

EVA06 Eva aged 1;7(12) to 1;7(25)

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E leafs through a book with pictures of animals, and says:>

E: doggie , doggie . [dagi bain] " doggie, doggie . doggie find ".

<The book doesn't have a picture of a dog.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E gets off the couch that she's been sitting on with M and wags a finger at her, saying:>

E: right back .

<Then starts off to the kids room where C is still asleep.

Probably from M's frequent "I'll be right back ". First use.

Note 9-23-74: This has been very frequent. Some general meaning>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

E: [d&k.h , &k.h] " neck ". <Imitated>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E playing with sticky paper label that came from a new shirt.

She's sticks it onto different clothes, saying:>

E: patch .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at a pile of large stiff cardboard cards with nursery rhymes on them, and says:>

E: cards .

<I think never modelled in this connection.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E points to a picture of Bert, saying:> E: Ernie .

<She's said this in connection with Bert puppet and T.V. Bert before.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E runs to the kids room after M and E hear C wake up in the morning, saying:>

E: goody goody .

<She has said this other times within 1-2 weeks usually while running to the room in connection with games with C.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<As E picks up cheerios, off the floor, which she has spilled. She returns them to a cup she had them in, saying:>

E: come . cheerios . back . back . back .

<Satisfied when M starts to help.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<After E accidentally hit a juice cup with her foot and it spilled from the highchair to the floor, she says:>

E: juice . spill .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<As E plays with a sticky paper label:>

F: Can you put it on daddy's leg?

E: no . arm !

<Then sticks it on F's arm.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<With reference to a picture of a worm:>

M: What's this?

E: snake .

<First generalization of this to "snake" other than those on a mural from which E learned the word.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<After M talks about "neck" and asks E where hers was.

E touches her own, then M's and then says:>

E: [&k.h . didi] " neck Deedee ".

<C still in bed.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E, looking at a picture with several monkeys, says:>

E: monkeys .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

E: tiny .

<E answered this in response to separate pictures, one a page of giraffes, one a page of monkeys. E was touching an animal that was small in relation to the others. "Tiny" meant "to be further away".>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E, looking at pictures of giraffes, says:>

E: [d&f] (?[PH]) " giraffe ".

<She also said this appropriately a few days ago. Giraffes used to be "cow".>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E touches the mouth in a picture of a Sesame Street muppet, saying:>

E: [w&_s] " mouth ". <First use>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E turns a cardboard disc on a Sesame Street book, saying:>

E: [mauni] " round ".

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at a snap on M's clothes, and says:>

E: tick tock .

<Apparently, to her, it resembles a clock.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at a picture of two bears, and says:>

E: beary .

<Before she learned "barey", "bear" was just "bear".

Evidently some confusion.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E scratches at a glossy picture of cows in a field, saying:>

E: in . go ?

<Apparently trying to find the 3-D cows under the surface of the picture. "Go" doesn't have rising intonation, but used in the same bewildered head-shaking ay that E uses when she's just mis-located a toy, etc.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

E: coldy .

<This continues to be said not for cold temperatures, but for situations in which E seems nervous and comes up wanting to be held. She has characteristic gesture of holding elbows bent close to her sides and hunching over. Probably derived from M's "are you coldy?", etc., after taking E out of the bath and wrapping her in a towel and cuddling. E uses it sometimes after loud noises.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at singing muppets on T.V., and says:>

E: froggies . [biNG] " big ! " .

<They are not strikingly large.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E, holding a doll upside down in the tub, says:>

E: cake .

<About 1-2 weeks ago, E imitated "cake" several times when M said "are you upside down cake?", as E looked between her legs.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

E: [gibai] " goodbye ".

<In the last few days this has been coming in as an alternate to "bye- bye" particularly when another person says it first.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at a picture of chicks, and says:>

E: baby birdie .

<First use of "baby" as attribute. M has shortly before commented on "baby kangaroo".>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at a picture of a bathtub full of little yellow birds that somewhat resemble miniature "big birds", and says:>

E: [ba ba] " big bird ". baby big bird .

<Second combination with attributive "baby". Occurred soon after the sentence "baby bird".>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E, holding a doll in her hand as M takes her pyjama top off. When the sleeve gets caught on the doll, E says:>

E: dolly stuck .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E, handing M a sock, says:>

E: here , mommy , sock .

<First combination of "here" with recipient and object.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<As E touching a tape dispenser, after C has just before been having M give her pieces to stick on a paper "chicken", E says:>

E: more stick ... on ... [b&i dambi] " play tummy ".

<Happy when M sticks tape on her tummy. We've done this before with tape.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<As C shows F her new clothes. E standing beside C, says:>

E: Deedee shirt . pants .

<Both shirt and pants are both new.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at a pile of teddy bears on the floor as she gets up in the morning, and says:>

E: [b&ibis doPH] " babies stuff ".

<They are actually C's but E sometimes has had them in her crib.

Second use of "stuff". Seems to refer to her crib possessions.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<Right after "babies stuff", E sees C's tiger on the floor beside the pile of teddy bears, and says:>

E: tiger Deedee .

<Yesterday it was emphasized to her that the tiger was not hers but C's.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<After E finishes a cake that Mary H. has given her, she says to M:>

E: mommy , more .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<As M, C and E stand on the porch just after F leaves for work. F now out of sight, but C has commented on watching him go. E says:>

E: daddy time .

M: Daddy time?

E: go .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E squeezes behind M to climb up into the chair that M is standing beside, saying:>

E: gidi , mommy .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<After E inadvertently walks on a paper chicken that C has made. She picks it up and returns it to the coffee table, saying:>

E: I sorry , Deedee . bang . up .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E coming up to M as M opens the curtain. As she tries to do it too, she says:>

E: [ai duit.h] " I do it " .

<Note, as of 9-23-74 this has become a daily occurrence.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<After E tries for a while to return a tangled pile of ribbons to a paper bag, she now gives the bag to M and stops trying, saying:>

E: I can't .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<After both F and C have gotten up in the morning, E says:>

E: daddy wake ... Deedee wake .

<M and E were up first alone.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<In the morning when only M and E are up. M tells E to be quiet because Deedee is going night-night. E says:>

E: daddy quiet .

<We've also (separately) discussed that F is going night-night, but M didn't use quiet in connection with "daddy".>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E turns off the intercom box, and now studies it, saying:>

: [an gin] " on again ".

<Satisfied when M turns it on.>

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E gives M a capped pen. Wanting the cap off so she can use it, E says:>

E: open . pen .

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<As E tries to unsnap M's nightgown, she says:>

E: [oumbin ... oubin] " open ".

^1;7(12) 9-17-74

<E looks at the picture of a little boy (Grub) wearing only shorts, and says with a negative head shake:>

E: wet . like ... like . off .

