

CHR12 Christy aged 1;9(9) to 1;9(19)

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<Possibility that initial [a:] or [&N] or so comes from Marc's "I".>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C and M on the bed. C has a washrag over herself. She says:>

C: [ka] " cover " .

<Holds out the towel to M.>

M: Cover who?

C: mommy <s1> ... [ka] mommy <s1> . [ka] mommy <s1> " cover mommy " .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<As C sips M's 7-up:>

M: Do you like it?

C: daddy like .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C, in a confidential way to M, says:>

C: hi man .

<After C has been yelling "hi" and waving at a man in a restaurant. Like "I said hi to a man".>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

C: [fin nait] " swing night " .

<C evidently remembering that Barb and Steve took her swinging in the park last night.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<In a restaurant, C points to another booth where probably a man sat a week or so ago. M tells her the man isn't there anymore but doesn't model this sentence. C says:>

C: man.

<Several times, then:>

C: man all gone .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

C: your blanket . <Imitated>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C watches F come downstairs, and says:>

C: down . my daddy ... down .

F: Yes daddy's coming down. <Or so.>

C: Deedee down too.

<She comes down.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C in a swing in the park. On hearing another child say he wants to get out of his swing, C says:>

C: out too .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<Phonology:>

C: [sif] " save ". <Imitated>

C: [kaki] " chocolate ". <Imitated>

C: [f&dI] " fragile ". <Imitated>

C: [piti] " peaches ". <Imitated>

C: [b&s] " scratch ". <Imitated>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C in the evening, recalling the boy who cut the grass, says:>

C: cut boy <s2> .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After F turns on the T.V. knob but before it really comes on, C says:>

C: [kam wiwi] " come T.V. ".

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After C bumps her buttocks, she says:>

C: bump [A] fanny .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After C bumps her toe, she says:>

C: bump [A] toe .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After C jumps off the wagon and bumps into the toy shelf, she says:>

C: bump [A] toy .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C looks into the backyard after the grass is cut, and says:>

C: grass cut .

<M has told her a boy cut the grass, etc. Not immediately preceding, however.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<As C bites on a Dixie cup, she says:>

C: [A bay A kAp] " A bite A cup ".

<M might have modelled this fifteen minutes earlier on styrofoam cups.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C brings F's shorts up to M as M rolls up F's socks, saying:>

C: roll pants .

<M has modelled "roll up socks", etc., recently.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After jumping off her walker-wagon, C says several times:>

C: more again .

<Then she does it again.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After F coughs and talks hoarsely, C says:>

C: voice <[voys]> all gone .

<Delayed imitation. Modelled about one and a half weeks ago in connection with M.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<M had tried to fix a bottle for C in the car but the nipple stuck. At home in the driveway, M says:>

M: Mommy will fix your bottle, let's go in. <Etc.>

C: bottle car .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<In the morning, C says:>

C: man sick . <and> wow-wow sick .

<Reference unclear. She was talking about this last night after Barb and Steve were baby-sitting.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<While playing with M's eye drops, C mentions F's drops that he took last week, then says:>

C: daddy better .

<Not modelled recently, but perhaps a few weeks ago.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<As F tries to put a blanket on C's doll, she pulls the blanket back, saying:>

C: no no ! my ... blanket .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C holds out toy toilet, which she has been licking Instant Breakfast from.

It's all gone now, and she says:>

C: [aNwaN more bas] " (I want) more breakfast ".

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C points to an open cupboard of books, after M has said it was night-night time, and says NO. She then says:>

C: [aNwaN didi wi:] " (I want) Christy read ".

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C comes around in front of M, whining to be carried, and says:>

C: aNwaN (=I want) mommy carry <[ki]> .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C, pointing to a woman on T.V., says:>

C: that mommy .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C, noting M's glasses frames, says:>

C: [A d& d&s:] " A that glasses ".

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<While C plays with towels, M says:>

M: Are you busy?

C: [bidi] " busy" cup .

<Delayed imitation. She goes to the kitchen to find cups. Several days ago M introduced "busy" in the context "are you busy with the cups?" As C played with them, she imitated:>

C: busy cups .

<Now, she imitates:>

C: busy towel .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C takes F to her car seat that is on the floor, she is disturbed. She says:>

C: [hap] " happen ".

<First spontaneous use.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<As M lifts her from the chair, C says several times:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) down . <Also:>

C: [aNwaN daw tiuw] " (I want) down too ".

<Reference unclear.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<As M picks C's and M's glasses off the floor, C says:>

C: [d&s A han <s3>] " glasses A on ".

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After the dishwasher goes off in cycle. C says:>

C: [A {f/PH}a A haf] " A dishwasher A off ".

<M had modelled "dishwasher" shortly before.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After C gets her socks wet, she says:>

C: sock off .

<As F comes out of his office, C says:>

C: daddy [A hawt] " A out " .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<After C jumps off her wagon and falls on her bottom, she says:>

C: down fanny .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<On the changing table, C wants to go back to the living room. Straining against M, she says several times:>

C: back room .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<While M is folding F's shirts, C hands M a tie, saying:>

C: that too fold .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

C: [A] that [A] open (O-V) .

<Consider M's "do you want that opened?" and equivalent sentences. A model for any O-V sentence. E.g., "do you want the door shut?" or "do you have your eyes closed?">

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C, touching the window that she wants opened, so she can watch grass being cut, says:>

C: [A d&t A habi] " A that A open " .

<C, wanting the window open, says:>

C: [A d&di habi] " A daddy open " .

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<As F puts C in her car seat, she says:>

C: [n&p] " snap" .

<Wanting the snap strap snapped. First spontaneous use.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<C, shutting the bathroom door carefully, says:>

C: [A sEt] " A shut ".

