walks around carrying a bowl of beads, that she has been unloading on the floor. She says several times, immediately, between a pair of 1-word utterances:>

E: [b&i bins] " play beads ".

<repeated or two-word utterances>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<In a restaurant, E reaches for M's water glass after M had taken some, and says:>

E: [amamam] water "(want ?) water ".

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

E: want .

<This prefix seems to have become strengthened as [amamam] or [&m&m&m] and variants in the last day or two, rather than a short nasal whine.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<After M gives E some cheerios, E says:>

E: thanks , mommy .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E gets down from her little table where she's been having cocoa, and says very softly:>

E: [adan gogo] " all done cocoa " .

<There's some left in her glass.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E plays with a tiny pen which has a hammer-shaped top. When the top comes off, she says:>

E: break .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<As we pass by in a store, E looks at folding chairs on a shelf, high on a wall, and says:>

E: sit . up .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<As E goes into the living room, she closes the door to the bedroom and leaves M in there, saying:>

E: open . bye-bye .

<= " close ">

^1;6(19) about 8-24-74

<E, fretful as M carries her through the rain and the rain falls on E's bare head. She says many times:>

E: bonk .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

E: bike .

<E says this now for almost every wheeled toy, including her toy train cars.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E with something between her teeth, says:>

E: [dak.h] " stuck ".

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E looks at a picture of a toy cat with whiskers that angle up across its face and eyes. She then tries to brush them away, saying:>

E: yukky .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E goes up to a boy in a restaurant, saying repeatedly:>

E: [A] boy .

<This was not like her "want [a]", more like Bloom's "schwa". I think it's been occurring elsewhere too recently.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<After M and F initially applauded her for jumping, E said several times today:>

E: [g&ik.h] " clap ".

<She would say this, then perform, then wait for applause. Not certain if it was modelled first. Later it was modelled, many times, after M and F understood her, but she didn't alter pronunciation.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<As E rides on inchworm, she says several times:>

E: [daNGgi baik.h] " donkey bike ".

<Then again, several hours later, as E plays with a squeaky rubber doll.

Meaning unclear. "Donkey" has never been spontaneous, only imitated once or twice. No clear reference. Note, from the song "sweetly sings the donkey at the break of day".>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E waits quietly for M to take her bib off after eating, and says:>

E: [bim . bimps] " bib . bibs ".

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

M: Where are your fingers?

<E holds up her index finger. Later, when M points to a finger and asks:>

M: What's this?

<E says:>

E: [biNG] " finger ". <Imitated>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<After M shows E her empty cocoa cup, E says:>

E: all gone . that's all .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<Each time, just before E picks up a small toy from a pile on the couch and drops it on the floor, she says several times:>

E: fall .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E brings M her poppy, which has a broken place in its rubber and has just slipped off its yarn, saying:>

E: break .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E sticks a pen in her mouth:>

M: What are you doing?

E: eat .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E plays with a little pen that Joey's mother gave M when we were in their yard the other day, saying:>

E: pen . Joey .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E takes a pen and paper, saying:>

E: draw .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<After E drops a pen as she sits on the couch and it rolls up against her diaper, she says two times:>

E: [A] go <?> . <Then:> dipie .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E touches the top of a ketchup bottle, saying:>

E: all gone .

<It has a trace of ketchup all around the inside.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E picks the top of a bottle of lotion off the counter, saying:>

E: [dap.h] " top ".

<Had imitated "top" earlier in the day for the first time in connection with the top of something else in the kitchen.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

E: cut .

<This was said on at least two separate occasions today, repeatedly, when E wanted something cut. E.g., ice, but did not combine with D.O.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<After M gives E some cheerios in her high chair, E says:>

E: me me me .

<She has imitated this lately in other contexts.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<In connection with trying to put the top back on a pen., E says several times:>

E: [d&i] " stay ".

<M had said "will it stay?", etc., with emphasis. Imitation and delayed imitation. Note, also spontaneous the next day in the same circumstance.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<As M and E look at the picture of a cat on a tractor:>

M: What's he riding on?