<She also said "bobidi" in connection with this picture. She herself recently had her pyjamas removed because they were wet. Idea apparently is that the boy's pants are wet and he doesn't like them. Wants them off.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<F tells M that E is going to get him a blanket to sleep on. As E leaves the couch where she's playing with F, she says to M, wagging a finger:>

E: right back . daddy .

<Meanwhile, she goes to the kitchen and gets a towel and brings it to him.

"Daddy" in this sentence seems to announce something about her intended act.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<As E and M, look at a picture of Jack Sprat and his wife, eating with silverware:>

M: What's he doing?

E: eat .

M: Are they eating?

E: eat . fork .

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

E: [dVdVs] " cheerios ".

<E has had a word for this for several days.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<After M turns the T.V. on, E says to her:>

E: [kait.h] " quiet ".

<Perhaps the sound was a bit loud. M interpreted this as an imperative.

First spontaneous (totally) use. Earlier it was in connection with keeping quiet for sleepers.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<As E and M look at a picture of a boy, sitting on green stuff, leaning against a tree and reading a book:>

M: What's he doing?

E: book .

M: Is he reading a book?

E: [g&s] " grass ".

<First use of "grass", has been imitated.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E watches two baby raccoons (with striped tails) on T.V., and says:>

E: [daigi] " tiger ".

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E goes to where brooms are stored after she spills cheerios on the kitchen floor, saying:>

E: brush .

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E on the couch. She says, repeatedly, gesturing for M to go to the kid's room:>

E: come .

<M purposely plays dense. E finally gets up and walks behind M to the room and shows M something she wanted M to get out of the bed. First use in context when E didn't plan to lead M.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E looks at a bottle on the couch near to her, and says:>

E: bottle . Deedee .

<It is in fact E's bottle.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E rushes to the front door when it is time to go out, saying:>

E: goody goody !

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

E: [d&i] " have a good day ".

<In the last few days E has begun to say this spontaneously as F leaves the house in the morning. It's often modelled.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E looks at a cloth wall hanging at Woags' with many pink and purple circles, and says:>

E: moons ... balls .

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E touches an empty toilet paper holder just after M strips the cardboard roll off it, saying:>

E: all gone .

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<As M and E go into the dark kid's room, E says:>

E: [daik.h] " dark " .

<"Dark" has been modelled and imitated lately in connection with dark living room.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<As E sets out to return an object to the kid's room where it came from, she says several times:>

E: 1back2 2'room1 . " back room " .

<First use of location with "back".>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E at the book-shelf. She pushes "Sesame Street" book with the picture of "big bird" on the cover aside, and looks for another book, saying:>

E: 'no big bird . " no big bird " .

<Note, as of 9-23-74 combinations with "no" still very rare. All that I've heard are noted.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<After E agrees with M's statement that C's cold was worse:>

M: I'm sorry.

E: [ai daui] " I sorry ". <Imitated> ... I sorry , Deedee ... bonk .

<"Bonk" seems to be a general word for hurts. E didn't understand the reason for M's statement, i.e., perhaps thinks that C got hurt.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E tries to call F's attention to a toy tiger she is holding, saying:>

E: daddy , [daigi] " tiger ".

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<As we sit down to eat, E grabs a bit of food from M's plate, saying:>

E: baby got .

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

E: I can't .

<Produced on three occasions:>

- 1) After E tries to unzip M's zipper for a minute and cannot.
- 2) After E tries unsuccessfully for a minute to open a wrapped bandaid.
- 3) After E tries unsuccessfully to put a penny in her pocket.

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<E reaches urgently toward her bottle, which was a short distance away on the coffee table, saying:>

E: I bottle .

<Happy when M gives it. First S-O construction like this with "I".>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<After M returns from the bathroom, E says:>

E: potty .

M: Mommy went to the potty.

E: baby potty .

<E does not follow up this utterance with any motion toward the bathroom.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<As M puts something on E for an additional time,

E says:> E: [an gin] " on again ".

<Note, this occurred yesterday for the intercom.>

^1;7(13) 9-18-74

<After C, at M's request, zips up M's dress. E now rushes to work on the zipper, saying:>

E: [ai dip] " I zip ".

<"Zip" modelled earlier, but not with "I".>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<M lying on the bed. E holds up her palm to M, then goes out of the door and shuts it, saying:>

E: stay .

<Clear imperative intention.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

E: [b&ui] " smelly ". <Imitated. Also> [d&k.h] " snack ".

<Imitated>

<Note, S-[d], M-[m], n-[n] and in clusters with s, [s] is dropped where the second segment is a stop. But, Cf. also [d&k.h] "neck", imitated recently.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

E: [daik.h] " dark ".

<Produced on two occasions:>

1) E looking up into F's unlit office.

2) E looking out as she sits on the couch, it's getting dark.

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E touches a pole on the patio, saying:>

E: round .

<She and C sometimes go around and around these.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E climbs on M as M is lying down. She now bounces on M's stomach, saying:>

E: bouncy .

<M has modelled in this situation. First use.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E comes to M with a large container of plastic stacking toys, and wanting the top off, she says:>

E: [biudi] " building ".

<C has probably used the word "building" in connection with construction activity. First use, no imitation.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<After E drops a book on the floor, she starts to climb down to get it, saying:>

E: oops . [a git.h] " [a] get ".

<"Oops" has come in within the last week.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E, hearing a band practice, says:>

E: [b&n] " band ".

<Same pronunciation for "bandaid".>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<As E puts a piece of blue spongey packing material aside, she says:>

E: [b&nts] " patch ".

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E hands M a piece of tape she's just taken off a paper hand, soon after M put it on, saying:>

E: like .

<Worried look, but no negative head shake.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E has been putting a peg boy-doll on top of the cabin of a toy fire engine, saying:>

E: way way up . boy . <And> way way top . boy .

<Not directly imitated, though M probably modelled "way ..." and also "top".>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E stands beside the tape dispenser and C's paper chicken, which are on the coffee table. She looks hopefully at M, and says:>

E: tape "horsie . " tape horsie "

<C has earlier been sticking tape on the chicken. M questions, and it becomes clear that E meant she wanted to put tape on the chicken and needs M's help to get pieces of tape.>

^1;7(14) 9-19-74

<E takes a short wide candle out of its shallow glass cup-like candle holder, then puts it back, saying:>

E: open .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E looks across a room in a restaurant that several people have just walked across, and says:>

E: going .

M: Who's going? E:

Nanny .

<Not clear who E is looking at. She often calls elderly women "Nanny".>

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E looks at the picture of a girl with strands of wet hair in her face, and says:>

E: yukky .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<After E watches Jenny, Joey and Karen's daddy get in his car and start to drive off, she says:>

E: daddy . go . Joey .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E leans over with a little knife toward Joey's playdough, saying:>

E: cut . fork .

<They all have knives and have been cutting the playdough. E has imitated "knife" but does not use it spontaneously.>

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E, M and C leaving the house. E has just paused and picked up one of her shoes. She looks at it and walks out the door, saying:>

E: got . [dudis] " shoesies " . shoesies . got .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<With reference to Brad, who was crying on the floor:>

M: What is he doing?