<First observed use.>

^1;9(9) 4-23-72

<As C bites and tears a styrofoam cup, she says:>

C: [bowk] " broke(n) ".

<After C bites on the cup, she holds out a piece, saying:>

C: [see A bowk] " see A broke(n) ".

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<In the morning, C recalling the boy who cut the grass yesterday, says:>

C: boy cut .

<Delayed imitation. This was modelled yesterday.>

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<C and M in the grocery store. At the checkout counter C says repeatedly:>

C: [habi way (+)] .

<M doesn't get it. Five minutes later as we leave:>

C: [way habi] " ride horsie ".

<At another grocery store C often has ridden on a horse as M or F is at the checkout counter.>

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<C, reaching out toward a box of candy she had had a piece from earlier, says:>

C: more candy <[k&ni]> .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<As M cleans M and F's dinner plates off the table, C says:>

C: daddy all done . <and> mommy all done .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<C tries to put her foot into a glass that is moist from Instant Breakfast, saying:>

C: breakfast <[bas]> wet .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<C crying and whining as M puts her in her car seat. Wanting to go for the grass, which was cut yesterday, she says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) cut .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<C taking a tiny container out of the tub, says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) baby wet .

<She has called it "swing" in the past, now perhaps thinks it is a toilet for a doll.>

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<After M puts butter on C's bread, she takes it and looks at it, saying:>

C: that butter .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<C, impatiently stretching out her hand for M to give her something, says:>

C: here .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<As C tries to fit a piece from the camera through pull-handle of the drawer (a loop), she says many times in exasperation:>

C: in . <Then:> toy in <[hin]> .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

<C, struggling in M's arms to stay outdoors as M carries her in, says:>

C: Christy out .

^1;9(10) 4-24-72

F: I think I'll go out. <Etc.>

C: daddy out Deedee out .

<Wanting to go too.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C, touching F's shirt, says:>

C: [was .(v) ... sIt] " wash ... shirt ".

<Earlier, she'd been talking about a spot on it. Not modelled by F, never or rarely, not consciously by M.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C looks at bird(s) in the yard, and says:>

C: birdie [A] in , [A] birdie in .

<Perhaps thinking they will come in the house.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C touches a spot on F's shirt, saying:>

C: wet ? no .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<Phonology:>

C: [pIdi] " piggie ". <Imitated>

C: [gA] " duck ". <Also once>

C: [gAk] . <Both imitated.>

C: [afip] " asleep ". <New pronunciation.>

C: [tan] <or> [tAn] " tongue ". <Imitated>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<Mary H. has told M that you can plant a piece of hedge by cutting a piece and sticking it in the ground. C shortly plucks at the plant and looks at M, saying repeatedly:>

C: mommy cut .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<As C rides on her horse in the next room, she calls M, saying:>

C: come mommy .

<Intonation clearly vocative.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<After C looks at a cat walk on a trellis, she says several times:>

C: see catty .

<The cat is now gone.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<After M tells F she will fix his Instant Breakfast, C says:>

C: Deedee bottle .

<C wants bottle or Instant Breakfast glass too.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<Andrea has a cookie and C, reaching for it, says:>

C: Deedee cookie .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<While looking out into the yard, C probably sees a bird, and says:>

C: hi birdie .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C pointing to a picture of pigs lying in what could be sand, says:>

C: duck [A] sand .

<Never modelled. Ducks which M has just labelled are in the same picture.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C, taking an old brush out of M's new bag, says:>

C: new brush .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C, patting M's Greek bag--one I have not used for months and just got out yesterday, says:>

C: that new .

<Good test of knowing what "new" means.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C looks at a picture of daddy as a baby, and says:>

C: baby daddy , hi baby , hi daddy .

<Constraint on saying "hi baby daddy?">

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<After M brings C in from swinging outdoors. C, struggling and crying, says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) swing more . <and>

C: aNwaN (= I want) swing [A] more .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<After M gives C a bottle, C looks at Andrea, and says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) Hani bottle .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C, running to the window after the cat has left from walking on the trellis, says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) see V catty .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<After M tells C that F is taking out the garbage, C wants to go see daddy. She says:>

C: & see't garbage <[gawi]> .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C points toward tape on the pedals of her tricycle, and says:>

C: that [A tip] " A tape " .

<She'd watched F tape it a week ago.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

C: again <[agin]> . more .

<Both used on separate occasions, after M has pushed C on her tricycle or wagon up to the window and stopped.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<Mary and M are talking about going out. C says:>

C: coat .

<C, patting her own stomach. Then glances at A's sweater lying on the couch and says:>

C: Hani on .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<F has just put a doll sitting up on its bare bottom and it falls over. C, wanting it to sit up again, says:>

C: fanny on .

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<After Andrea comes to visit, C is concerned because A still has her shoes on. She says two times:>

C: [hani siuw A haf] " Andrea shoe A off ".

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C, watching the cat walk on the trellis, says:>

C: down . catty down .

<She may have seen, or anticipated the cat coming down.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C, calling up the stairs to F who has just gone up, says:>

C: down ! coming ... down !

<Imperative tone.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C sitting on her wagon. She repeats impatiently, while looking at the handle until M pushes her:>

C: [pi: d&t] " push that ".

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<C touches the closed eye of doll that is lying down, saying:>

C: [k . waw A hai] " close eye ".

<Note, the pronunciation of "close ". [w] has probably occurred earlier too.>

^1;9(11) 4-25-72

<After M falls on a rug, she says:>

M: What did mommy do? <C says:>

C: fall .

<Not modelled.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<M is showing C wet spots in the yard. C says:>

C: dry .

<M says there are dry places too, C then says many times:>

C: dry see 'em .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C looks at the couch where Andrea's mommy sat yesterday, and says:>

C: P sit ... mommy .