E: bike .

<"Tractor" has completely dropped out.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<As M brings E a piece of toast, E says:>

E: [dus] " toast ".

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<After E wakes up in the morning with a wet bed, she says, several times:>

E: place . wet .

<Occurred in chained pairs.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E points in through the open door of the refrigerator to an orange on the bottom shelf, saying:>

E: [m&m&m b&iks] " want grapes ".

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E looks at a picture of a boy wearing a striped shirt, similar to the ones worn by the kids on zoom, and says:>

E: zoom .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E looks at a picture of an elderly lady, and says:>

E: man ... Nanny .

<M probably corrected her to "lady" after her "man".>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E says to an elderly woman in a restaurant:>

E: hi Nanny .

<Also a few nights ago in a similar situation.>

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E looks at bells on chains in a store, and says:>

E: ding .

^1;6(19) 8-24-74

<E summons M to the T.V. to see something by saying:>

E: gigi fish .

<The scene on T.V. consisted of a lot of little cartoon people moving around. It may have looked like fish to her.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

E: [amam] face .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

E: [daip.h] " sharp ". <Imitated>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<While eating an orange section, E has just found a seed in, and is holding it out to M. She says:>

E: [j&gi b&ik.h] " yukky grape ".

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E holds a bird part of a puzzle, but she has probably never seen the puzzle. She says several times:>

E: on birdie . <Meaning unclear>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E carries toys to a former location, saying:>

E: back . back . toys . back . toys . back toys . back toys .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

E: mommy back .

<Produced on several occasions today, e.g.:>

- 1) E bringing something into the bedroom as M works there. She puts it back.
Could be vocative.
- 2) After M and E have been in the play area, M putting blocks back into the container.

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E has just dipped her fingers in something while standing by the sink, then holding out her hand to M, she says:>

E: dirty wipe .

<A tiny break between words. If it had been for example "wipe hand", however, I'd have considered it a 2-word utterance without hesitation.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E runs to the kitchen to get a chair to take to the bedroom, saying several times:>

E: [moi dit.h] " more sit ".

<M has just taken one to C who is eating in there.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

E: [amam(am)] + X " (want ?) + X ".

<Continues frequent, in the sense of "want X ". Note, as of 9-12-74, also still.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E upset because C has taken over cards she was putting back into a box.

She wants to go on putting them back. Says:>

E: [amam] back " (want ?) back ".

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<M adding tag to some statement for E, E responds as if M had asked "what are you?":>

M: XXXXX. <To C.>

M: Are you?. <Turning to E.>

E: baby .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E fingers a chewed broken end of a pen, saying:>

E: dirty .

M: Is it dirty? <Etc.>

E: yukky .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E at lunch, wants some food from M. Says:>

E: gimme .

<One example earlier today too. First uses. Note, no more as of 10-21-74.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E looks at a bug, as it walks on M's hand toward M's arm. She says:>

E: hand . arm . walk .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E is frustrated, because a nude doll is stuck halfway into a mail sorter box and she can't push it through. She says:>

E: body .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

E: [g&ik.h] " clap " .

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) E closing palms over a flat round light-flasher button.
- 2) At dinner at Woags', E tries to initiate applause with this, pointing at each in turn.

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E points to one of two cotton pads which M has brought out, saying:>

E: more .

<M using the other one.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E pushes her bottle with her feet, saying:>

E: kick . kick . bottle .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

E: pen .

<Gives a pen to M.>

M: This one too?

<Reaching for a pencil which E was holding.>

E: no ! baby . baby .

<Pulling it away from M.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E touches M's ring, saying:>

E: [diNG , iNG] " ring ".

<This was spontaneous. For the first time a few days ago.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E puts M's watch up on top of the back of a cushion on the couch, saying:>

E: stand .

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E picks up a tiny spool of thread, saying:>

E: piece .

<She's called bits of thread "piece" in the past.>

^1;6(20) 8-25-74

<E sees gloves on a rack in a store, and says:>

E: hand .