E: cry .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<Just after E tries to take M's fork:>

F: You have a spoon.

E: fork . mommy .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<After E goes down a slide, she starts back toward the ladder, saying:>

E: more .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<After a leaf from an overhanging tree branch, tickles the top of E's head, she says:>

E: buggy .

<She hasn't seen yet what did it.>

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E tries to put a sock on her foot, saying:>

E: on ticky . <And> [digi] " ticky " <= " toes , foot ">.

<Note, as of 9-24-74 no others yet of this structure.>

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E and C in the tub. E, wanting some of her fish that are under C, says:>

E: more fish .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E sitting in front of M. She pushes M's arm away, which is over her head, saying:>

E: gidi " giddy " mommy .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E looks at a man seated near us eating in a restaurant, and says:>

E: baby man .

M: Oh, did you see a man?

E: eat .

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<E grabs a fork back from M angrily, after M took it away from her, saying:>

E: I baby 'fork . " I baby fork "

<First 3-word construction, other than 1 or 2 with vocatives.>

^1;7(15) 9-20-74

<A visiting toddler's mother has taken him off the spring horse when he cried.

E then gets on. Now she touches a place behind her on the horse, saying:>

E: baby ... [{w/r}ain] " ride ".

<First use of "ride", never imitated. Much modelled. E often rides behind C on the horse. I think she wanted the toddler to ride behind her. Could be two 1-word utterances from the pause, but intonation suggests not.>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<After E falls against the coffee table and hurts her cheek, M comforts her.

C asks what happened and E pats the place on the table as she "explains", saying:>

E: [ai <or> i dea] <or so> " right there " , Deedee , bonk .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<As E watches a muppet on T.V. hitting a drum and bouncing up and down, she says:>

E: dance .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E, coming up to M as M plays the piano, says:>

E: I play .

<Then she tries to climb up on the chair behind M, saying:>

E: up . get off .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E, climbing up beside F in a chair, says:>

E: get off .

<Seems to want him to move over.>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

E: get up <and> get off .

<Both new, and said several times today. Deliberate with a tiny pause between words.>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E has been looking at a picture of a teddy bear on a bike. Now she sees the same bear without a bike on a different page, and says:>

E: get off . beary . get off .

<E then tries to turn the page:> M: What should he get off?

E: get off . bike .

<A pause while E continues to look at the same picture, then she turns to a picture where a bear is on a bike and says:>

E: get off . bike .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

E: [b&NGki] " wagon ". <Imitated>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<As M, C, F and E arrive in our driveway in the car, after it has gotten dark, E says:>

E: dark .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E looks at cows in a field, and says:>

E: horsie .

<In pictures she generally calls them "cow".>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E, pushing M out of a beanbag chair, says:>

E: up .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

E: gum .

<Many times, after M gives her gum.>

F: Yeah, gum. <Or so.>

E: mommy .

<Pointing at M.>

F: Mommy gave you gum.

E: baby .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E, touching a picture of an elephant, says:>

E: [&nt.h] " elephant ".

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

E: [bamp.h] " bob ".

<After E hears this on T.V.>

M: Can you say "bop"?

E: [bap.h] " bop ".

M: Can you say "bom"?

E: [bam] " bom ".

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E tries to pour juice from her cup into C's, saying:>

E: Deedee , Deedee . pour .

<First use of "pour". C is no longer at the table.>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E touches a picture of one drum on a toy book cover, saying:>

E: drums .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E and M Watching Mr. Snuffalupagus on T.V.:>

M: What's that?.

E: [&nt.h] " elephant ".

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

E: [&bit.h] " rabbit ".

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) E looking at a rabbit in "Pat the bunny" book.
- 2) E touching a picture of a rabbit in a toy book.

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<As M gets sugar out, E says:>

E: [diuk.h] " sugar ".

<First recognized use, I think there have been others recently.>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E looks at picture of Peter rabbit, squeezing under a fence, and says:>

E: get up .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E starts to climb on a chair in the kitchen, saying:>

E: get up .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<F has given C a second piece of cheese. E, now wanting one too, says:>

E: more piece .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<After E finishes juice in her glass, she says to M:>

E: more juice .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E touches a man in a picture who is driving a VW, and says:>

E: [d&PH] " drive " ... man drive .

<Imitated. First imitation a couple of days ago. Then she imitated "the man is driving".>

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<As E puts crayons back in a box:>

M: What are you doing?

E: [g&n . w&i] " crayon . away ".

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E looks at the picture of a boy eating a banana, and says:>

E: boy .

M: What's the boy doing?

E: eat .

M: Yes, what's he eating?

E: [&] -- [d& b&] " banana ".

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E on a swing. Every time she swings forward her toes touch M's pant legs. She finally notices this, starts giggling and comments:>

E: pants .

M: What's Eva doing?

E: pants .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<As E and M look at a girl on a swing:>

M: What's that girl doing?

E: swing .

^1;7(16) 9-21-74

<E, spotting a salt shaker on a tray at the table, says:>

E: goody salt !

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E looking out of the window to see if she can see the boy cutting the grass. She has heard the mower previously, but not now, and hasn't seen the boy. She says:>

E: [gan] " gone ".

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<After M pretends to cry to illustrate what the boy in the picture was doing, E says:>

E: cry .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E hops down from the couch and goes to the window to see if she can catch a glimpse of the boy cutting our grass. She can't and says:>

E: nope .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<While E in the kitchen, she hears a helicopter go over the house, and says:>

E: [(-)gapt.h] " helicopter ".

<First use, totally spontaneous.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E touches the closed door of F's office as she passes, saying:>

E: office . daddy . office .

<F not home.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E has put the lid of a toy pot onto a toy cup and is evidently pretending it is a stove. M often asks her to get away from the real stove. E says:>

E: [git w&i] " get away ".

<A pause, then M talks at short length about E's 'stove', "is it hot?", etc.

E: get away , mommy . <and> get away . Deedee .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<As E stands in front of the T.V. and C sits nearby, E says to her:>

E: get off .

<E is cross, emphatic, but meaning unclear, i.e., what does she want C to do.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<With reference to a picture of a mouse in "Applemouse" book:>

M: What's this?

E: [wausi] " mousie ".

<First use, not modelled recently. Many times more as we read and sometimes [wausis] in connection with one mouse.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E, coming up to M with a comb, says:>

E: comb . <First use>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<With reference to a picture of a house:>

M: What's this?

E: [aus] " house ".

<First clearly spontaneous use, has been imitated.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<With reference to C's coat, E says:>

E: coat .

M: _____.

E: coat . Deedee .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<As E makes a dolls hand wave, she says:>

E: wave .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<After something falls off the couch where E is sitting, she says:>

E: down . drop !

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E looks for a crayon, and says:>

E: [A] crayon , [A] crayon . <Pause> find !