<Confusion between Andrea and P. She hasn't seen P's mommy for some time.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<With reference to Andrea having a bottle yesterday, C says:>

C: Hani bottle .

<Several times, then:>

C: Hani all gone .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

C: no up <s2> .

<= "no, up". Vs. something else, like M putting something down.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<Phonology:>

C: [piyk] " peek " .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C looks out at a wet rainy night, and says:>

C: dry soon .

<Delayed imitation. M has probably modelled this, this morning.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<After M pulls C's pull-dog across the floor, C says:>

C: my wow-wow <s1> .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<After C hears thunder, she runs into the living room, saying:>

C: [si sAnA] " see thunder " .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C, perhaps hearing an airplane while standing at the window, says:>

C: airplane noise . <Then:> birdie noise .

<No obvious bird noises. I don't recall modelling this.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<After one bird has flown into the window and the other bird has flown away, C says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) birdie again .

<Questioning suggests C wants the other bird to come again.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<After hearing thunder a few minutes earlier, C says:>

C: more thunder .

<F had explained some thunder to her.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<After M tells C many other people who are going night-night, C says:>

C: Sissy night-night .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C points to hot French loaves of bread bundled in a towel, and says:>

C: bread [A] hot .

<I think never modelled. Certainly not just now.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C, going into the bathroom while F is taking a shower, says:>

C: hot rainy .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<Pointing to the burner of the stove, C says:>

C: hot 'time " hot sometimes " .

<M has modelled this in the past often, after C says HOT.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C, bringing a big book to where M is, says:>

C: [A h&vi] " A heavy " .

<First spontaneous use.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C points to a big book, and says:>

C: a heavy <[h&vi]> book .

<Probably a delayed imitation from shortly before when she was carrying books around.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C touches her tummy through a gap in her pyjamas, and says:>

C: tummy cold .

<Never modelled.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C touches her feet, which are covered by her pyjamas, and says:>

C: feet warm <s2> .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C, on a wet rainy night, says:>

C: swing dry .

<She has been talking about "dry" a lot this whole rainy day.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<M and Mary Anne are holding drinks with ice in them. C peers into a glass and touches the ice, saying:>

C: too ice .

<Wants some too. Happy when M gives her some "too" in her own glass.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<When the cupboard is opened, C says:>

C: [A bEk] " A book ". <and> aNwaN (= I want) book .

<Then she takes one.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<As M starts to fix coffee in cups for herself and Mary Anne, C says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) Deedee coffee .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<As F pours, C points to M's glass of wine (wine had been forbidden to her shortly before), and says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) that mommy .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C points to a picture of a child on a book, I'm not sure what sex, and says:>

C: [d&t A boy] " that A boy ".

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<After M tells C she's getting a cold in her nose, C says:>

C: nose cold .

<Imitated. Probably "nose has a cold".>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

C: P toy .

<C looking toward her toys.>

M: P's toy's?

C: no .

M: Does P play with your toys?

<C gives no response. Looks toward her toys again.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C looks at her bike, and says:>

C: bike [A] toy .

<I don't think this has been modelled ever, seem quite novel.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C looks at a picture of a man with camels on our wall, and says:>

C: man . [hu] " who ". man . [hu] " who ". <Etc.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<As M takes saucers out of the dishwasher, C says:>

C: [kafi(y)] " coffee" .

<First spontaneous use.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C calling after F, after he goes upstairs, says:>

C: daddy ... come ... down ?

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C, stretching out her arm toward pictures on the table, says:>

C: [giAm Awi] " get'm away ".

<She's been talking about "baby" in the pictures.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<As we talk to Mary Anne about her dog, C says:>

C: door [A] in <[hin]> .

<When we picked Mary Anne up, we went in the front door and the dog was inside.>

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<As C slides off a box, she says:>

C: down . coming ... down . coming ... down .

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C, getting F to open the cupboard for her, says many times:>

C: open . <and> [aNwaN habi d&t] " (I want) open that ".

^1;9(12) 4-26-72

<C, sitting on the counter, says:>

C: cut .

M: What do you want to cut?

C: Deedee cut . <Then, shortly:> aNwaN (= I want) Deedee cut .

<She tries to take both the knife and the cheese that M has used shortly before. Third agent with CUT in a few days. Never modelled.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

M: What do knives do?

C: [dap] " sharp " .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

C: bad boy .

M: Who's a bad boy?

C: Marc bad boy .

<She's heard this probably at Dot's. She has said "bad boy" several times lately.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C has been able to get both feet off the ground, easily, for 2-4 weeks now.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C is sitting on the floor of F's office, looking at cartons or coke bottles that are empty. She says:>

C: coca cola down ? nope . <and>

C: coca cola all gone ? no .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<Phonology:>

C: [pidi] " pillow ". <Imitated>

C: [A pus:] " push ".

<Lip rounded. Also:>

C: [i pis] " push ".

<C to M, as she gets on her bike.>

C: [duws] " juice ".

<Last several days.>

C: [bdibi] " gravy ". <Imitated>

C: [bum] " spoon ".

C: [dawm] " down ".

<Usually it has been [dawn].>

C: [sowdi] " slowly ".

<Imitated, several times.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<Phonology:>

C: [diki]--[viki]--[biki] .

<M models "Vickie" and gets the above. Also C says WOW-WOW. Yesterday she met Mary Ann's dog Vickie.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<Just after F leaves for work, C says:>

C: aNwaN daddy back later .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, bounding on M's stomach, says:>

C: baby turn .

<Gets doll and "bounces" it on M. Novel entirely.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, picking up Marc's bottle at Dot's, says:>

C: Marc bottle .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<As M puts C in the car seat while the grocery boy puts bags in the back of the station wagon, C says:>

C: man carry .

<He'd wheeled them out of the store.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<M and C on the couch. M has hidden a package of gum behind her and C is looking for it. Finally she gets down and looks around on the floor, saying:>

C: gum fall .