^1;6(21) 8-26-74

<As we leave F at home to go to the grocery store, E says:>

E: bye-bye , daddy .

^1;6(21) 8-26-74

<As M gets out socks for E:>

M: Sockies for Eva.

E: sockies baby .

^1;6(21) 8-26-74

<E runs to M in a grocery store, to tell M what she had just discovered around the corner, saying:>

E: [d&b&] " banana " .

^1;6(21) 8-26-74

E: [daNGgi b&ik] " donkey break <?> " .

<This mysterious phrase occurred again today. E says it several times while playing, no apparent reference.>

^1;6(21) 8-26-74

<E brushes M aside as M tries to push a grocery cart with E, saying:>

E: stop .

<Then, continues to push it herself, saying:>

E: push .

<Sequence occurred several times.>

^1;6(21) 8-26-74

<E in a shopping cart. She is about to climb over from the grocery compartment into the child-carrying compartment, says:>

E: [gin] " in " .

^1;6(21) 8-26-74

<E looks at various pictures of vegetables high up on the walls of a grocery store. Peas, squash, yellow, green. She says many times:>

E: moon

^1;6(22) 8-27-74

E: [an din] " I did ". <Imitated>

^1;6(22) about 8-27-74

<E looks at F in his shorts as he gets ready to get dressed, and says:>

E: dress .

^1;6(23) 8-28-74

<E leaves the couch where C is to put a toy back, saying:>

E: Deedee back . <Vocative>

^1;6(23) 8-28-74

<After E sees a doll drinking a bottle on T.V., she says:>

E: [diNGk ba:] " drink bottle ".

^1;6(23) 8-28-74

<When children call for more raisin bran at breakfast, E says:>

E: [moi b&n] " more bran ". <Imitated>

^1;6(23) 8-28-74

<As E plays with her bike and tries to get M's attention, she says:>

E: mommy bike . <Vocative>

^1;6(23) 8-28-74

<E finds, then plays with a kiddicar, saying:>

E: here bike .

^1;6(23) 8-28-74

<E gets up in the morning and hears rain. She says:>

E: [mein] " rain "

<First use, never imitated, not modelled for several days.>

^1;6(23) 8-28-74

<E comes to M and tries to get her to follow her (E) to C, who is wearing a barrette which E wants, saying:>

E: gigi barrette .

^1;6(24) about 8-29-74

<E looks at a picture on a postcard of several men in a row wearing masks, and says:>

E: man ... mans .

^1;6(25) 8-30-74

<After an absence of 2 days, E comes with C and Sears family to a hospital lobby and finds M. As she plays near M, she says several times:>

E: [mami oum] " mommy home ".

<First has said "daddy home", when Bud comes home at Johnson's.>

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<Just before E drops something on the floor, she says:>

E: drop .

<Then several more times as she picks it up.>

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<E goes to get a diaper, then tries to put it on a doll, saying:>

E: dipie baby ... [amam] baby .

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<In connection with dolls, E says several times:>

E: [daui] " dolly ".

<First used today.>

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<E clambers sideways over a magazine which is open on the couch, saying:>

E: gidi book .

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<E holds her kiddicar and "dancing" around with it, says several times:>

E: dance . bike .

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<E holds two dolls out in front of her and dances around, carefully waving the dolls up and down, saying:>

E: dance . baby .

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<Just after M answers the phone, E looks up at her as she stands talking, and says:>

E: A call mommy .

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

M: Do you want to eat salt?

<E touches one palm with the other, showing where she wants M to put the salt, and says several times:>

E: salt hand .

<Then we go to the kitchen to get it.>

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<E plays with a wallet which has a coin purse attached. The coin purse is shut with pennies inside that E has put in and she wants it open. Struggling, she says:>

E: open moneys .

^1;6(26) 8-31-74

<E puts or watches M put, a watch back onto M's wrist, saying:>

E: back . arm .

END OF FILE EVA04