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<As E plays in the back seat of the car, she gestures toward the door, saying:>

E: door .

<Clearly wants M to close it. M plays dumb, E gets frustrated, and tries:>

E: please .

<First spontaneous use. Has been imitated recently.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E runs up to grab a broom away from M just after M gets it out to sweep, saying:>

E: [gip.h] " sweep ".

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E pushes a toy car into the garage of a doll house, saying:>

E: bye-bye car .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<After E drops a toy potty she's been playing with onto the couch, she says:>

E: potty . I get .

<Then she fumbles in the cushions for it and picks it up.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<As M gets E up in the morning while C is still asleep:>

M: Did you wake up?

E: Deedee wake .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E, coming up to M as M talks on the phone, says:>

E: I talk .

<C has been clamoring to talk. Probably modelled in C's longer utterances.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

E: box . [ai git] " I get " .

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

E: I can't .

<Produced on two occasions:>

- 1) E giving a foil towelette to F, after a very perfunctory attempt to open it. He opens it for her.
- 2) After E tries and fails to open the curtain.

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<As E looks at herself coyly in the mirror, she says many times (singsong):>

E: I me .

<Note, again on 9-23-74.>

^1;7(17) 9-22-74

<E shows M where she has set a piece of apple down on the floor, saying:>

E: right here . <there ?> .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<As M and E stand looking into the toilet after M flushes the contents of E's diapers, E says:>

E: potty Deedee .

E: potty . Deedee .

M: Oh, does Deedee use the potty?

E: mommy .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<As M puts sugar on something, E models, saying:>

E: [dugi] " sugar ". <Imitated>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<As E eats a donut, she says:>

E: [dondit.h] " donut ".

<Delayed imitation.>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<After C and Andrea talk of hiding, E says:>

E: [(h)ain] " hide ". <Imitated>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E, bringing a book to M, says:>

E: [min] " read ".

<First use. No model today.>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

E: yes !

<E says this many times, each time after M pulls her back away from the T.V. and tells her not to sit so close. E struggling to get back. Has been used in the last few days, but often imitated or the meaning not clear like this.>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

E: out .

M: Come out, come out.

E: get out .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E shouts across the street to where the shadowy figures of Sarah and Karen are walking, saying:>

E: see Joey ? moon .

<The moon is visible behind a cloud.>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E holds food up to a toy dog she has brought to the table with her, saying:>

E: 2'dog21gie1 2'bite2 ." doggie bite “.

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E sitting next to M in a restaurant booth. She pats the place beside her where C was sitting (without E) shortly before, and says:>

E: sit .

M: Who will sit there? E:

Deedee .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<As M looks for a key in her purse, E says:>

E: key . key . find . find . key . find key .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<M is trying to untangle pieces of yarn that E is playing with.

E says to her many times:>

E: I do it ! [dambi] " dummy ! ".

<E snatches several pieces away, each time with "I do it!".>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<As M fumbles in her purse looking for her keys, E says:>

E: find. keys. [bain gis] " find keys ".

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E picks at a patch that was stuck to the bottom of a toy tiger, saying:>

E: patch . off .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<As E holds out a piece of cake to Andrea's cat's mouth, she says:>

E: miaow . bite .

<Both several times, original order not clear.>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E reaches into a paper bag to get out a chestnut, saying:>

E: get .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E runs into F's office to summon him down for goodbye ritual as we leave the house, saying:>

E: kiss .

<Then waving to F as she stands next to him, she says:>

E: [w&iC] " wave ".

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<With reference to a picture on T.V., E says:>

E: [&nt.h] " elephant ".

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<After some women near us get up and leave their table in a restaurant,

E says:>

E: done . <Pause> Nanny .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<In order to get C to hold up her hands in a restaurant, after M and F have already done so, E says:>

E: hands .

<When C shows her greasy hands, E says:>

E: dirty .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<As C lists to M who the older children in her class are, E echoes the two words she recognizes:>

C: Sam, Andrea ... ..

E: Andrea .

C: Scott, me ... ..

E: you .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E looks at the background for a puzzle piece that is a bus, showing people riding inside (some of which are women), and says:>

E: mommy . go .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E puts a chestnut down on the arm of a couch beside her, saying:>

E: sit .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

E: mine <or> mines .

<E says this very frequent lately, to indicate that she wants something that has been taken away or which someone has or is out of reach. No real relationship with possession. Like "want".>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E discouraged after unsuccessfully trying to pull a piece of tape off a dispenser, says:>

E: I can't .

M: What can't you do?

E: tape .

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<E goes toward the phone just after C has finished playing with it, takes it off the hook, and says:>

E: get eight .

<She has often said "eight" in the past while punching numbers on the phone. M has modelled in the past numbers for C that always starts with "8".>

^1;7(18) 9-23-74

<While E is in the car in C's place, apparently trying to close or buckle the two ends of the seat belt over her lap, she says many times:>

E: open .      <= " close ">

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After E gives F a bite of her popsickle:>

M: Who took a bite?

E: daddy ! baby !

<She's been eating it before him.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

E: stay .

<This has been heard a couple of times lately. E.g., I think today as a command to M.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<With reference to Instant Breakfast powder, E says:>

E: [baudi] " powder ". <Imitated>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<As we pull into the driveway in the afternoon:>

M: Daddy's car is gone so that means daddy's not here.

E: ball .

<F has often gone to play tennis at this time.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<As M fixes dinner, E points in turn to 3 potatoes on plates on the counter (2 on one plate, and 1 on another), saying:>

E: daddys . mommy . babies .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E in her crib at bedtime; the light is still on. She says:>

E: light . on .

<E has been protesting lately when M turns the light off. Perhaps here she's campaigning to have it left on.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E touches a record on the phonograph, saying several times:>

E: [wikit.h] " record ".

<Approximately. First use.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E, touching a pan on the counter, says:>

E: cook .

<First spontaneous use, has been imitated.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E sees C's ring in the car as we get out, and wanting it, she says:>

E: [biNG] " ring ".

<Happy when M gives it.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E wistfully stands near M with a book, saying:>

E: [min] " read ". <Doesn't persist>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<When C is pouring pancakes, E wants to also. She says:>

E: [bo] " pour ".

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<When Marc comes into view, E says:>

E: [wauki] " Markie ".

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After M hands E a popsickle. E says:>

E: tight .

<Probably modelled ("hold on tight") in similar situations in the past.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<In the midst of E's efforts to have everyone pour juice from one glass to another at dinner, she tries to pour hers into F's, saying:>

E: pour . glass .

<First use of "glass".>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E, spanking a water-filled balloon with her hand, says:>

E: spank .

M: Oh, are you spanking?. <Or so.>

E: naughty .

<First use, I don't recall imitating.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After E licks M's hand several times, she says:>

E: all clean .

<First clear spontaneous use.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After E wipes at M's eyes with a moist towelette, she says:>

E: eyes . [a gin] " all clean ".