<Quite novel.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<M, pointing to a picture of upright woman with her eyes closed in a cigarette add, says:>

M: Who's that? <C says:>

C: [yidi sipi] " lady sleeping " .

<A novel combination.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<F tells M that he and X will do an experiment where they shock people.

F says "shock ". C says:>

C: daddy shock <[sap]> .

<Possibly imitated, then "daddy shock" modelled, and C immediately says:>

C: Deedee chock <s1> .

<M is in the kitchen. C, calling her to come to the table, says two or three times:>

C: mommy coming <s3> .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, patting F's chair after F is gone, says:>

C: daddy sit .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C has been bumping something, says this with delight, and continues:>

C: bump more <s2> .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<After M has tickled C and she has enjoyed it, C says:>

C: [kiti mo] " tickle more " .

<She baits M for a repeat.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C watching F drink milk. The glass is not yet empty, she says:>

C: all gone . <and> drink all gone .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C has been playing night-night. She says repeatedly:>

C: night-night more .

<Context slightly uncertain, but it was appropriate for repetition.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<While pointing at a picture, M says:>

M: Here's a house on fire. <C says:>

C: hot hot fire .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<As M gets C ready to leave, C has all her clothes on except her coat. She goes to look for it, saying:>

C: (new) coat on .

<Coat is not new.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, pointing to knives on the counter, says:>

C: [nai (A) sap] " knife sharp ".

<This has been modelled.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<M says to C:>

M: you're a pickle.

<C says several times:>

C: [pI.#ki tiuw] " pickle too ".

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, draping a blanket over herself, says:>

C: [A ka A b&nk] " A cover A blanket ".

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C gives M the spoon she has stirred her Instant Breakfast with and M starts to put it in the sink. C shouts:>

C: [no , A d&s] " no , A glass ".

<Wants it stuck in empty Instant Breakfast glass.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, putting a pen on top of baby bed, says:>

C: baby pen.

<She has recently put baby in and baby is still there. C, now bringing a book to pile on top of baby bed, says:>

C: book baby.

<In between these, M had modelled "... pen to the baby".>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, not wanting her glasses on, says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) nai nait .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C looks at the toys she has strewn on the couch from her doll bed, and says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) toy [A] back.

<She then helps M to put them back.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<Today, M gave C salt and pepper to put on the table, she did, then forks.

M, then told her to walk slowly, she did, repeatedly saying:>

C: walk slowly .

<She put a fork at M's and F's place. No preceding instructions. Then same for napkins.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C points at a picture of B.C. in a cartoon, and says:>

C: that girl .

<Much talk lately about who is boy and who is girl. Usually she thinks everyone is a boy.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C says many times:>

C: nice . allright (?) .

<Stroking M's arm at intervals. Yesterday too.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

C: more again .

<Both used at separate times after C turns a somersault off the bed and goes to do it again.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

C: hot .

<C then blows on the stove top. 1-2 weeks ago she blew on the oven door.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<After M tells C we will not take the dishes out of the dishwasher, C says:>

C: [A] dish [A] back ... no .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<After M throws a pen aside, C says:>

C: away .

<After C takes a pad from M and tosses it aside she, says:>

C: [A] too away .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C's doll is enclosed in two boxes. C says before and after she takes it out:>

C: [A] baby out .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C playing a game, falling off the arm of the couch into M's arms.

After several times, she says:>

C: fall down more . <Repeats.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C spotting dishes in the dishwasher. She's helped lately putting clean dishes away, says:>

C: dish back .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<Later in the day, M has put a package of gum in the doll's bed, C says this at some appropriate time, e.g., M has put it in a second time:>

C: gum back , [A] gum [A] back .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, trying to pull F's pen away from M, who is writing, says several times:>

C: [tap] " stop ".

<Then repeatedly:>

C: daddy .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C, sitting by coke cartons filled with bottles, tugs on a bottle, and says:>

C: pull . <Then:> Deedee pull .

<First use of "pull" in construction.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

C: close , close that .

<V-O. Can't remember the context, but appropriate.>

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C says in connection with dishes, a possible imitation:>

C: help dish .

^1;9(13) 4-27-72

<C sticks her finger in lipsticks, smears on her lips, and says:>

C: [dip] " lip ".

<First spontaneous use. Not modelled for a long time, weeks.>

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C looking toward the switch for the fan in the bathroom. The fan is off. She says:>

C: fan ... nope [A] on .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

C: coat on .

F: I don't want to put my coat on.

C: mommy coat on .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C recalling that yesterday M had ditched a package of gum. M is now chewing gum and this reminds C. She says:>

C: gum away .

<Several times.>

C: mommy gum .

<Two times.>

C: mommy gum away .

<Context slightly uncertain.>

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<Phonology:>

C: [kaba] " cover " .

<Imitated, two times.>

C: [tiyn] " jeans " . <Imitated>

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<After baby falls off the tricycle, C says:>

C: baby fall . <and> [A] baby fall .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, picking up and spreading a tweezers, says:>

C: [d&t] cut ? " that cut ? ".

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

C: (sit) . [A] baby sit .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<After C has had some gum, she says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) gum 'gain .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, trying to fit small doll into tiny container, which she calls "didu" or "swing", says:>

C: sit didu .

<C, still trying to fit the doll into a container, says:>

C: [A] push didu .

<Possible confusion with "swing", which she often calls the container.>

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, lifts a small book, says:>

C: that heavy .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C playing with doll. She then takes it to the tricycle and sits herself on the tricycle seat, saying several times:>

C: ride too . <and> baby ride too .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, wanting F to run with her, holding her hand some more, says:>

C: again aNwaN (= I want) more .

