

PERMISSION TO DISTRIBUTE TRANSCRIPT DATA
THROUGH TALKBANK
Carnegie Mellon University

Carnegie Mellon University is participating in a data-sharing program known as TalkBank that was established through federal and foundation grants. For the program to function properly, contributors will be asked to and will give permission for their work to be made available to other researchers. With a full understanding of the aforementioned, I hereby give permission to Brian MacWhinney, Director of the Center of the Child Language Data Exchange System at Carnegie Mellon University, to make and circulate electronic copies of the language transcripts and media that I describe below. These copies may be distributed to scholars and other responsible parties. I warrant that this use of the data is in accord with Human Subjects review procedures at my institution and that participants have given informed consent to have their data available to researchers. I also warrant that there is no copyright restriction over the transcripts and media being circulated. Any further restrictions that I wish to place on the use of these data are listed under (2) below. I do not hold Brian MacWhinney or Carnegie Mellon responsible for the enforcement of these further restrictions and indemnify and render harmless both Brian MacWhinney and Carnegie Mellon University against any actions at law or in equity or in similar courts of any jurisdictions arising from violations of these restrictions.

1. General description of the data set, and IRB Approval # (if available):

We collected discourse samples from a participant in our aphasia group program at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. The patient presents with primary progressive aphasia (PPA). The samples were collected by a graduate student clinician. The first data set (November 2016) is audio only, while the second data set (January 2016) was video recorded.

Both data sets include the Discourse Tasks:

SECTION I: Free Speech Samples

- a. Stroke story and coping
- b. Important event

SECTION II: Picture Descriptions

- a. Broken window
- b. Refused umbrella
- c. Cat rescue

SECTION III: Story Narrative

- a. Cinderella story

These data were collected as part of IRB Protocol Number: D15609019Q. A modification to the protocol has been submitted to include specific use by the TalkBank/AphasiaBank.

2. Restrictions to be placed on the use of the data:

None.