<"All clean" is new today. Note, no more as of 10-9-74.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E playing a game of "diapering" M. Leaving M, she goes to get something, saying:>

E: right back . soon .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<As E rubs C with a washrag in the tub, after she's been saying WASH">

M: Who is baby washing?.

E: Deedee .

M: Who is washing Deedee?

E: baby .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After M and F have been scolding E for banging on the table with her spoon, she now E bangs with her hand and then looks at M smugly before saying:>

E: baby .

M: What is baby doing?

E: bam .

<Pleased with herself.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After E puts the top back on the Worcestershire sauce bottle, she says:>

E: on . bottle . [an 'ba] " on bottle ". <3 times>

<Cf. "on tickies" or same structure, 2 days ago.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E tries to push round white porthole pieces out of a boat puzzle, saying:>

E: balls ... out .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

E: [ain daun] " (lying/lie) down ".

<Also last night. E playing a new game where she wants M, F or C to lie down and let her "diaper" them. She puts a diaper across their stomachs.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

E: more !

<After E finishes juice.>

M: <Explains that there is no more.>

E: baby ! baby more ! <Upset>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E tries to call F's attention to something, saying:>

E: see daddy .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<When a neighbor lady (unknown to E) comes to the door, E says:>

E: hi , mommy .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E pushes a cabinet door in the kitchen shut out of the way of where she wants to stand, saying:>

E: no door .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<M has put peas in E's cup, but E has acted discontent, not interested in the cup:>

M: Didn't you want some peas? E: no peas .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After M and F have scolded E for banging on the table with her spoon. She doesn't want to substitute her hand, wants to keep doing it with the spoon:>

F: You can do it with your hand.

E: hand no .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E riding on her "Big wheel" but its wheel is stuck in a bush next to the sidewalk.

She says to M, fretfully:>

E: I stick .

<Happy when M frees it.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<As E fiddles with a tape recorder, wanting the top to spring open as it has for her on a different kind of recorder:>

M: I don't even know how to open that.

E: daddy do it .

<F in the next room. Perhaps thinks that he would know how.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E wants to do something with regard to a moist towelette by herself, saying:>

E: I baby do it .

<Second combination of "I baby" and word.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<As E fiddles with a pan on the counter, she seems frustrated, and says:>

E: I can't . self . I can't . self .

<I don't know what she wanted to do. First use of "self" since last recorded. Note, no more as of 10-9-74.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E reaches to pick up one pea she's dropped from her cup of peas she's been eating, saying:>

E: 2I2 2'more1 . " I more ".

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E inside Dot's house. She strains to get out to ride the bikes, which she often does after M picks her and C up, saying:>

E: I bike .

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E struggles to get away from M to go see Sesame Street, saying:>

E: Bert ! Bert !

M: Oh, you want to go see Bert?

E: see Bert .

<Imitated. Perhaps Bert is on.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<When E hears Sesame Street music on T.V., from the next room, she says:>

E: boom boom time .

<"Boom boom" is her name for the show, from C and E's adaptation of the song.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<E in the back seat of the car. She looks at M's purse on the front seat divider, and says several times each:>

E: purse . <And> mine . <Also> mine purse .

<Gets urgent, clearly wants it. Happy when M gives it.>

^1;7(19) 9-24-74

<After M takes E's cup away at the table. E, wanting it back, says many times:>

E: mine . [2'mai2 1bIk.h1] " my cup ! " .

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<As E stands up, she says:>

E: [2d&n2 ... 3'ap.h2] " stand ... up " .

<First use of this combination.>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<As E revolves in the kitchen, she says:>

E: more dance .

M: More dance?

E: dance . Deedee .

<Meaning of "more" here not clear.>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E looks in cupboards under the sink where there are paper grocery bags, and says:>

E: groceries ... daddy .

<She has imitated "groceries" in the recent past in connection with groceries and M saying we would ask F to bring them in.>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E holds up an M+M she's found in a pile of beads, and says:>

E: baby ! find !

M: What did baby find?

<She holds M+M up for M to see, saying:>

E: [baiba] .

<Meaning of [baba] is unclear. A few minutes later, E leads M to the cupboard where M+M have been kept in the past, pointing hopefully, saying again:>

E: [baiba] .

<She's just eaten the other.>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E touches the white plastic letters on a black restaurant menu display board, saying many times:>

E: [&dis] " letters ". <First use>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E touches the nipple of her full bottle, saying:>

E: [VVV gAm] " here (it) comes ".

<Milk had recently dripped out. Never modelled in this connection.>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E touches her bottle's nipple, which has just been dripping on the couch, saying:>

E: [dip.h] " drip ".

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E in her crib. After she finishes the milk in her bottle, she says:>

E: more milk .

<Just after M takes her bottle to refill it, E says:>

E: more , Deedee .

<M often refills C's at the same time, but C now seems to be asleep.

As M leaves without C's bottle, E says, softly, as if to herself:>

E: more bottle . Deedee .

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<As E sits on the couch with some books around, she says:>

E: no book .

<Exact meaning unclear. She was not reading nor does she start.>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E tries to get a look at C's toe, as C shows a sore place on it to M, by saying:>

E: [2'ai2 1'di1] " I see ".

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<As M and C talk about whether or not there is any cake for dessert after dinner, E says:>

E: [ai bit.h] " I bit ".

<"Bit" spontaneous. It has been modelled in the past in connection with other foods, e.g., "a little bit". E apparently wants a bit.>

^1;7(20) 9-25-74

<E tries insistently to give pants to C, which M has brought out for C, saying:>

E: Deedees . pants . Deedee pants .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E takes tangled necklaces away from M, who's been trying to untangle them. Then she takes them over to C, saying:>

E: I do it . Deedee ask .

<First recorded use of "ask" (no other as of 10-21-74). After E takes them away from C and starts toward M, she says:>

E: mommy do it . tangled .

<Then as she stops to work on them, she says:>

E: I do it .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<After E indicates she wants "light get off":>

M: Shall I do it?

E: I baby !

<Several times, Then she tries to do it herself.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

E: [bindi] " spinach ". <Imitated>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

E: [ai bi] " balls ".

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

M: Shower time for mommy.

E: shower time mommy . <Imitated>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<As M fixes broccoli for dinner, of which E has had a bit earlier,
E says:>

E: [bagit.h] " broccoli ".

<First clearly spontaneous use, has often been imitated.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E, pointing to a picture of a rabbit in "Best Word" book, says:>

E: [&bit.h] " rabbit ".

<All rabbits have been "miaow" until now.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E, pulling a peg bus that she's put peg people into, says:>

E: mine .

<It is a communal toy.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E and M inside; C and friends playing in the patio. E tries to close the sliding doors and can see C and the others through the glass. She says:>

E: close . close . close . door . close . close . door . Deedee .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E looks at her bare feet as she lies on her back, and says:>

E: shoesies . all gone . boots .