<He has already done it a few times.>

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C snatches the phone from M. M has just suggested she pretend she was talking to Grandma, then M told her to say "bye" to Grandma and took the phone away. C, now wanting it back to say bye, says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) Grandma bye-bye .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<After C has had some gum, she says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) more gum .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<As M drinks an Instant Breakfast, she says:>

M: Mommy's gonna drink this now. <C says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) Deedee drink .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C points out a goat on a block and calls it a WOW-WOW. M says:>

M: What's the doggie's name? <C says:>

C: Klaus .

<Then, pointing to the picture on the block, she says:>

C: that Klaus ?

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, objecting as M presses down the button on the phone while C holds the receiver, says:>

C: [downt . n] " don't " .

<First sure use.>

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C puts her doll on the tricycle and it drops off. She says:>

C: [A] fall .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, slightly lifts the big book, saying:>

C: heavy .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<Marc calls socks "sockies" and always has. This could account for C's:>

C: [saki] " sockie " .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, tipping a chair on the patio, says:>

C: tip .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, standing in a container on the changing table. She tips it backward slightly several times, then says several times:>

C: again <and> tip .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C, stretching up to turn the light off, says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) that off .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<As M puts C's sock on:>

M: What's mommy doing?

C: socky on .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C looks at boots, which we had taken off three hours earlier when coming into the house, and says:>

C: off [A] Deedee boot <s3> .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C and M on Johnson's porch swing. C looks down into the yard at Marc's bike, and says:>

C: Marc bike down down .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

C: coat on .

F: I don't want to put my coat on.

C: mommy coat on <s1> .

^1;9(14) 4-28-72

<C points to a ceiling fixture after M turns a light off, and says:>

C: [A] on light .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

C: meat [A] all gone , night ?

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C putting her hand in a bowl:>

M: Mommy had cereal in there.

C: cereal all gone .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C hears a bird outside her room, the slots on the window are shut, and says:>

C: that birdie . <and> [A] see birdie ... nope .

<C hears the sound of hammering:>

M: That's someone hammering.

C: see hammer(ing) ... nope .

<These 2 sequences within a few minutes of each other.>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<After M reminds C of ice that she ate in a restaurant last night, C now wants ice. M tells her it was at the restaurant, all gone, and C says:>

C: ice [A] home .

<Good example of productivity.>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<As C goes down the stairs of F's office, M at the bottom. F doesn't come, and C says:>

C: daddy down nope .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<M has told C earlier that Barb and Steve are coming to baby sit. M said:>

M: Who's going to put you to bed? <C said:>

C: Barbie .

M: What's Barbie going to do?

C: laundry <[yani]> ... soap ... Deedee soap .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<As M takes the meat dish out of the oven, the butter is out in the kitchen but is not intended for the meat. C, having seen M butter the vegetables often says:>

C: butter meat .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

F: Do you want to come? <Reference to taking out the garbage.>

C: [A] Deedee come .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C goes to the side door:>

M: Where did you go?

C: [A duk A pi(y)] " A look A P ".

<Yesterday C saw P in her backyard.>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C tells M to take the doll out of bed with her. Then, C says:>

C: [A] bear too.

<So M picks up the bear.>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<M tells C that Barb and Steve are coming to baby sit tonight. 1/2-1 hour later, C says:>

C: Barbie later ... Barbie later too ... Stevie later too .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

M: Bill, do you want a peanut butter sandwich?

C: mommy butter too .

M: <Expansion.>

C: Deedee butter too .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<Phonology:>

C: [sidi] " silly ". <Imitated>

C: [bdami fini] " drumming fingers ". <Imitated>

C: [mi g&s:] " smell gas ". <Imitated>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C looks at wet outside in the rain, and says:>

C: dry soon .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<M, lying on the couch with her eyes closed. C comes to push her up, saying:>

C: [didi sip] " later sleep ".

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

M: You're gonna play with P this afternoon. <Or so.>

C: P later .

<Not modelled as such just now--perhaps in the past.>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<After M tells C that P is having a nap, C says:>

C: P uplater .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C playing with the hairdryer, holds the tube up to her hair and is upset because she can't turn it on because M has unplugged it. Frustrated, she says:>

C: that hair .

<Many times.>

C: aNwaN (I want) that hair .

C: Deedee hair .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C makes loud roaring noises, and then she says:>

C: Sissy (roar) .

M: Does Sissy say (roar)?

C: Marc (roar) .

M: Does Marc say XX. <Etc.>

C: Deedee (roar) .

M: XX. <Etc.>

C: Hani (roar) .

<Marc and Sissy may have roared, but not Andrea.>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C is in the bedroom with M. After Barbie and Steve come, she tries to open the door to go into the living room where they are, saying:>

C: see Barbie .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C, holding up a dirty spoon of which she'd been saying:>

C: wash . <Then:> [A d& A fa ?] " A that A wash ? " .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<After C is allowed a fingerful of sugar from the bowl, she says many times:>

C: [A y&k sidi] " A like sugar " .

<Probably modelled yesterday, "do you like sugar?">

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

C: daddy more ... sleep more .

<Probably delayed imitation of "daddy wants to sleep some more".>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C playing at "falling off" her walker wagon. Her feet are bare. They hit the ground along with her bottom, and she says:>

C: fall down feet .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C hears F fixing a coke, and says:>

C: ice .

M: Daddy's fixing a coke. <Or so.>

C: daddy coka . <Imitated, and:> Deedee coka .

M: No. <Etc.>

C: daddy coka too .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<After C sees two birds fly by and vanish, she says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) more birdie .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<M washed C's hair and her own earlier. M and C talking about how we need water to wash hair. C, touching M's hair, says:>

C: mommy water .

<Not modelled. Then, she gets down from M's lap and prepares to run away, saying:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) more water .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<C points into one part of a dish, which is empty, and says:>

C: that [A] all gone .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

M: It's raining again, look in the pool.

C: rain [A] pool . <Imitated>

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<M and C at the table. When F gets up and then returns to the table, C says:>

C: daddy down table .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<When the mailman comes to the front door, C says two or three times:>

C: mailman in .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<After F slams the bedroom door, C says:>

C: [A s&m] " A slam ".

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<As M lifts C onto the counter, C says:>

C: feet hurt .

^1;9(15) 4-29-72

<M says to F, who was looking for the camera:>

M: Did you find it? <C sees F holding the camera and says:>

C: daddy [A] find . <and> daddy [A] [k&m&n] " camera " .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<A routine before bed:>

M: Do you know what I think?

C: night-night . <Then:> no , up .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<Phonology:>

C: [kadi] " collar " . <Imitated>

C: [yayti] " lightning " . <Imitated>

C: [p&mi] " scrambling " . <Imitated>

C: [hafi] " horsie " . <Imitated, 2-3 times.>

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<After a spontaneous monologue about "rainy" and "dry soon", C says:>

C: swing dry soon .

<These both have been modelled by M in recent days, but not this utterance. It is rainy and wet today.>

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C dragging boxes together, sits down as if at the table, and says:>

C: eat [didi A hit] " Christy A eat " .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<M is in bed. C, wanting her to get up, says several times:>

C: come mommy <s1> .

<A few minutes later on the changing table, she says:>

C: daddy come .

<She had told F to get up also, but he hadn't appeared.>

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C in the bathroom. She hears thunder and steps out of the door, saying:>

C: see thunder .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<Yesterday and today, C comes to the sink as M cleans, saying:>

C: [A] wash [A] hand . <and> [A] wash hand .

<Has been modelled many times, but not here at the sink.>

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<M has been swinging C in a box, showing F. When she sets her down, C looks at F, and wanting him to swing her now, she says:>

C: [A] more daddy <s3> .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<After F turns the shower off, C says:>

C: daddy all done .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C looking at the bedroom window. Night of tornado watch. She says:>

C: that curtain <[k&n]> wet .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<M telling C that M and Barbie are going out soon. C says:>

C: no .

<She doesn't want Barbie. Then, soon:>

C: daddy bye-bye ... no .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C, resisting going to bed, goes to her toys. Then, she calls after daddy who is about to go upstairs, saying:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) toy . <and> daddy [A] toy .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C has been running after F had told her to run fast. Now, she comes to F and says:>

C: fast daddy fast .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<F has been running with C. He says "last time", etc., and C says several times:>

C: mommy .

<Then takes M's hand and says:>

C: mommy run . fast .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C, wanting to find the glasses case she often puts coins into, says:>

C: [pak] " pocket " . <Probably>

<M says "this?" as she hands her the glasses case, Then C says several times:>

C: [dIs (A) pak] " this (A) pocket " .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C sees an airplane on T.V., and names it. Then, a dog going past the airplane, and names it. Then, she says several times:>

C: [A] wow-wow [A] [hibi <s1>] " airplane ".

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C tries to get a packet of oatmeal out of a box, but it is stuck above her shoulder level, on the shelf. She says:>

C: heavy .

<Suggests "effort" is her definition for "heavy".>

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<M says to C:>

M: Let's go take daddy's Instant Breakfast to him. <Or so.>

<C, stretching out her arms for F's Instant Breakfast, says several times:>

C: [a: ki:] " a carry ".

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C, stretching her arm up toward the light, waiting for M to turn it off, says:>

C: [aNwaN d&(t) A haf] " (I want) that A off ".

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<Just after F brings C's kiddicar inside, after he had been carrying her outside, C says:>

C: [ki sai] " carry {in or out} side ".

<She has been out with him, but is now coming to M and urging her to go out with her.>

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<Steve and Barb are about to leave after baby-sitting. Barb is holding a pile of laundry. C says:>

C: Barbie laundry bye-bye . <and> laundry out .

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C says to F, who is holding a tie:>

C: [A han A tai] " A on A tie ". <and> [A han tai] " A on tie ".

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

C: [A han ti:p] " A on tape ".

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<As C empties blocks out of a plastic container, she says:>

C: [fa A hawt] " fall A out ".

<First spontaneous use.>

^1;9(16) 4-30-72

<C pushes on the plain bottom of a plastic cup (vibrator), then squeezes hard with no success. She says:>

C: push <and> heavy .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<M is on the phone to Dot. C, running up to talk too, says:>

C: hi Dot .

<But this not said directly to Dot, this before. Doesn't sound like a vocative. More like "hi to Dot".>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C, taking a medium-sized can of apricots from the cupboard, says:>

C: heavy .

<C immediately taking a small light can of plant food from the same area.

Says:>

C: heavy too ... no .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C, on the changing table, says:>

C: P sick more no(pe) ... better .

<No trigger, no mention of P today. Haven't seen her in the last couple of days. She was sick 2-3 weeks ago.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<While in a semi-prone position on the changing table, C says:>

C: nai nai .

M: What's going night-night?

C: night-night Deedee .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<Phonology:>

C: [fu:d] " food ".

<Imitated. (Exaggerated pronunciation).>

C: [tawd] " tower ". <Imitated>

C: [dav] " Dove " <also:> [dab] " Dove ".

<Imitated, several times.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C puts food in her mouth, then removes it into another dish by hand.

She says this and repeats:>

C: again .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After M tells C that M is going to a party, and that daddy and C are to stay home, C says:>

C: daddy party soon .

<Meaning unclear.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<With reference to the party M is about to go to, C says:>

C: mommy home soon .

<Barbie and Stevie perhaps modelled this last night and C repeated it and "daddy home soon" often.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After C drops something on her foot, she says:>

C: Deedee toe .