<She hasn't had shoes on yet this morning.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E points to the T.V., where numbers are flashing on "Sesame Street", and says:>

E: eight !

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

M: Can daddy touch baby?

<E comes near F, waits for his touch.>

M: Can baby touch daddy?

<E swats F's knee.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

E: <Comprehension:> S-V-O:>

M: Can mommy touch Eva?

<E pretends to cower next to the couch. Waits for M to touch her. Then right after that:>

M: Can Eva touch mommy?

<E immediately touches M. Soon after:>

M: Can mommy touch baby?

<E waits for M to touch. Then:>

M: Can baby touch mommy?

<E touches M.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E, starting to pull her bib off, says:>

E: [bimp.h] " bib ".

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<Just after E places a bottle up on a pillow on the couch, she says:>

E: up . bottle !

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<After E has gotten down from her own chair, climbed into M's, and begun to eat M's supper, she says:>

E: eat .

M: Who is eating?

E: baby .

M: What is baby eating?

E: mommy .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<C on the swing and E pushing her. When M tries to push too, E says as a protest:>

E: I push .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E tries to shoulder M aside and take over as M wipes spilled raw rice off the counter with her hand, saying:>

E: [ai gip.h] " I sweep ".

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E, snatching a pen and paper away from M, says:>

E: I draw !

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E tries to retrieve her bottle, which M has just put a little out of her reach, saying:>

E: 'I get! 'I get! 'I get ... bottle. " I get ! I get ! I get ... bottle ".

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<M is scraping sand off the edge of the sandbox, back into it with the edge of a toy shovel. E comes up to take the shovel in order to do it, saying:>

E: [ai gip.h] " I sweep ".

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E, reaching up toward a bandaid box, says:>

E: [ai bi] " band (aid) ".

<She's just led M into the bathroom to get them. [ai bi] common lately.

Perhaps a form of "I baby?".>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E looks at empty tennis ball cans under the sink, and says:>

E: [momoi goks] " no more cokes ".

<She calls all metal cans "coke".>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E, making a toy dog go up a tiny ladder in her hand, says:>

E: stairs , doggie stairs . doggie .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E touches F's sports jacket, which is hanging on a chair, and says:>

E: daddy's . <Two times>

M: Daddy's what?

E: daddy . daddy coat .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E tries to get a little chair in at the counter, where C already is on a chair. Frustrated because M is in the way, she says:>

E: gidi mommy .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<C and M working at the kitchen counter. E tries to shove a chair in beside the chair that C is standing on, but it is too crowded. Frustrated, she says:>

E: gidi , Deedee .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E notices C coming outside and heading for the swing set, she says:>

E: [2'didi1 2'biNG1] " Deedee swing ".

<Could be two utterances, from intonation.>

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<After E grabs at a kitty in a picture and then puts her hand in her mouth and makes eating noises:>

M: What are you eating, Eva?

E: miaow .

^1;7(21) 9-26-74

<E looks at the floor lamp beside the couch, which is on. She starts to climb over M to turn it off, saying:>

E: light . get [a -- a -- aPH] off . light . off . I get .

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<As M fiddles with her key chain trying to open it, E says:>

E: keys .

M: Mommy's gonna put a key in the Volvo. <Or so.>

E: keys daddy .

<E's meaning unclear. M, E, and F had been at this location in the university parking lot a little earlier trying to start the broken-down Volvo and M had given the keychain to F at that time.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<F points out several YELLOW objects to E, emphasizing the word, then asks her to find something else yellow.> <E picks a yellow magnet off the refrigerator, one which F had NOT used.> <F asks E to pick out something else that is yellow.> <E picks out a RED magnet.> <F says no, calls it RED. E then says:>

E: Pink .

<Then E goes on to touch a purple magnet, also saying "pink". Note: she has overextended "pink" to red and purple before. Never to green or yellow. Green, yellow, orange and blue magnets all were present.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E looks at M's belt, and says:>

E: [beut.h] " belt ".

<Has been imitated lately with F. First totally spontaneous use.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E makes a toy frog jump while on the bed, and says:>

E: jump .

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E stands near an aquarium looking at fish. She then says, hopefully, several times:>

E: touch .

<M says "don't touch" and she doesn't.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E takes birdhouse piece off a puzzle and seeing "one" bird underneath, says:>

E: birdies .

<Then she takes a doghouse piece off and finding "one" dog, she says:>

E: doggies .

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<C is playing across the street. As E sits at the table playing with "silly putty" that belongs to C, she says:>

E: Deedee !

<E has carefully gotten out a comic book to use with the putty and is doing just what C does.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E picks up a plastic pot with a handle in Johnson's yard, saying:>

E: cook .

<The kids often fill it with dirt and perhaps pretend to cook.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E situates herself carefully on a pillow on the bunk bed. She then says repeatedly while patting a place near her:>

E: [i&] " here ". <Approximately>

<First clear use of "here" in locative non-handing-something-over function.

Note, not again as of 10-1-74. By 10-9-74, she combines it with "sit".>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E looks at racks of rolled up fabric in a fabric store, which are horizontal and says:>

E: [daus] " towels ".

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E sees an elderly lady at the table, sitting near us, and says:>

E: nanny .

<As she catches sight of two others there too, she says:>

E: nannies .

<Both in close succession.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E looks at the purses of 3 elderly ladies standing near us. As she points around, she says several times:>

E: purses .

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E looking at pictures of animals on a playground in the "Best Word" book.

She looks at the slide that has a dog coming down, then at the swings where a cat is hanging by its knees, and says:>

E: slide ! doggie ! swings ! miaow ! cake ! miaow !

<"Cake" = "upside down cake".>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<When E sees Joey in his driveway across the street as we come home, she says:>

E: Joey !

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E sees a group of unfamiliar children on the grass outside a school, and says:>

E: Joeys .

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E looks at people near us in a restaurant, and says:>

E: man stand .

<Not clear whether she saw a man stand up.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<Just after F zips M's shirt at her request, E comes over to participate (a frequent scenario after C zips M), saying:>

E: I zip .

<After E has fiddled with the already zipped-up zipper for a moment, she says:>

E: mommy zip .

<Not clear is "mommy" is object, agent, or what.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E doing a jigsaw puzzle. She holds a piece, saying:>

E: [ai wi] " I [wi] 'work' ".

<First use of this combination.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E, trying to take M's pen away. Says:>

E: [ai di doys] " I see Joeys ".

<There is another pen (not this one) that E has commented on as "Joeys" before -- we got it at Joey's house. Note, later today, this same sentence in connection with something completely different. I think meaning not clear.>

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E has been looking at an aquarium with fish. She now looks down at her front and clutches her shirt, as if patting herself, and says:>

E: I me .

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E snatches up an inflated airplane that she called "boat", saying:>

E: [aibi] " I BI boat ".

<Then looks at it and says this in a greeting way:>

E: hello , boat !

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E looks at a child wearing a tiger mask in the doorway of a store. The child has just gone to the back of the store, E says:>

E: come , tiger .