<That body part hasn't been named for some time.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C points to "touch me" book with a dog on the cover, and says:>

C: that [A] wow-wow .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C looks at a moth on the window after having asked for a name, and says:>

C: that [A] moth <[maws]> .

<"Moth" is imitated.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C in the kitchen, goes to her bedroom and looks on the changing table for diapers, saying:>

C: more diaper <[d&pi]> .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After scratching and naming sand in the "touch me" book, C says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) Deedee sand yes .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After F says he's going to shock subjects, C immediately says:>

C: Deedee shock <[sap]> .

<She did the same yesterday but not a substitution today.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C looks at Marc after he coughs, and says:>

C: Marc cough .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C, stroking the fur on a dog on a book's cover, says:>

C: wow-wow nice .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After C puts her doll in M's purse, she says:>

C: baby asleep .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C, doing something in connection with F's pocket, says:>

C: Deedee pock(et) <[poak]> .

M: Does Deedee have a pocket?

C: daddy [A] pock .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After M gets out a broom and sweeps, C says:>

C: [fiyp] " sweep " .

<Not modelled recently.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<When C gets temporarily slightly wedged in a chair, she says:>

C: [gad.A] " stuck ".

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

C: don't .

<Many uses lately e.g., when M fiddled with her hair, or when F and C were playing with coins and he did something she didn't like.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C, taking a bubble-blower out of a bottle, says:>

C: two .

<Already holding one.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After lugging the kiddicar across the room, C says:>

C: heavy .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C looking at a block with a front-back person on it, and says:>

C: [A] hat on <s3> . <and> shirt [A] on .

<Man wearing both these things.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C says the following, not too frequently lately, though they occur occasionally:>

C: X in <and> X wet .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C watches Sissy take her shirt off, and says:>

C: shirt off .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C watches Sissy take her pants off, and says:>

C: pant off .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C looks at a picture of a baby with a sailor blouse on, and says:>

C: coat on .

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C looks at the backside of her blocks with people's fronts on one side and their backs on the other, and says:>

C: [A] man [A] back .

<Not modelled.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After M drops an egg in the sink or something that makes a loud noise, C says:>

C: pop .

<First totally spontaneous use. In connection with balloons before.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<Shortly after M clips C's nails, C looks at her nails, and says:>

C: [A] cut . [A] nail <[n&]> [A] cut . [A] nail <[n&]> [A] cut .

<M probably modelled "let me cut your nails", or so. Not in this order.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<After the "tree man" comes to the door and discusses taking out an elm tree, C says:>

C: cut <and> man cut .

<Not modelled.>

^1;9(17) 5-1-72

<C, requesting her bottle as she sits at the lunch table, says:>

C: have [A] bottle .

<"Have" just coming in.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<C, going out the front door, rejects daddy's offer to help, saying:>

C: do X by yourself.

<Much modelled in the last 1/2 hour. First observed use.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<Phonology:>

C: [hafi] " horsie ".

<Spontaneous, several times.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<C in her room just before bed time, says:>

C: horsie later . <Then:> aNwaN (= I want) Deedee ride later .

<She had ridden a horse at the grocery store and afterwards said "horsie later".>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<After "aNwaN Deedee ride later", C says:>

C: in later .

<Reference unclear.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<M and F with C, all on her bed in her room at night, C says:>

C: daddy write (or ride) ... no .

<Reference unclear.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

M:would that suit. <Or so.>

C: Deedee suit <s1> .

<Note, this is a substitution technique by which she puts her own name before any verb (word?) even when the meaning is unknown to her.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<C looks down at her fingers curled around an egg beater whip, and says:>

C: [fini hawt] " finger hold ".

<First such pattern with "hold".>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<C playing with her new phonograph, putting records on and off. F says:>

F: It's time for bed. <C says this while reaching for a record:>

C: [ad& (?) w&k] " (an)other record."

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

C: bigger .

<Use of "bigger" lately, in the sense of "too big", also covers when something is too small.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<C points to the tip of a pointed wing of a bird on the "Mother Goose" book cover, and says:>

C: sharp .

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

C: in later .

<After "aNwaN Deedee ride later ". Reference unclear.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<As we stop the car in our driveway, C says:>

C: Deedee out .

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<After M cracks an egg on the sink, C says:>

C: egg broke .

<M hasn't modelled.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<Each time after removing the handle from the kiddicar, C says:>

C: broke again .

<M probably modelled in the beginning.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

C: <Comprehension:> pop , again

<Both yesterday and today C popped balloons with no fear. She knows "pop" and had it explained to her that balloons would pop. First time that she said "again" after.>

^1;9(18) 5-2-72

<C leans over the back seat in the car and reaches for toys in a box.

She says both of these several times:>

C: [dimi] <and> [bimi] " give me toy " .

<"Give me" has been coming on for the last few days in imitation, and perhaps spontaneously.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As C plays with phonograph records:>

M: I want to hear some music.

C: no . daddy <s1> ... ear ... music <[mik]> .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, lying on the floor of the living room, says:>

C: money night-night .

M: Where's the money going night-night?

C: floor .

<Patting the floor. She's been playing in the bedroom with money on the floor. Not today. No money present here.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C fingering a sliced place in the rug. M has never showed this to her.

She says:>

C: cut ... rug .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<M mixing C's Instant Breakfast:>

M: Instant Breakfast for Deedee.

C: coka daddy .

<Said two times while looking at F's glass full of ice and the coke bottle on the counter. F has been fixing them.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As M gets C out of the car, M says something like:>

M: Let's take this book in. C, reaching for beads, says:>

C: bead [A] in .

<C, reaching for another set of beads on the floor of the car, says:>

C: bead [A] in too .

<Idea is apparently "these beads in too".>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<Phonology:>

C: [ninV] " needle ". <Imitated>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As we drive past the park with children playing on swings, etc., C says:>

C: swing later .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

C: aNwaN (= I want) nai nai ... more .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<After C puts all the records in the slot, she says with a little hand gesture:>

C: [V sa] " 's all " .

<Frequent lately.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C playing night-night on the counter. She resists M's efforts to sit her up and tries to lie again, saying:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) nai nai ... more .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As C sits on the counter, whining for milk, she says to M:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) bottle more .

<Has not had any just recently.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C at the table seat, eating the last of the ice pieces. She says to M, who has got it for her:>

C: more [A] ice .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, in her bed at night, says several times:>

C: aNwan (= I want) bottle . <Also:>

C: mommy aNwaN <s1,3> (= I want) [ba] " bottle ".

<First use of a word before "aNwaN".>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, on the counter reaching for some food, says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) Deedee some .

<First use of "some", no model in the context.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C looks into M's empty Instant Breakfast glass, and says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) Deedee drink .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<After finding a penny, C holds it in a stream of water in the bathroom sink, and says:>

C: aNwaN (= I want) money [A] water .

<After C drops the penny into a puddle of water in the bottom of the sink, she says:>

C: money [A] water .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C says at two separate times today:>

C: [baba A nait] " bubble A night ".

<Meaning unclear. Last night F blew bubbles for her, but she rejected that interpretation.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<F says to M as a request "Instant Breakfast!", then C says:>

C: daddy breakfast <[bas]> ?

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C points to a piece of ice in her dish after M and C have been searching for ice on the floor, and says:>

C: there ice .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<With reference to a phone conversation, F says to M:>

F: how long ago? <Or so.>

M: About a week and a half.

<C says several times while patting herself:>

C: Deedee <s1> half <[h&f]> .

<Substitution frame.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C looking at the bottle she found on M's bed. After M sets it on the headboard, C says:>

C: baby [bink] " drink " .

<Reference not too clear.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, pointing out first one seat of her new sandbox in the house, then the other, in alternation. She says several times:>

C: mommy sit here .

<M had sat on one yesterday. Not clear if this is a recollection, or, more likely, to get M to come and sit again.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, first thing in the morning, while still in her crib, says:>

C: daddy work ?

<M had often told her "daddy's at work" at this time.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<While C plays with her records on her lap and legs, she fumbles them and keeps dropping them, saying:>

C: knee .

C: lap .

C: fall down [A] lap .

C: fall down [A] knee .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<After finding an extra blanket in her bed, C gets up holding it plus the orange one, and says:>

C: two blanket .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C pointing to an old bottle of milk on the living room floor. A few minutes earlier she had tried to drink from another in her bedroom and M told her no, it was old. She says:>

C: old too .

<She has imitated "old" before. "Comment" tone.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, resisting help from M as she climbs out of opened crib, says:>

C: Deedee self <[s&f]> .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C sees Sissy chew gum, and says:>

C: Sissy gum .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C focusing on her ears:>

M: Who else has ears?

C: Sissy ear <[hi]> .

<When M asks "who", C always responds "Sissy".>

M: Who else ... <Etc.> <Expanding.>

C: baby ear , Marc ear , Hani ear .

M: Does Klaus have ears?

C: [p&np&n ti ?] " Grandma (pa) tail ? " .

<Not modelled. Long ago, M asked C "does Christy have a tail?">

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, picking up another record as she plays with the phonograph, says:>

C: [ad&] " other " .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C brings to M and emery board. M asks "what shall I do with this?"

C scratches her finger on a pillow in demonstration.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<F reports that C tried to lift a soap bubble bottle up while F held it down, saying:>

C: heavy .

<Physiological effort involved is evidently the cue.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, "stabbing" her palm with a nipple in a ring, says:>

C: sharp .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As M gets C out of the car, M says something like "let's take this book in ".

C then says while reaching for beads:>

C: [bi A hin] " bead A in ".

<C, reaching for another set of beads on the floor of the car, says:>

C: bead [A] in too .

<Idea is apparently "these beads in too".>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As M gets ready to take C out she spontaneously goes for her coat, saying:>

C: coat on .

<As M is about to put C's coat on her, she says:>

C: mommy coat on .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C after falling, on purpose, on her stomach in the sand box, says:>

C: fall down . tummy .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C, climbing out of the empty sandbox in the living room, says:>

C: [A hawt gin] " A out again ".

<She has been in and out all morning.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<After putting all the records in her phonograph slot, then dumping them out for the nth time, C says:>

C: out again .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As C puts records into the phonograph, she says several times:>

C: out [A] [miyt] .

<Meaning unclear.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<While F bounces a ball, M asks:>

M: What's daddy doing? <C says:>

C: bounce .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<After C drops a piece of ice, she says:>

C: [bdap A hays] " drop A ice ".

<M could have modelled shortly before.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<C is lying down on two blankets on the floor. Wanting M to cover her, as we have often done in the past, she says:>

C: [kab&] " cover ".

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<As C tries to climb on M's back as M kneels, she says:>

C: [dimi A wai] " give-me A ride ".

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<Just before taking a record off the toy phonograph and replacing it, C says:>

C: [h& niuw] " have new ". <and> [h& A niuw] " have A new " ... record .

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<When M gets the ice that C has requested out of the refrigerator but hasn't given it yet, C says:>

C: [dimi] " give-me ".

^1;9(19) 5-3-72

<After C drops a piece of ice, while eating it, she says:>

C: ice . <Etc.>

M: Where is it?

C: get .

<Several times. Then climbs off the chair to find it.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72??

<M and C blowing bubbles:>

M: Pop pop pop"

C: aNwaN (= I want) bubble pop pop .

<No immediate model but probably slightly earlier.>

^1;9(19) 5-3-72??

<As C plays with phonograph records:>

M: I want to hear some music.

C: no , daddy <s1> ... ear ... music <[mik]> .

END OF FILE CHR12