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<In order to get Dot to watch her, E says many times:>

E: watch , Dot !

<As E runs across the floor doing her "trick", she says:>

E: me ! me !

^1;7(22) 9-27-74

<E upset by yarn that C has tied onto the tractor, and wants M to take it off. She says:>

E: 1mommy1 ... 3'off1. " mommy off ".

<Vocative intonation. When M doesn't do it, she goes to F:>

E: 1daddy1 ... 3'off1 . " daddy off "

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E shows M a doll, saying:>

E: got .

M: What did you get?

E: [ai gi gat.h] " I GI got ".

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks at C's doll "Vicky", lying on the bed beside E, and says:>

E: [biki . ain daun] " Vicky . lying down ".

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<M has given E, at E's request, a necklace from M's desk. E continues to look at, and wants, another necklace that is also on the desk. She says:>

E: necklace . [&gis du:] " necklace too ".

<First clear use of "too".>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<Phonology:>

E: find baby. <Imitated>

E: [biNGis] " fingers ". <Imitated>

E: [ain] " hard ". <Imitated. Also 9-29-74>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<After M applauds C for a trick, E says:>

E: [gunt.h] " good ".

<Imitated. E has imitated and spontaneously said [gun] before.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

M: What are these? <Pointing to a picture of scissors.>

E: scissors .

M: What do you do with scissors? E: cut .

M: What can you cut with scissors? E:

Deedee . mommy .

<E interprets as a question about agent.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E shows M a tiny doll she's put into a little car, saying:>

E: [wain] " ride ". <Second use>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E pushes a sponge mop along a rug, saying:>

E: [gip.h] " sweep ".

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E picks up a sawed-off sponge mop, saying:>

E: tiny .

<The handle is quite short.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E crying after C does something to her. C kicked her diapers (?)

and E says many times:>

E: dipies !

<Then, several times, she says:>

E: Deedee ! <Then:> kick !

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E putting doll clothes into our ex-juice pitcher, which we keep the clothes in now, saying:>

E: clothesies . juicies .

<She has been putting them in and out>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<As E pulls a mop along the bedroom floor toward the living room, she says:>

E: going .

M: Where are you going?

E: [aimimum] " living room ". <First use, never imitated>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E holding up C's Barbie doll's bathing suit, has just said:>

E: [didis] " what's this ? " .

<Now she says:>

E: [baibis] " Barbies " .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<After E takes M's pancake and gives M hers, she says:>

E: mine . mommys .

<She then looks at C's, and says:>

E: Deedees .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E pulls the bonnet of her doll out of the pitcher, saying:>

E: hat . baby .

<"Baby" seems to refer to the doll.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E and C standing on stools at the counter. E has had toast a moment earlier and now says:>

E: bite . toast .

<Maybe biting it now.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E's pants with pockets in them are off. She's put some coins in them a moment earlier. Now looking around for the pants, she says:>

E: pockets . find .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks up at the money bowl on a desk, and says:>

E: money . [bagits] " pockets ".

<Wants coins to put in her pockets. Has been doing this lately.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E has her coat on. Going to show it to F, she says:>

E: [d&git.h] " jacket ".

<A new word for her. Several times lately, spontaneous and imitated.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E touches her coat on a chair in the front hall, saying:>

E: coat ! mine !

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<As E sits on a merry-go-round in the park, going round and round, she says:>

E: round .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks at a man eating while reading a book at the adjacent table in "Dairy Queen", and says:>

E: man . eat . book .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks at a child's red coat, and says:>

E: pink .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks at two little girls in a store, and says:>

E: boysies .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E, M and C in the car. E looks around first at C, then at M, then at herself in the car seat, and says:>

E: Deedee . place . mommy . place . baby . place .

<"Place" = "where we were sitting".>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks at cigars in a store showcase, and says:>

E: hot dogs .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E on a chair. She tries to get down, looking to M for help, saying:>

E: mommy . down . mommy . down .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E puts a handful of baby clothes back into the pitcher, saying:>

E: backs .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<With reference to doll clothes in the pitcher, E says in quick succession:>

E: clothes <and> [kousis] " clothesies ".

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<M to C, who has been hopping on the couch:>

M: Hip hop .

<Immediately, E, who was also on the couch, begins to bounce on her knees, saying:>

E: baby ! hip hop .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E goes downstairs in a museum, holding onto a bannister. The bannister has just ended at a panel in the wall, and then starts up again. She says:>

E: more !

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<M and C doing something in the kitchen. E in her highchair, wants to participate. She says:>

E: I do it !

<Then holds up her dirty hands and says:>

E: [biNG . dudi] " finger . dirty ".

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks for her coat near the chair where she'd had dinner, and says:>

E: I coat .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E holds up a mop handle that M has called a stick earlier, saying:>

E: [at di dik.h] " I DI stick ".

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E, wanting more chocolate, after finishing some, says:>

E: more chocolate .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<As E pushes a toy car through a pile of beads on the floor, and shoving the beads to one side, she says:>

E: gidi beads .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

M/F: _____ <Not directly relevant to next utterance>

E: Didi chocolate .

M: What are you eating?

E: [dagit.h] " chocolate " .

<After M has divided a tootsie roll between C and E. C is now outside from where E just came, C is eating chocolate too. "Chocolate" recently modelled. I think she knows it though. She didn't see that C had chocolate before M gave her a piece, thus not a possessive.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E looks at the picture of a boy hammering with a hammer, and says:>

E: boy . <Pause.> [&mi] " hammer " .

M: What's the boy doing? E:

bam bam !

<First use, never imitated nor modelled recently.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

E: right back .

<This continues very frequent with little hand gesture when E leaves for a minute. No "mommy back" or other contrasts.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E on the coffee table. Pretending she is going to fall, she says:>

E: fall .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E and M at the counter, M stirring batter. E tries to shoulder her out of the way, so she can do it, saying:>

E: mommy , 'don't . " mommy , don't " .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<As we back up in Andrea's driveway in the car, E says to her:>

E: look , Andrea .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<After E finishes "reading" a book to Vicki (C's doll), she says:>

E: that's all , baby .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<After E thinks she hears F get up in the morning, she says:>

E: daddy up .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<As M puts E's sock on, E says:>

E: on sockie .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E, wanting her coat off, says:>

E: coat off .

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<After E comes in from playing outside, she wants her coat off, and says:>

E: coat . off . house .

<We are in the house.>

^1;7(23) 9-28-74

<E upset when M, on the couch, sits back against doll clothes that she is playing with. She says:>

E: no ! get off !

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<As E holds up beads, she says:>

E: [ai gai got.h] " I GUY got ".

M: What have you got?

E: [bins] " beads ".

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E in the art museum, holding a piece of candy. She says:>

E: got candy ... mommy . candy . all gone .

<M had not had candy, meaning of that unclear.>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E puts Barbie doll on her back in M's lap, saying:>

E: [ain daun baibi] " lying down Barbie ".

<Could be vocative (lying down not an inflected form to E).>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

E: down .

M: Do you want to get down?

E: lying down . baby .

<M misinterpreted E, who was not stating a wish but commenting on the position of nearby doll, Vicki.>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E moves around, doing some project. She looks first for a scissors, then after getting that, some tape, and says:>

E: [d&n didis] " then scissors ". <and> then tape .

<First use of "then". M has consciously modelled it in this sense recently.

Note, as of 10-21-74 this faded out soon, no more uses.>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<When E hears the washing machine go off, she says:>

E: [d&n] " done " .

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E looks at a tiny statue of a llama, which has small pointed ears, and says:>

E: ears . <Imitated, and> earsies. <Spontaneous>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E, delightedly looking at M's eyes after M blinks them rapidly. Says:>

E: eyes . [aisis] " eyesies " .

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E picks at dried ice-cream on a "Dairy Queen" table, saying:>

E: out .

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E looks into a paper bag at a restaurant, at a hamburger, and says:>

E: [d&ns] " sandwich " .

<This is a new word, has been imitated in the last few days.>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E peeks at a hamburger in a paper bag as it arrives in a restaurant, and says:>

E: in .

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E looks at M's juice glass as it sits in M's lap, and says:>

E: drink .

<Then when M doesn't respond, she adds:>

E: mommy (s) .

<M points out that her glass is empty, saying:>

M: Mommy's is all gone.

<E then takes her cup with juice in it and pours it into M's cup, saying:>

E: [boi] " pour ". pour baby . mommy .

<A pause, then just before M drinks out of her refilled glass, E says:>

E: drink .

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E struggles to fit a number of small dolls into a tiny crib, saying:>

E: I can't boy .

<She calls all of them "boy".>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E putts her hand down into her diaper. She's had a penny she's been sticking in there, saying POCKETS, etc.:>

E: [ai nami] " I money " .

M: Oh, do you have some money?

E: I get .

M: Are you going to get it?

E: yah .

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<C and E eating ice-cream cones:>

C: I'm letting it drip on the grass.

E: drip tummy ... drip grass . <Imitated>

<E's cone is in fact dripping on her tummy, then on the grass.>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E holds a strand of hair that is partially wrapped around her finger, saying:>

E: ring .

<F made her a "silly putty" ring a few days ago.>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E starts to pull a peg bus along, which she's previously filled with peg dolls that she calls "boys", saying several times:>

E: come . come boys .

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

E: [gi w&i] " get away " Deedee .

E: get away mommy .

E: get away .

E: get away boys .

<All these repeated several times as E plays at toy shelves. A monologue.

C and M are nearby but not interfering in any way. E not looking at them or insistent. "Boys" may mean the peg dolls nearby. She calls them all "boys".>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E plays at shelves in the toy area, and has put a toy plate on the top shelf, saying:>

E: up high .

<First combination like this. First use of "high". Note, as of 10-9-74 continues frequently, only in this combination.>

^1;7(24) 9-29-74

<E brings her doll's hat over to her doll (= "baby"). She then brings the hat and doll to M for M to put the hat on, saying many times:>

E: baby . hat . on . hat on . hat on .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

E: more <and> again .

<Both said to get M to turn the light off in the bathroom, as E and C are in the tub. M has already turned it off and on several times.>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E stands up in the tub with vinyl fish squeezed up between her legs, saying:>

E: fishy ! bobidi ! <= B.M.> .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E puts a tiny doll into her mouth and pretending to gobble it, says:>

E: eat . boy .

<It's a girl, she calls them all "boys" though.>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E looks with delight at the shape she's made out of "silly putty", and says:>

E: airplane .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E watches a large plastic cup floating (partially submerged), full of vinyl fish, and says:>

E: boat !

<Could be "float?".>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<As E "walks" her fingers up to her neck in the tub, she says several times:>

E: up , up , up .

<When she arrives at her neck, she says, again several times:>

E: neck .

<Then starting her fingers back down, she says once more several times:>

E: down , down .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E picks up a little plastic box as it floats near her in the tub, saying:>

E: [bot] " boat " <or> " float ".

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E looks up at the ceiling fan in the bathroom, and says:>

E: [b&n] " fan ".

<Note, no longer [d&n].>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<At the dinner table, after everyone has had a piece of donut, E says:>

E: donut . mommy . (donut) . daddy . <Also:>

E: Deedee . mommy . all gone .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<As E touches the hands of a doll, she says:>

E: [&ndisis] " handiesies ". <Uncertain.>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<While E is in the tub, she tries to get the rest of her vinyl fish out of the water pitcher, saying:>

E: [moisis] " moresies ".

<Note, this form has occurred elsewhere too in connection with multiple items (not food substances).>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<While E is in the tub, she tries to collect her vinyl fish, saying:>

E: [bisis] " fishiesies ".

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E tries to retain control of toy pots and pans in the nursery, as other children interfere, saying:>

E: I cook .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E fretfully removes a canister of blocks after a boy in the nursery puts his foot on it, saying:>

E: [baksis] " blocksies ".

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E takes a handful of toy forks she's just collected off the table and starts around to the other side of the table, saying:>

E: [d&ik.h] " take ".

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E gives a tiny sandwich hors-d'oeuvre back to M after tasting it, saying:>

E: like . <= " Don't like ".>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<When M brings 2 donuts to the table where E and C are, E says:>

E: [dondits] " donuts ! ".

<Spontaneous, though modelled by M in casual conversation with C earlier.>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E is upset as she tries to remove a doll from under a boy in the nursery who just sat down on it. She says:>

E: baby !

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<After someone comments on E's pink shirt, E, looks at M's shirt that is also pink, and says:>

E: pink .

<Then E points to a child in a pink coat a short distance away and repeats:>

E: pink .

<Then again as someone walks past us with red clothes:>

E: pink .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E holds her toothbrush up to her teeth, saying:>

E: [ai b&s] " I brush ".

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E comes to the bathroom cupboard and reaching up toward the bandaid box, she says:>

E: I bandaid .

<Happy when M gives her one.>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E leads M to a toothpaste tube. She has a toothbrush and wants M to put some on the brush (for the first time today), saying:>

E: more teeth .

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E comes nude to the tub where M is starting to bathe C. M asks if daddy took E's shirt off, she accedes, and adds:>

E: 2dipie2 3'daddy1 . " dipie daddy ".

<F did take her diaper off in the next room.>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<F, M and E at the table. E tries to get C to come to the table, by saying many times:>

E: [dabidaim , didi] " supertime , Deedee ".

<First use of "supertime", though it has been modelled often.>

^1;7(25) 9-30-74

<E holding a doll down on the floor. She pulls at its pants, then again, while looking at M and says two times:>

E: pants off .

<After M takes its pants off, E says:> E: shirts off

.

<So M takes its shirt off.>

END OF FILE EVA06